Sound An Alarm...

Blow ye the trumpet of Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the Lord cometh, for it is nigh at hand...

Joel 2:1

I have come to know that many people prefer not to hear the truth, when it comes to the Lord's return—, and then there are those that you would have least expected—desiring to know more of His coming...Including Atheist!

As to the truth, we all have a choice concerning our eternal destiny, because the fact is—Jesus is coming soon.

2008, 2009, 2010, 2011
However, what if... Jesus returned today, would you be ready?

What if there was visual proof...

What if there was visual proof that heaven and hell, really do exist—would it change your life?

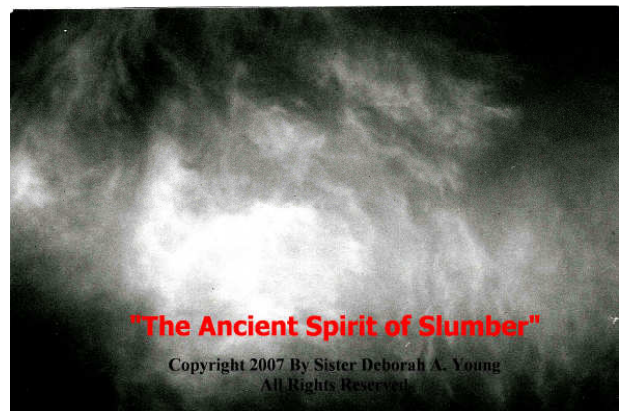

experienced great miracles—yet, this is even greater than most—because, I am allowed to share the greatest miracle by far; the gift of Salvation, in a very unique manner of ministering.

For many, since early 2007, the Lord has allowed me to provide the visual proof that was needed—to change lives.

In addition, to being able, to minister to hundreds—for most, they went and told someone, a family member, neighbor, a pastor, and others (young and old alike).

In my lifetime; I have

Hold On To Your Vision!

Are you holding on to your vision? Years ago, at the age of 12, I entered a “hula hoop” contest with my sister at a local park, in Oakland, California. Many of the local children participated in this event. The object of the competition was to send hopeful contestants, to “The California State Finals, Hula Hoop Competition”.

As the contest got underway, hula hoops swirled and with great anticipation, many contestants held on for a short time; until the piercing sounds of clattering hula hoops fell noisily to the floor. Many of the contestants were excused from the floor, as they were eliminated from the competition.

...I stood alone swirling my hoop in a continuous manner. I became somewhat embarrassed as all competitors, including the judges fixed their eyes on me.

I concluded that the contest was over, as so many competitors--had been cleared from the floor. It was at this point that I grabbed my hoop to stop. The judges had to have questioned my actions, you see, the competition was not over.

My skills had proven to be far greater than my competitors in this area of the competition. However, the final key point of the competition was for endurance. “I had in essence, given up the crown of victory, by looking to the left and to the right.

For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me. Against thee, only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest. Behold, I was shapen in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me. Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom. Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice. Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me. Restore unto me joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit. Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee. (Psalm 51:3-13) KJV Often, I reflect on this competition, it keeps me pressing toward the mark. Many may fall by the wayside... However, I have a vision that must not die--throughout the storms; I must maintain a vision that Jesus shall be with me. One day, when it's all said and done, my long-term vision is to look upon His face and behold His Glory, once more... but this time, in His completeness, forevermore.

“Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.”

Psalm 51:10

PROPHECIES & ENDTIME REVELATIONS: MAY 30-31, 2007

Wednesday, 5/30/07 @ 2:00 p.m.: The Spirit of the Lord is near to me, for His Spirit, rest upon my mind, my body, my soul: for He has found favor in me—in these last days and hours. His Spirit dwells in me, covers me and His hand is firmly upon me this very hour. He continues to bring the word “Published” to my attention, for His return is near. Yes, He has given me a voice in a time the world suffers from meat—His meat, the meat of His Word and water—the water, His Holy Spirit. For years, those that have called themselves, by His Holy Name—have deceived themselves and others—for their trust and faith were not in Him. For in doing so they failed to “BELIEVE”. He comes in this latter day—to expose those things that have been hidden—for His mercy and grace is extended to this generation. For His return is near, and even at the door... “For, My Words are before this generation, yet my return is near and even at the very threshold of my soon return, saith the Lord.” “For, I AM THE LORD GOD ALMIGHTY. For, I shall over shadow this generation with an end time latter rain, for, my mercy endureth forever, saith the Lord.” For it is written and it is so.

Thursday, 5/31/07 @ 9:09 a.m.: The Spirit of the Lord, His Word has gone forth; “The eye of the Lord is moving to and fro—searching the heart of every man; saith the Lord God of Host”. For, it is written and it is so.

For, My Words are before this generation, yet my return is near and even at the very threshold of my soon return, saith the Lord.

Destination Eternity.1

Lynden, WA--The photo to your left entitled “Destination Eternity”, is one of six photos, with a modern day reflection of the imprinted scriptures: Luke 16:19-31, and I Thessalonians 4:13-17; It would confirm that the word of God still holds to be true.

The souls of the unsaved are seen entering into the gate of Hell held open by an angel (their mouths and eyes are open)—and the souls of the saved are seen resting in the bosoms of angels; as Lazarus was with Abraham.

All will await judgment until Jesus’ return...

The angels in the photos are numerous; too many to count; they are young and old, and of both genders. These particular photos were taken at a shopping center, on a beautiful Sunday morning, in the spring of 2007 DY

Young people, do you have a prayer request, testimony, poem, short story or a song (to glorify the Lord) or a special youth service, or youth event coming up?

We would love to hear from you.

A special page of our newsletter is, being specially, dedicated for our youth.

Joel 2: 28-32

God is no respecter of person and He is not willing for any to perish. Have you not heard, that "For, God so loved the world that He gave His only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish, but have everlasting life. (John 3:16) KJV

There Is Hope For You

As a constant reminder of my vow to the Lord, and my passion for youth—I have posted at the entry of my office: a photo and a newspaper article of two young men. I have never had the opportunity of meeting either of these young men; yet, they both have made a major impact on my life, and that of my works in the ministry.

The first young man was a young college student with a life full of hope and promise—his grandmother had raised him. The second young man was living in the mist of darkness; his life was spiraling out of control—a self-proclaimed gangster.

In my lifetime, I have never grieved so much for anyone, as I have for these two young men. The grief was so unbearable—I had to call on the Lord—as I called on the Lord; He comforted me, He himself who is familiar with grief and sorrow. Both young men had been told about the Lord, and salvation and both had a choice—concerning their eternal destiny.

In the last hours of their young lives, one chose to believe and put his trust in the Lord. While, the other chose not to believe and died; believing there was no hope for him. He and another young man died a tragic death.

I am here to tell you, no matter the sin, God can meet you at your very need. There is HOPE!

Young Man, Listen!

Young man, listen to instruction, for wisdom comes from God and is a perfect gift.

In tune your ears, for it is not by might, nor, by power but by "His" spirit...

In the last days, trials will come your way; foolishness will be less than a sacrifice and only lead to destruction, and a destructive path.

Young man do you dance to the beat of the drum, or do you wait patiently on the Lord?

As the beat of the drum begins to fade, you will hear "Him" calling, "He" will call you by your very name.

Young man, listen!

A Heaven or Hell Party

Growing up in the 60's, one of seven children, of both a Pentecostal minister and missionary, family was very important. It was almost a weekly event for us to get out and do things as a family—despite our large family size.

An older cousin of mine from Texas put on an event for our church, at his home. There was never such an event as this, ever before, that I was ever aware of—my guess is that it originated, in Texas

It was a party of all parties, for the young and old alike. It may have been the greatest party I, personally, had ever been to and experienced. It was neat how family and church family became as one—kind of like being in heaven to some degree.

This particular event was called a, "Heaven or Hell Party". Upon your arrival, each person blindly selected a folded piece of paper—drawn from a paper bag or bowl of some sort. It determined your destination—and could separate family members, almost instantly.

As you, enter with slip of paper in your hand—there were people everywhere—with a number of rooms for the entering guest. I recall there was food: fried chicken, chili, white coconut cake, chocolate cake—the spread was extensive—as my eyes must have widely scanned the table, and my mouth dropped open all as once, "A feast of all feast".

Although, the slip in hand was to determine our destiny as to what rooms we would enter, and what foods we would partake—the Host were not as harsh. Yet, it was to allow us to know the possibilities of our real life outcomes—with a timely choice to make...

Nearly forty years later, this event and experience is still fresh in my memory; more so today then anytime before. For, it is a reminder that the time is short—and that we are living in the very last days.

Some believe that, "well, it has been said for so long, now—that they still have a great deal of time..." However, there is no other way to say it, "We are living on the very threshold, of Jesus' return". Simply looking back over "2007" and now 2008—it does not take a rocket scientist to see that these years have just zoomed past. The bible says, "a thousand years to the Lord, is like a twinkling of the eye." It seems as if every year is going by faster and faster, just think about it...

There are many, which believe there is no heaven and hell; that there is an in-between and that if they just live their lives doing good deeds, that they shall be rewarded. Some continue to serve every god imaginable—yet, Jesus is on the way.

Be forewarned, that the Word of God says, "And, behold I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. I am Alpha and Omega the beginning and the end, the first and the last." (Revelation 22: 12-13)

It is written, and it so.

Give Your Heart to Jesus

Are you like the young rich man—who sought eternal life? Like so many Christians (today) that confess Jesus as their Savior, yet, having failed to surrender their all and all to Him, refusing to permit Jesus to have complete reign over their lives—as LORD. Are you holding onto riches of this life—as if you can take them with you?

Not all the laws, commandments and good deeds—alone-- will get you into heaven. "Only, what you do for Christ will last." Your obedience and your perfect will to the Lord, as you learn to trust in Him-- and surrendering your all and all, comes with a greater reward.

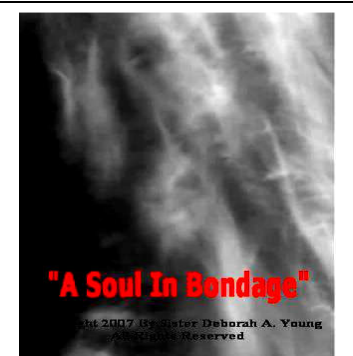

Look! We are living in the very last days, and in the very last hours. I can not say this enough, "If you think you are going to heaven on your own terms...and you do not repent and do what is right before the Lord—you are in store for a rude awakening—one that could separate you from our Lord and Savior for eternity. Think about it...

Wait! Maybe you think you have a great deal of time, yet the Word says, the Lord would come without warning, like a thief in the night...and yet, consider this as well—the young rich man, assuredly met with death and was separated for eternity, from all his riches.

Today may be the Lord's way of tugging at your heart one final time...
