Hi folks,

We saw the importance of the Mars return in the US natal chart on 23042004, so let's take a look at another Mars return and its association to the Venus and Neptune retrograde stations on 17052004 ... that will be a Mars return for New York City and the NYSE anniversary.

On 17 May 2004, financial astrologers will have their attention focused on New York and on NYSE-listed companies, in particular.

Why so?

Simultaneous Venus/Neptune retrograde cycles are an infrequent event, being 27 years since the last one, this cycle should be of great interest to both traders and astrologers alike.

Now, we return to Venus and its retrograde station, at 26 degrees Geminii on 17 May 2004:

17 May 2004 ... Neptune and Venus on station to turn retrograde on the same day ... this day should mark reversals in some oil and gas stocks, as well as mining stocks and liquid commodities, like beer and other liquids.

Last time these two planets were retrograde together, in 1977, we saw this event as a trigger to send crude oil prices rally for the next 4 years.

Inflation-adjusted crude oil, at the Venus and Neptune retrograde cycle in 1977, was at $19.04 and by 1981, inflation-adjusted crude price had risen to $50.94.

During this business cycle, we will be vigilant for changes in interest rates and prices, that Venus retrograde will likely bring our way.

That aside, we have many aspects in three US-related charts pointing the way, this time:

However it does not stop there, if we look at the natal chart for NYSE, the very first correlation we find, is the NYSE anniversary, on 17 May, 2004 !~!

With so many major aspects pointing to NYC, we will look to the Sun, Venus and Mars again, for the some further clues:

Aspects of Venus with the Sun will magnify a financial flavour to any events around 17052004, while strong Venus aspect to Pluto may indicate an explosive event, that may be underground or "hidden" away.

Mars trine to Uranus may indicate a hi-tech link, while both Cancer and Pisces both indicate a water connection ... such as, computers damaged by water for example. This may also indicate the end of some older technology, in favour of some hi-tech system, too.

Pisces is the sign aligned with secrets and enemies and also institutions of all kinds, like hospitals and such. At this time, Uranus is in mutual reception with Neptune, so we will likely see some strong representation from this quarter, too.

If you doubt the power of a Mars return, just take a look at my US alert for 23042004 ... since that day, the US markets have been in a painful correction ... that was triggered by a Mars return, in the 1776 US natal chart.

Whatever happens in NYC around 17052004, will probably be costly for the markets and the USA.

..... and, with Venus transiting Mars natal position in the US chart two more times before August, we are set to revisit these same issues many times.

In fact, until about 06 August, Venus will be in the grip of the Pluto opposition for much of that period, so we can expect more drama in the Middle East and disasters, like the Korean train wreck.

It is also difficult to ignore all the action in Taurus, the sign of assets and money ... a connection to the Middle East here, as well ... particularly Iran.

As you can see there's a lot more aspects to analyse to get the full picture, but it seems NYC will be in the firing line again and very soon, too

Of course, we should look at some potential geographic locations, where we may see some news, to act as a trigger for anticipated market action:

With Saturn and Mars in close proximity, transiting Cancer, we might expect news out of Pittsburgh or from the Far East, around longitudes taking in Burma, Thailand, West Malaysia, Singapore, Sumatra or Jakarta.

Mars trine to Uranus suggests a hi-tech market may be influenced, but it is Saturn's trine and sextile across the Moon's Nodes that has built up recent pressure. Most likely places being Israel, Syria, Turkey and Saudi, though this longitude also runs down through previous trouble spots in East Africa, like Somalia and Kenya.

Saturn is also making a biquintile, 144 degrees to Neptune, which is also reinforces the hi-tech theme, as Neptune is in mutual reception with Uranus and making Brazil a point of interest, too.

Venus is also involved in negative aspects across the nodes, which would have us looking at Bangladesh, Nepal or eastern India and expecting an air or gas-related event, like an aircraft going down?

Trigger for any major event may well be the Moon's transit across, the North Node, while the Moon's trine to Jupiter, earlier in the day. may be a link to the Pacific Islands.

And there's more

25 May, 2004:

A lunar link with Hiroshima and 11 Cancer is not that strong, but 11 Cancer IS opposite Washington geodetically speaking, making the Mars/Saturn conjunction on that degree, an interesting point to monitor.

Some other key astrodates ahead:

Next month, Venus makes its second pass over US natal Mars on 02 June 04, whilst directly opposite Pluto, as well.

You may also remember a previous post mentioning, the Moon's nodal return for Israel, last month and such events trigger major changes in the affairs of both individuals and countries, alike.

At these times individuals may be influenced greatly, by new people coming into their lives.

Looking at Sharon's position right now, it may well be a defining time for both him and Israel.

..... using a loose orb of 6 degrees, we have a
Bethlehem Star formed in the zodiac, on June 5th, 2004
..... a sign of the times perhaps, as we end the last day of our third business cycle.

As we move into June 2004, we look to Venus yet again for guidance

In fact, none of us alive today have seen the next astroevent associated with the money planet Venus.

On June 8th 2004, a Venus Transit takes place, where Venus can be seen transiting across the face of the Sun - last Venus transit was 122 years ago in 1882.

More about that, next time
