

Uncovering YOUR extraordinary natural talents

Would you like to have an indisputable experience of there being much more to your natural talent than you have ever imagined?

Extraordinary or ordinary?

Simple step-by-step drawing exercises lead to the ease and extraordinarily high quality output of the 'in the zone' state.

Keys—e.g. choice, habit substitution (allowing fresh perceptions, perspectives)—are widely applicable e.g. sport, chess, rock climbing, music, business, projects, writing, art.

This experience stands out vividly against the background of ordinary everyday life.
