Life Lessons Thru Nature

Fog helps you focus on what's in front on you

Hey, my feet glow underneath water!

If you have it, flaunt it!

I'm more noticeable in basic black

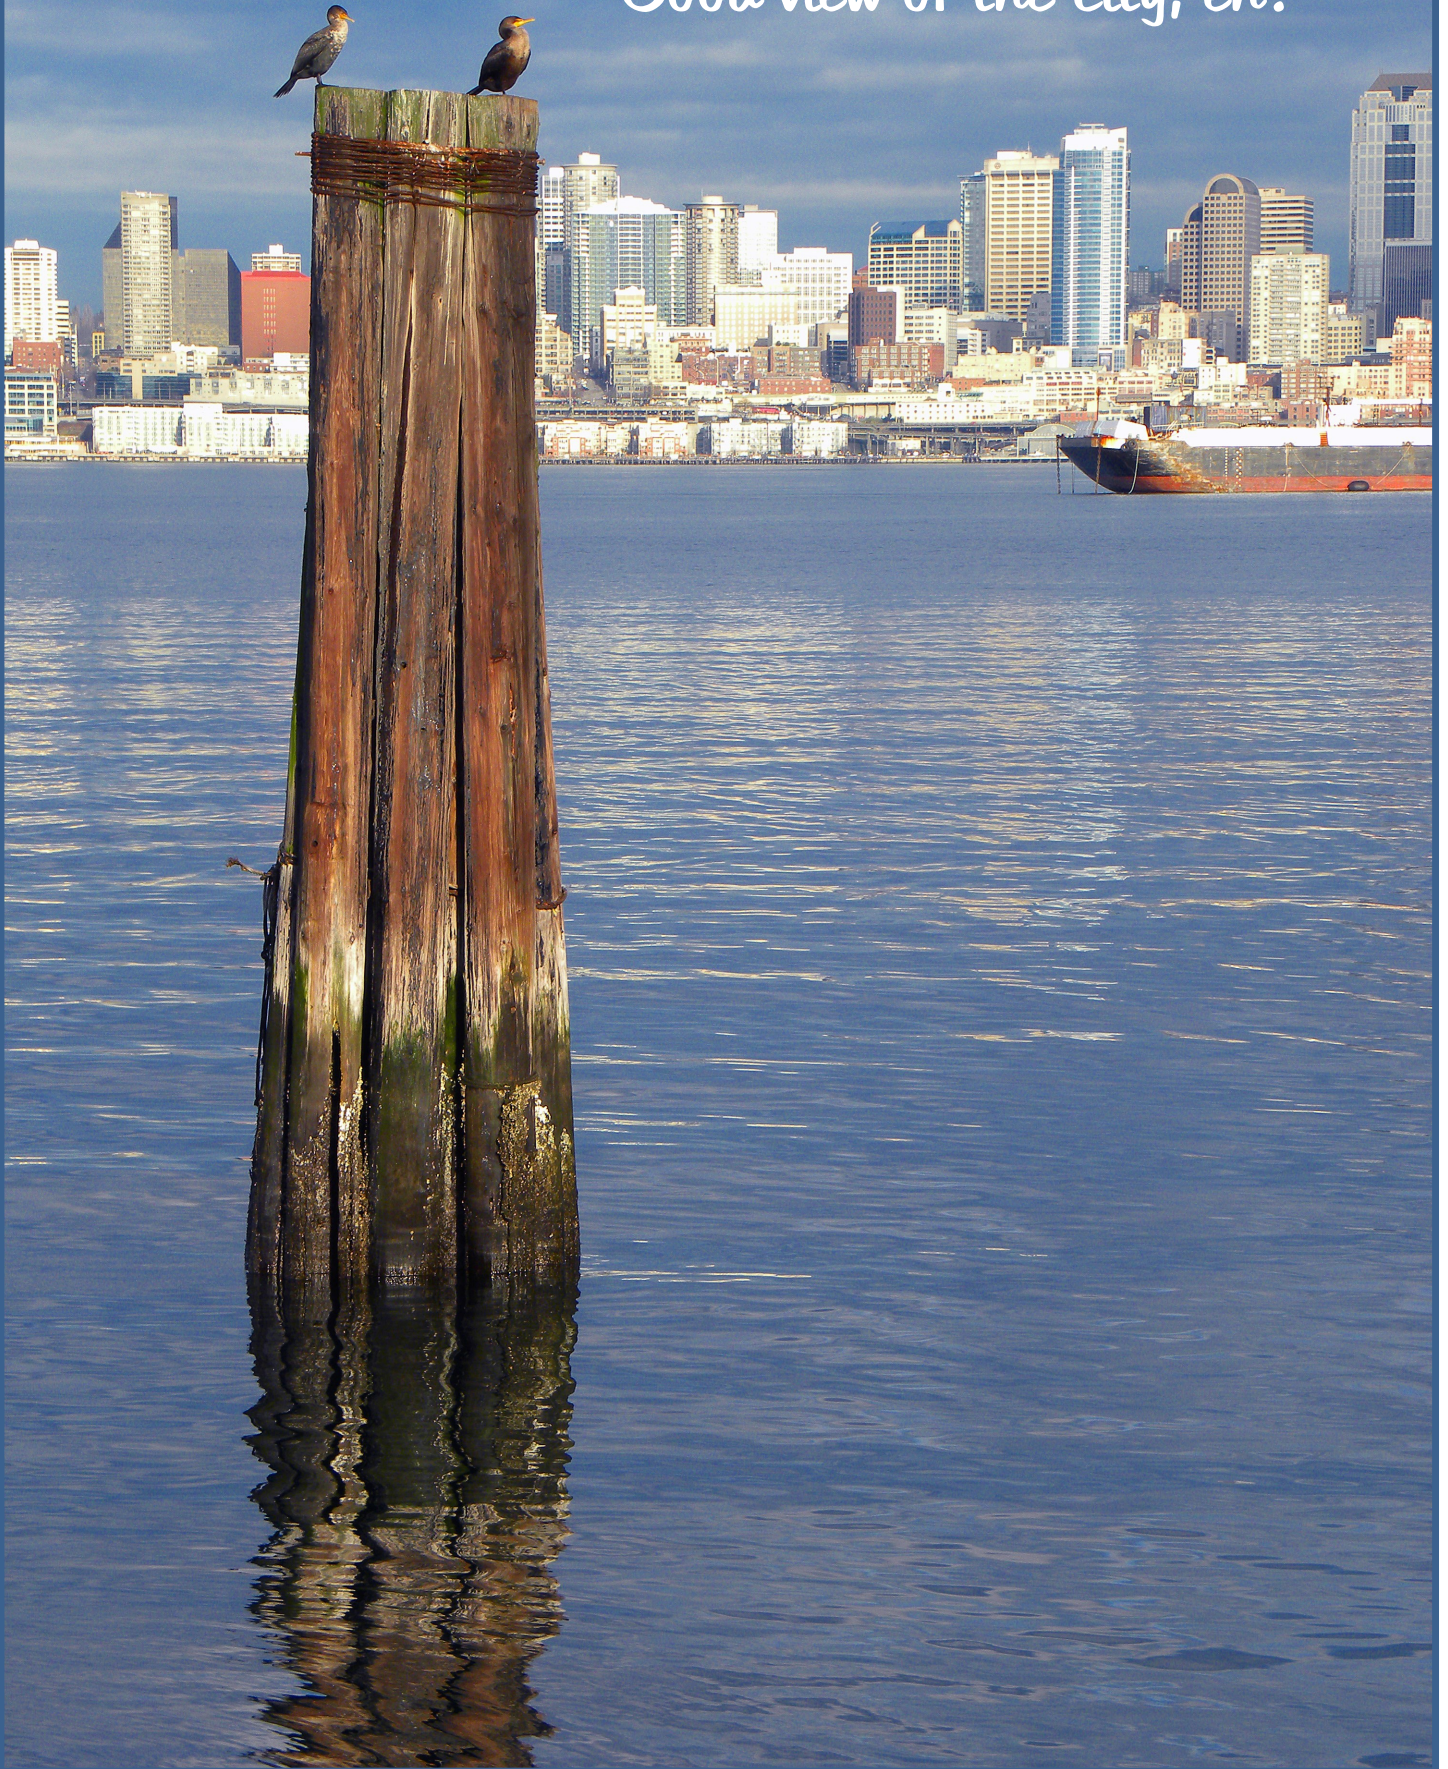

But the view is great & the price cheap!

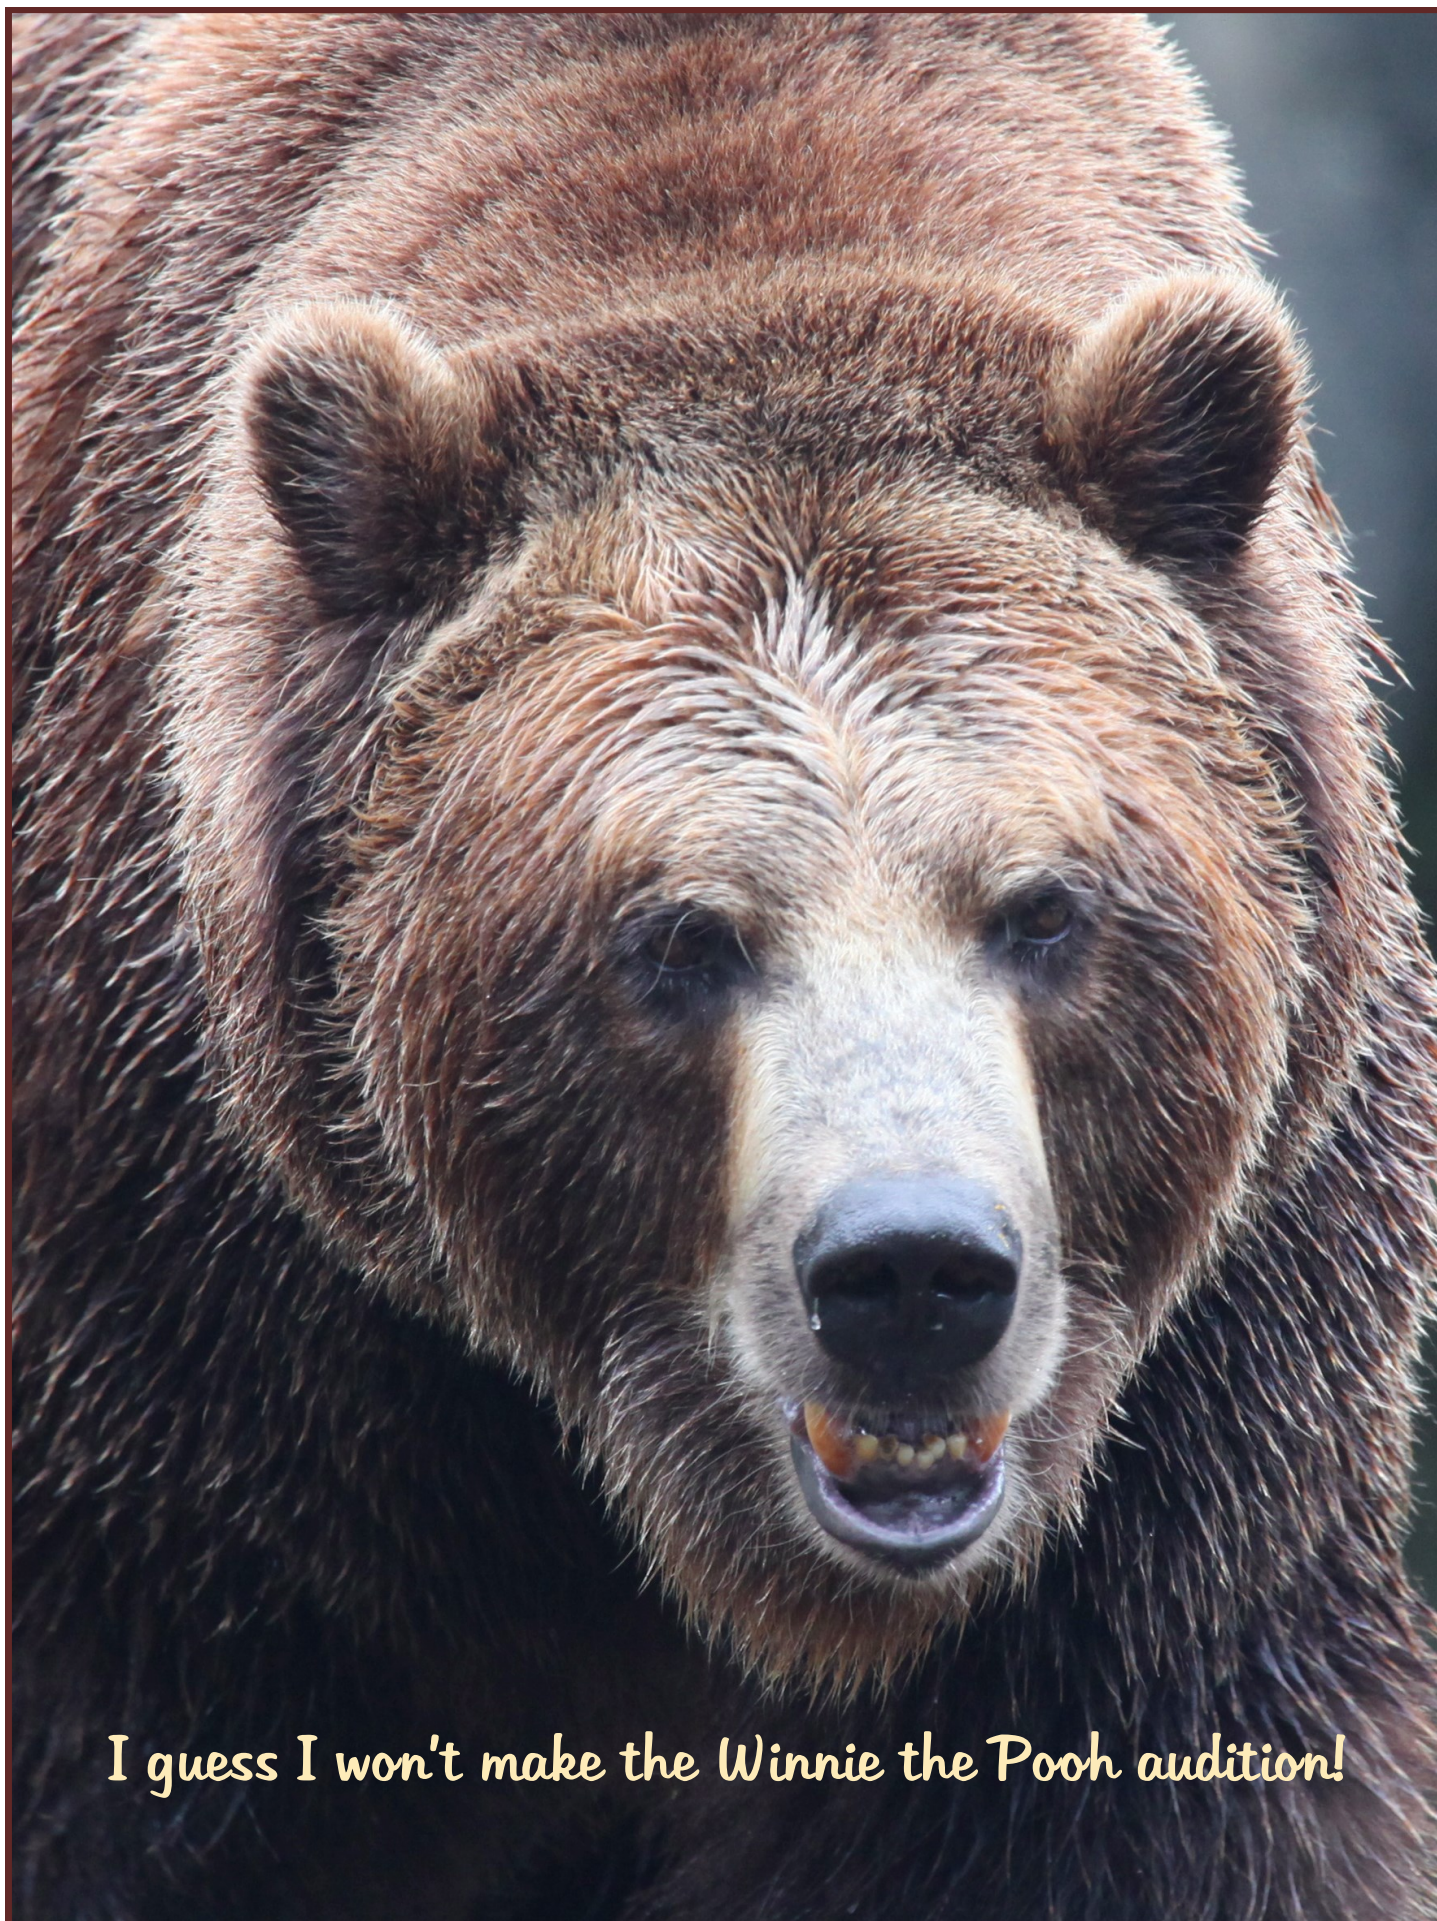

Hey, get me down!

Good view of the city, eh?

Hey dog food ain't cheap these days!

I guess I won't make the Winnie the Pooh audition!

My real preference was a National Forest!

We got our Plan A!

And you think you are cold just watching?

Sure, the view is great at the top, but the climb up is the fun!

Everything has bad hair days!

Hey, how 'bout some privacy!

Now this is what I call real freedom!

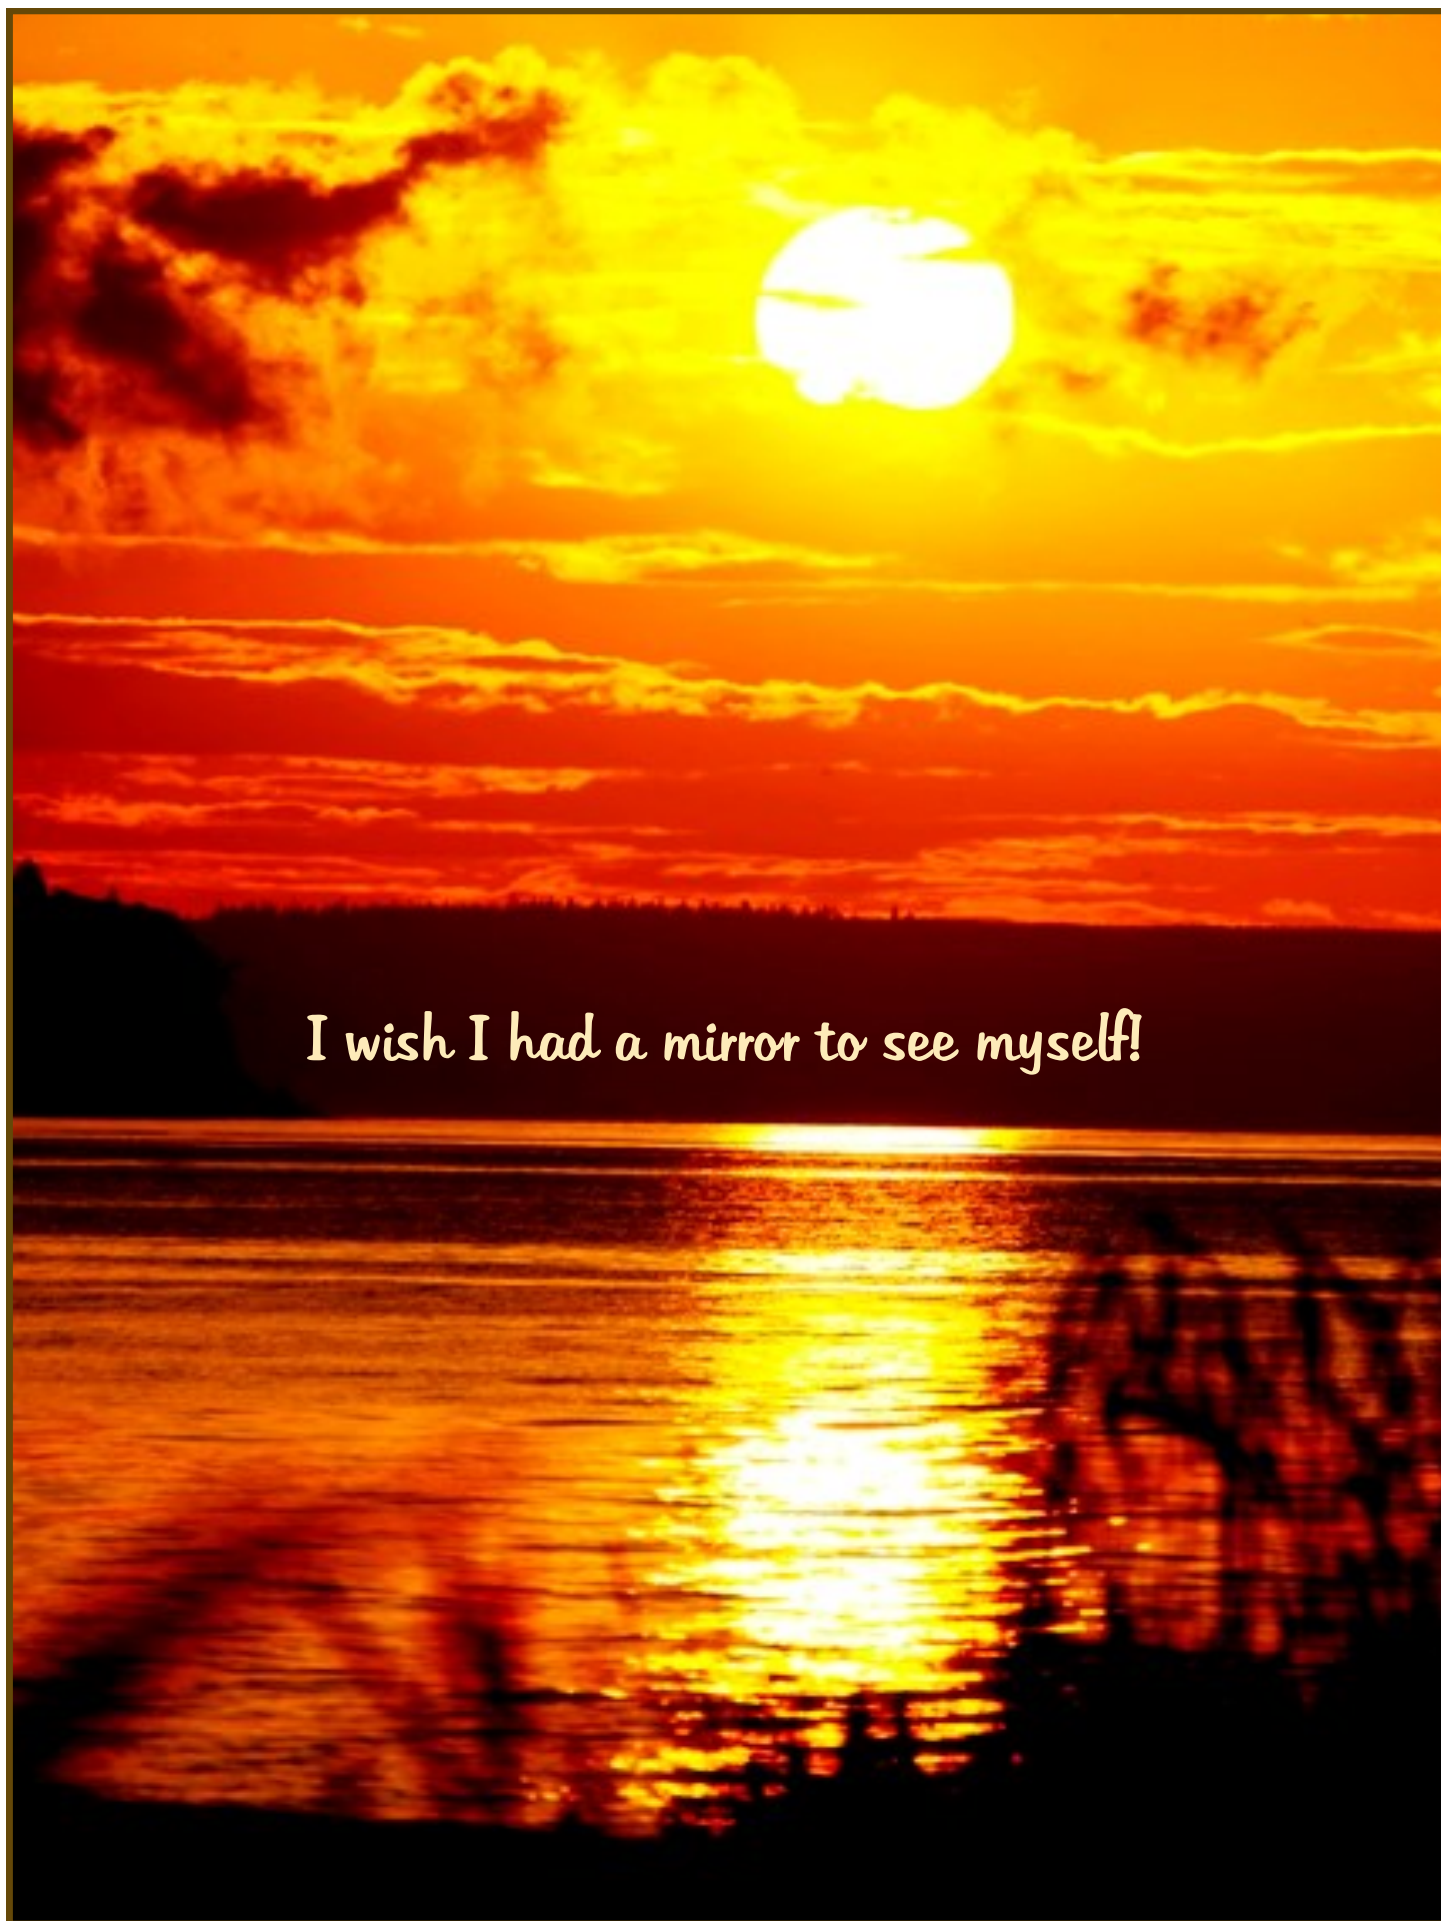

What are you looking at?

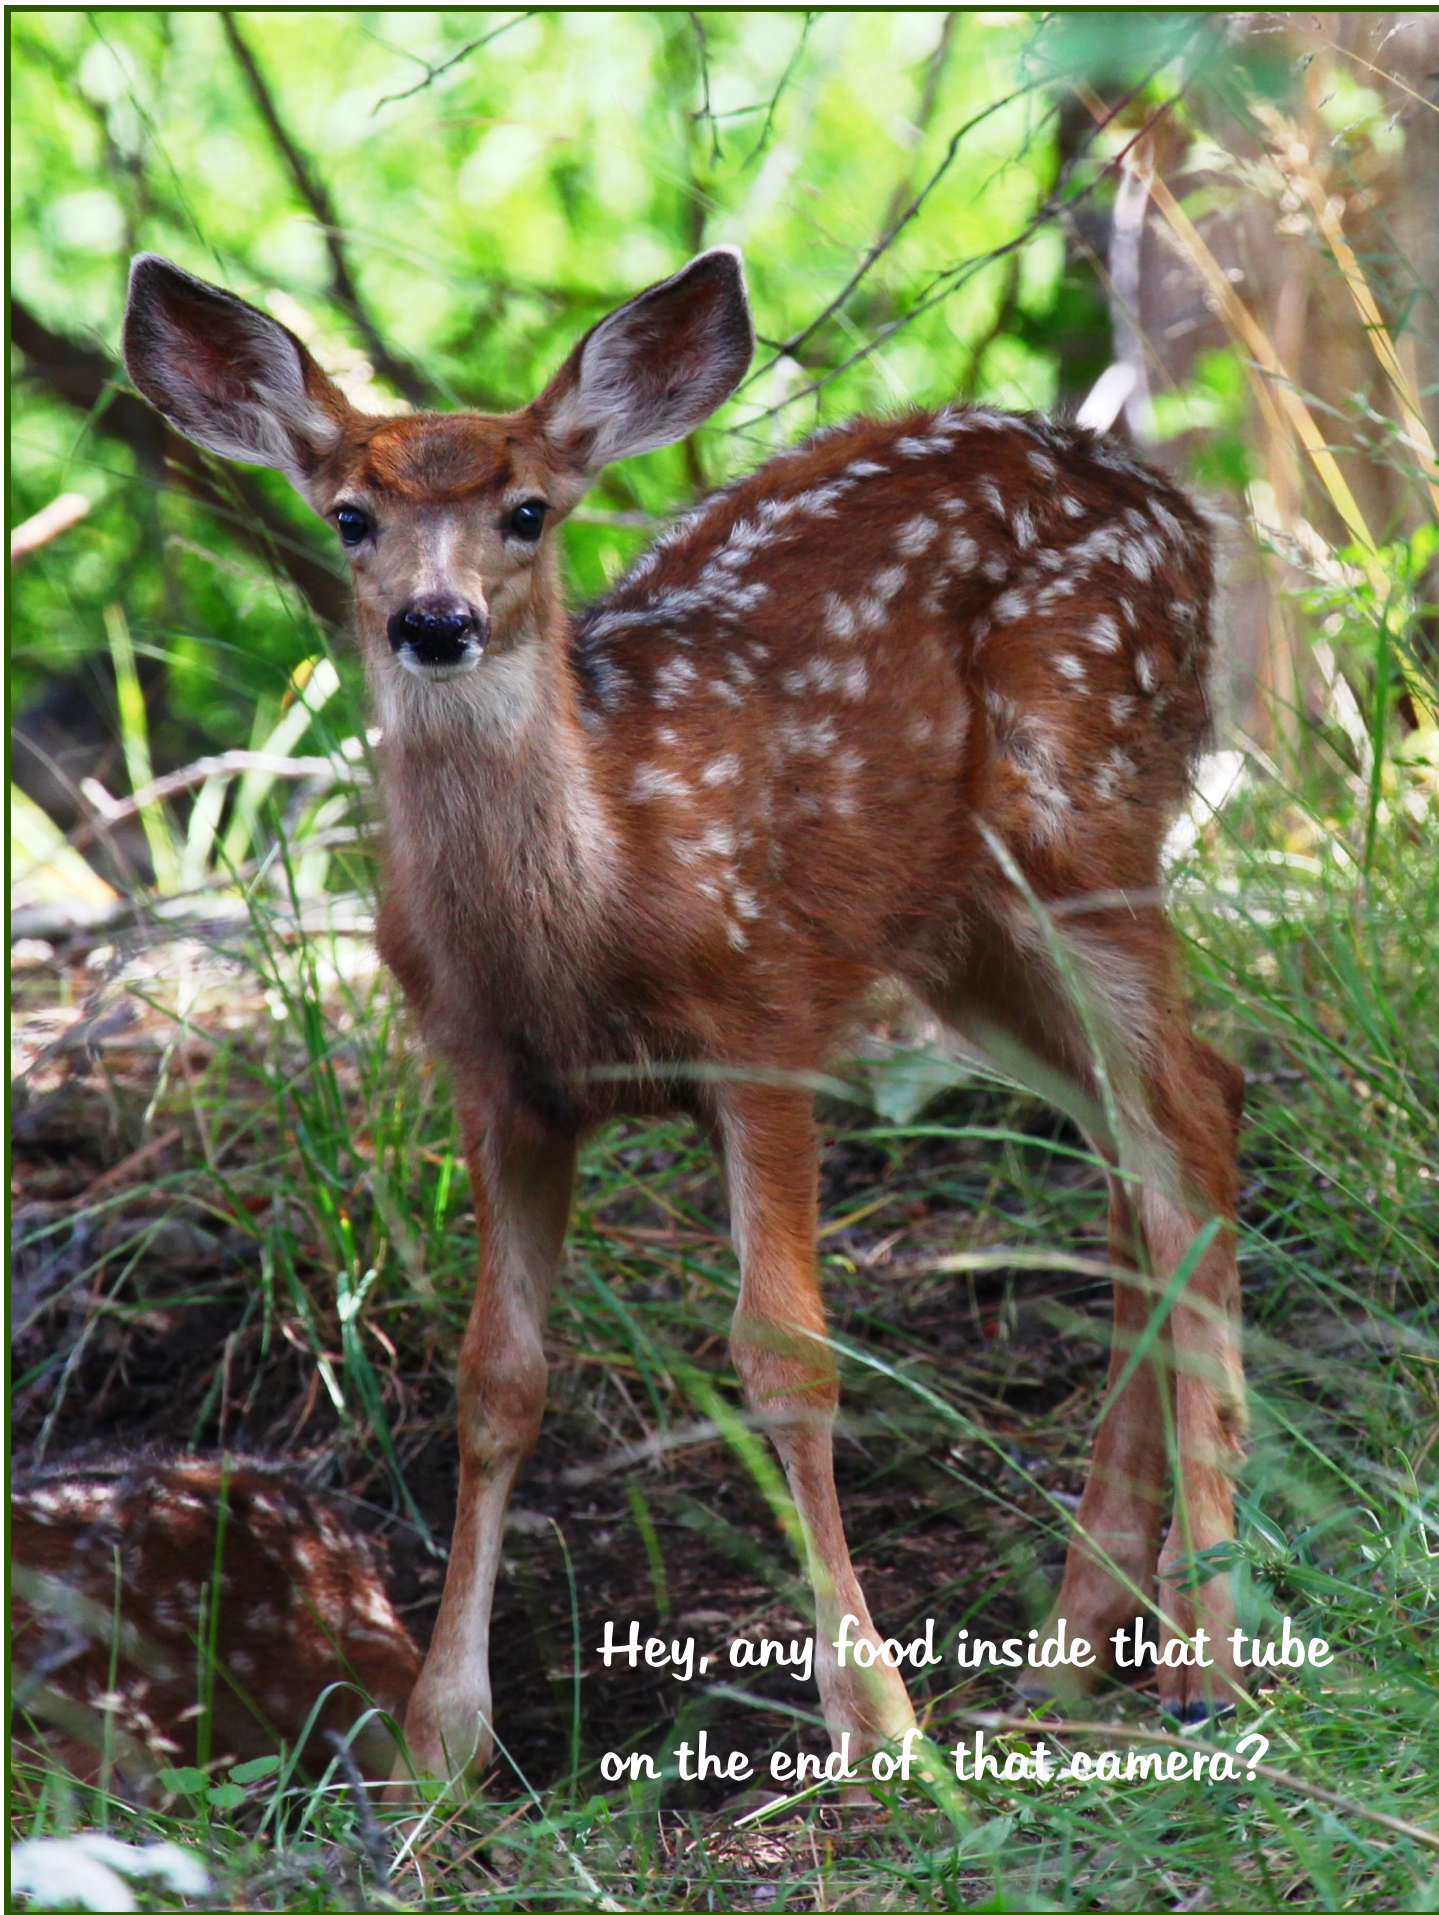

You know the saying, beauty is only skin deep?

I wish I had a mirror to see myself!

Home Depot out of lumber you say?

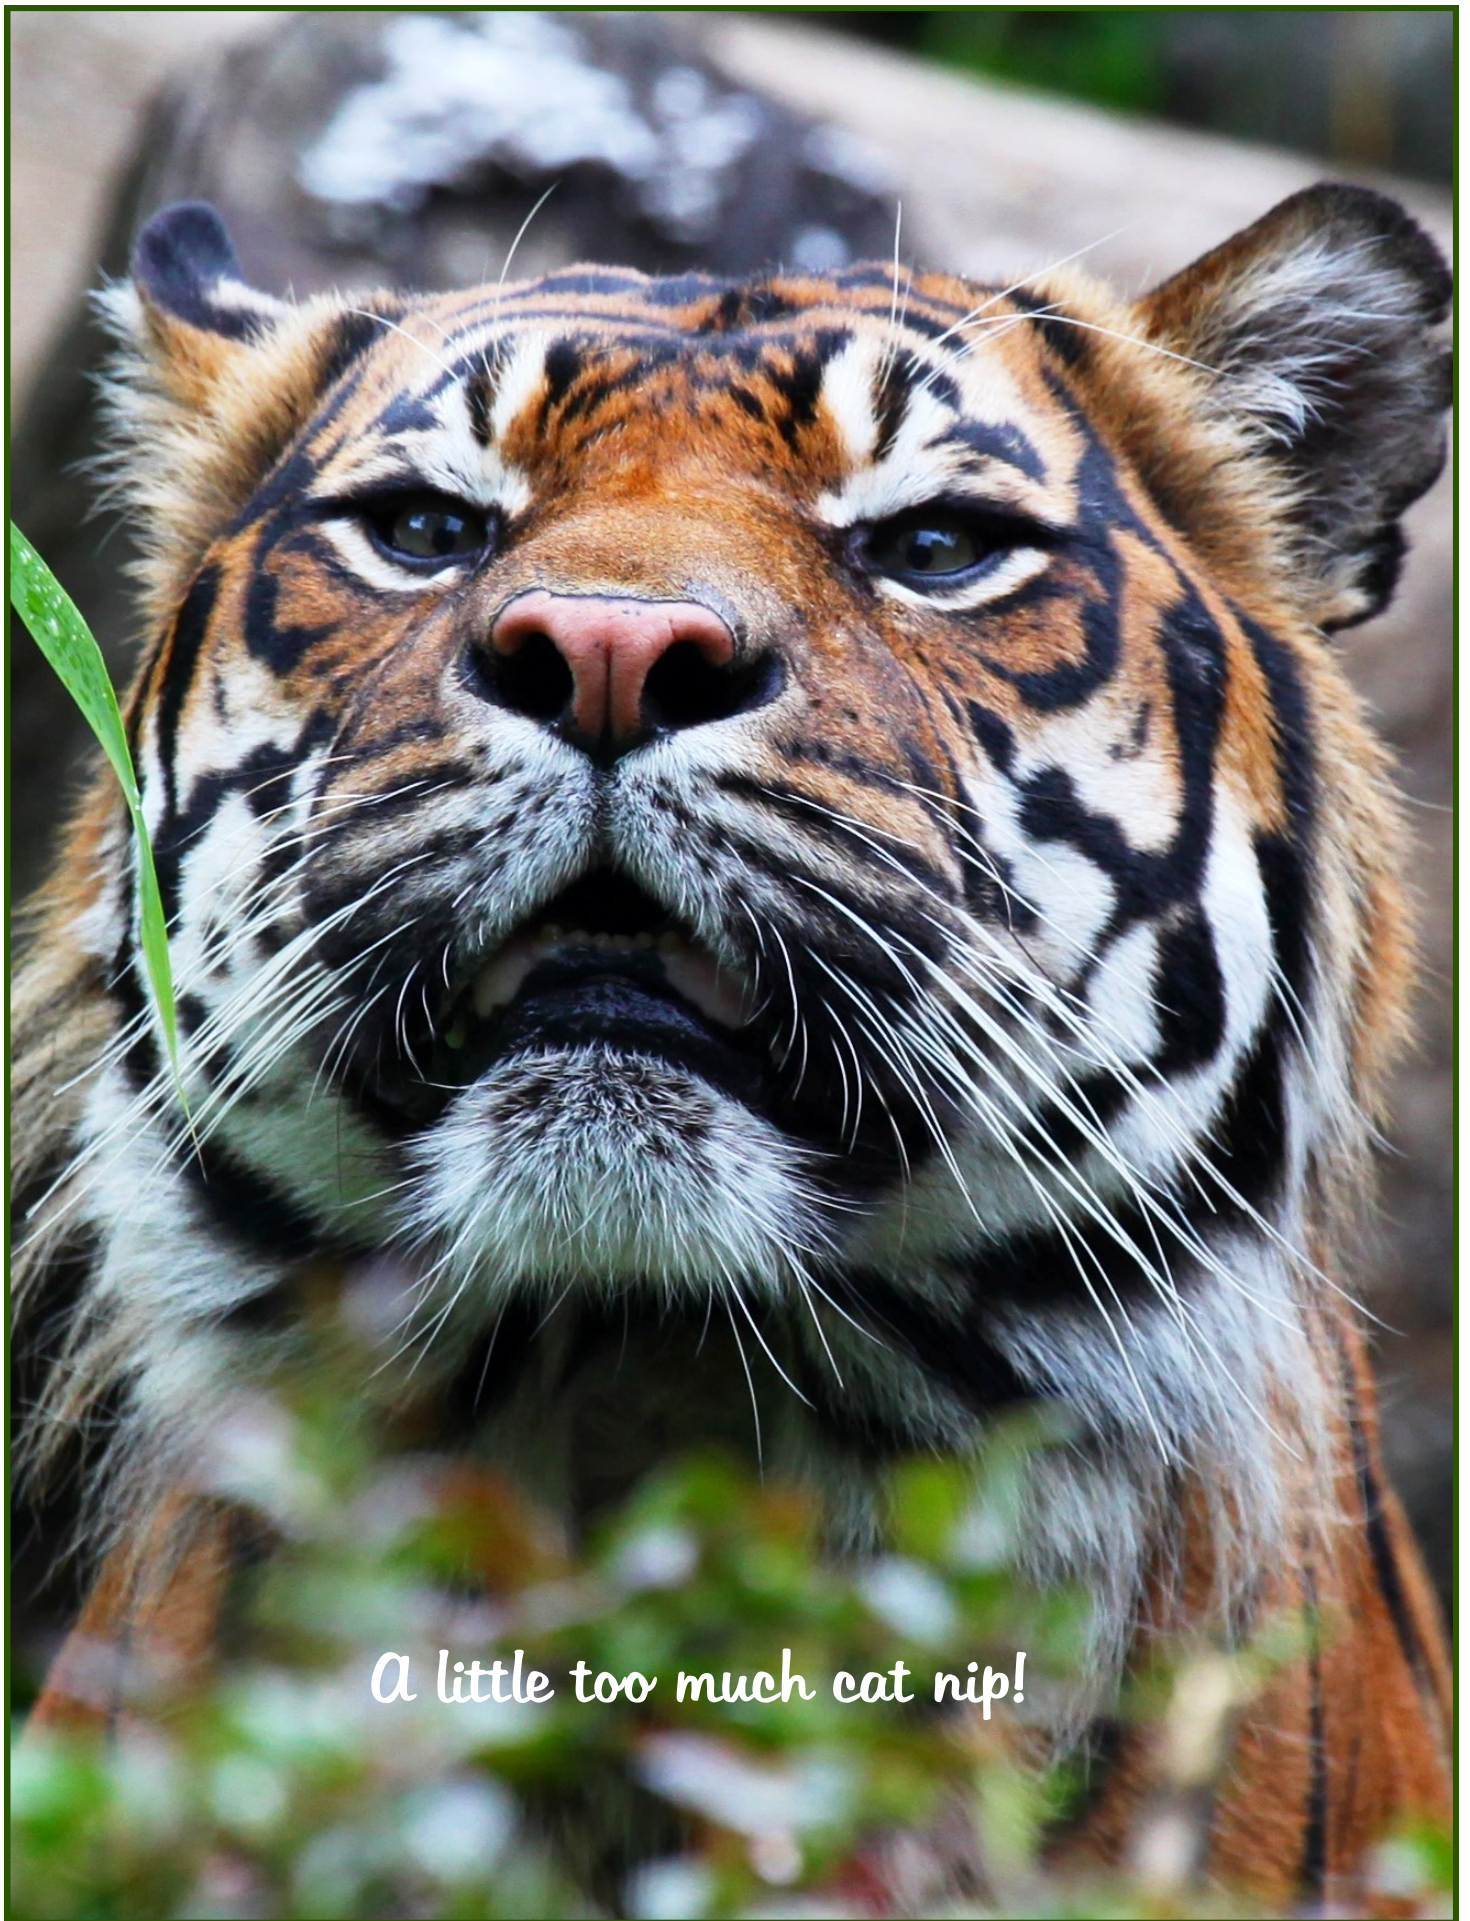

Hey, any food inside that tube
on the end of that camera?

Dream on!

A little too much cat nip!

Boy would an ear scratch feel good about now!

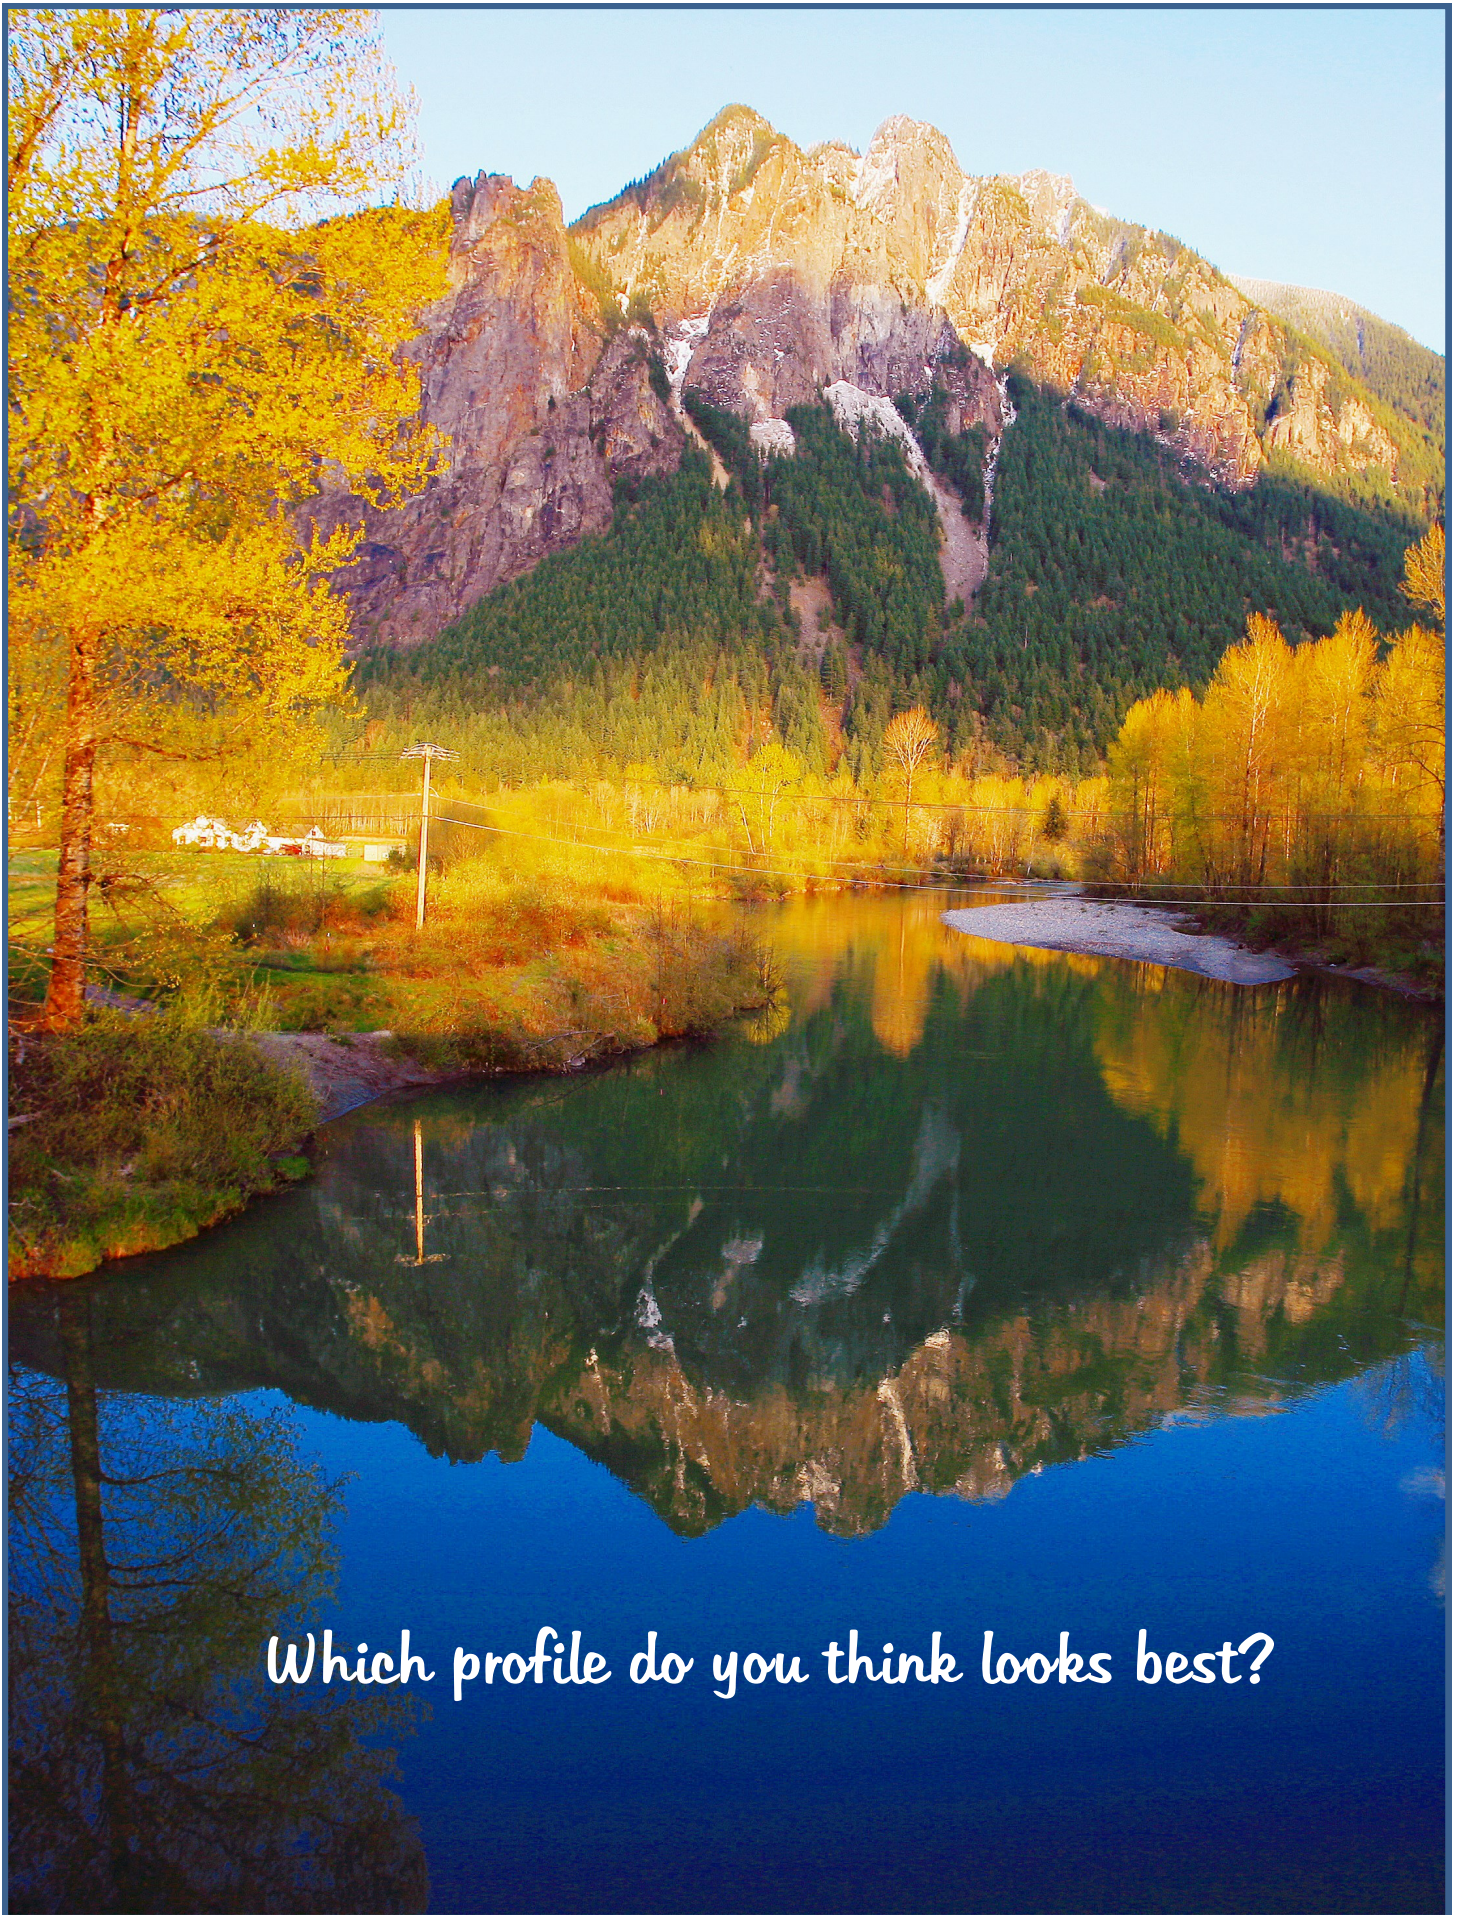

See all the birds flying on my feathers...cool no?

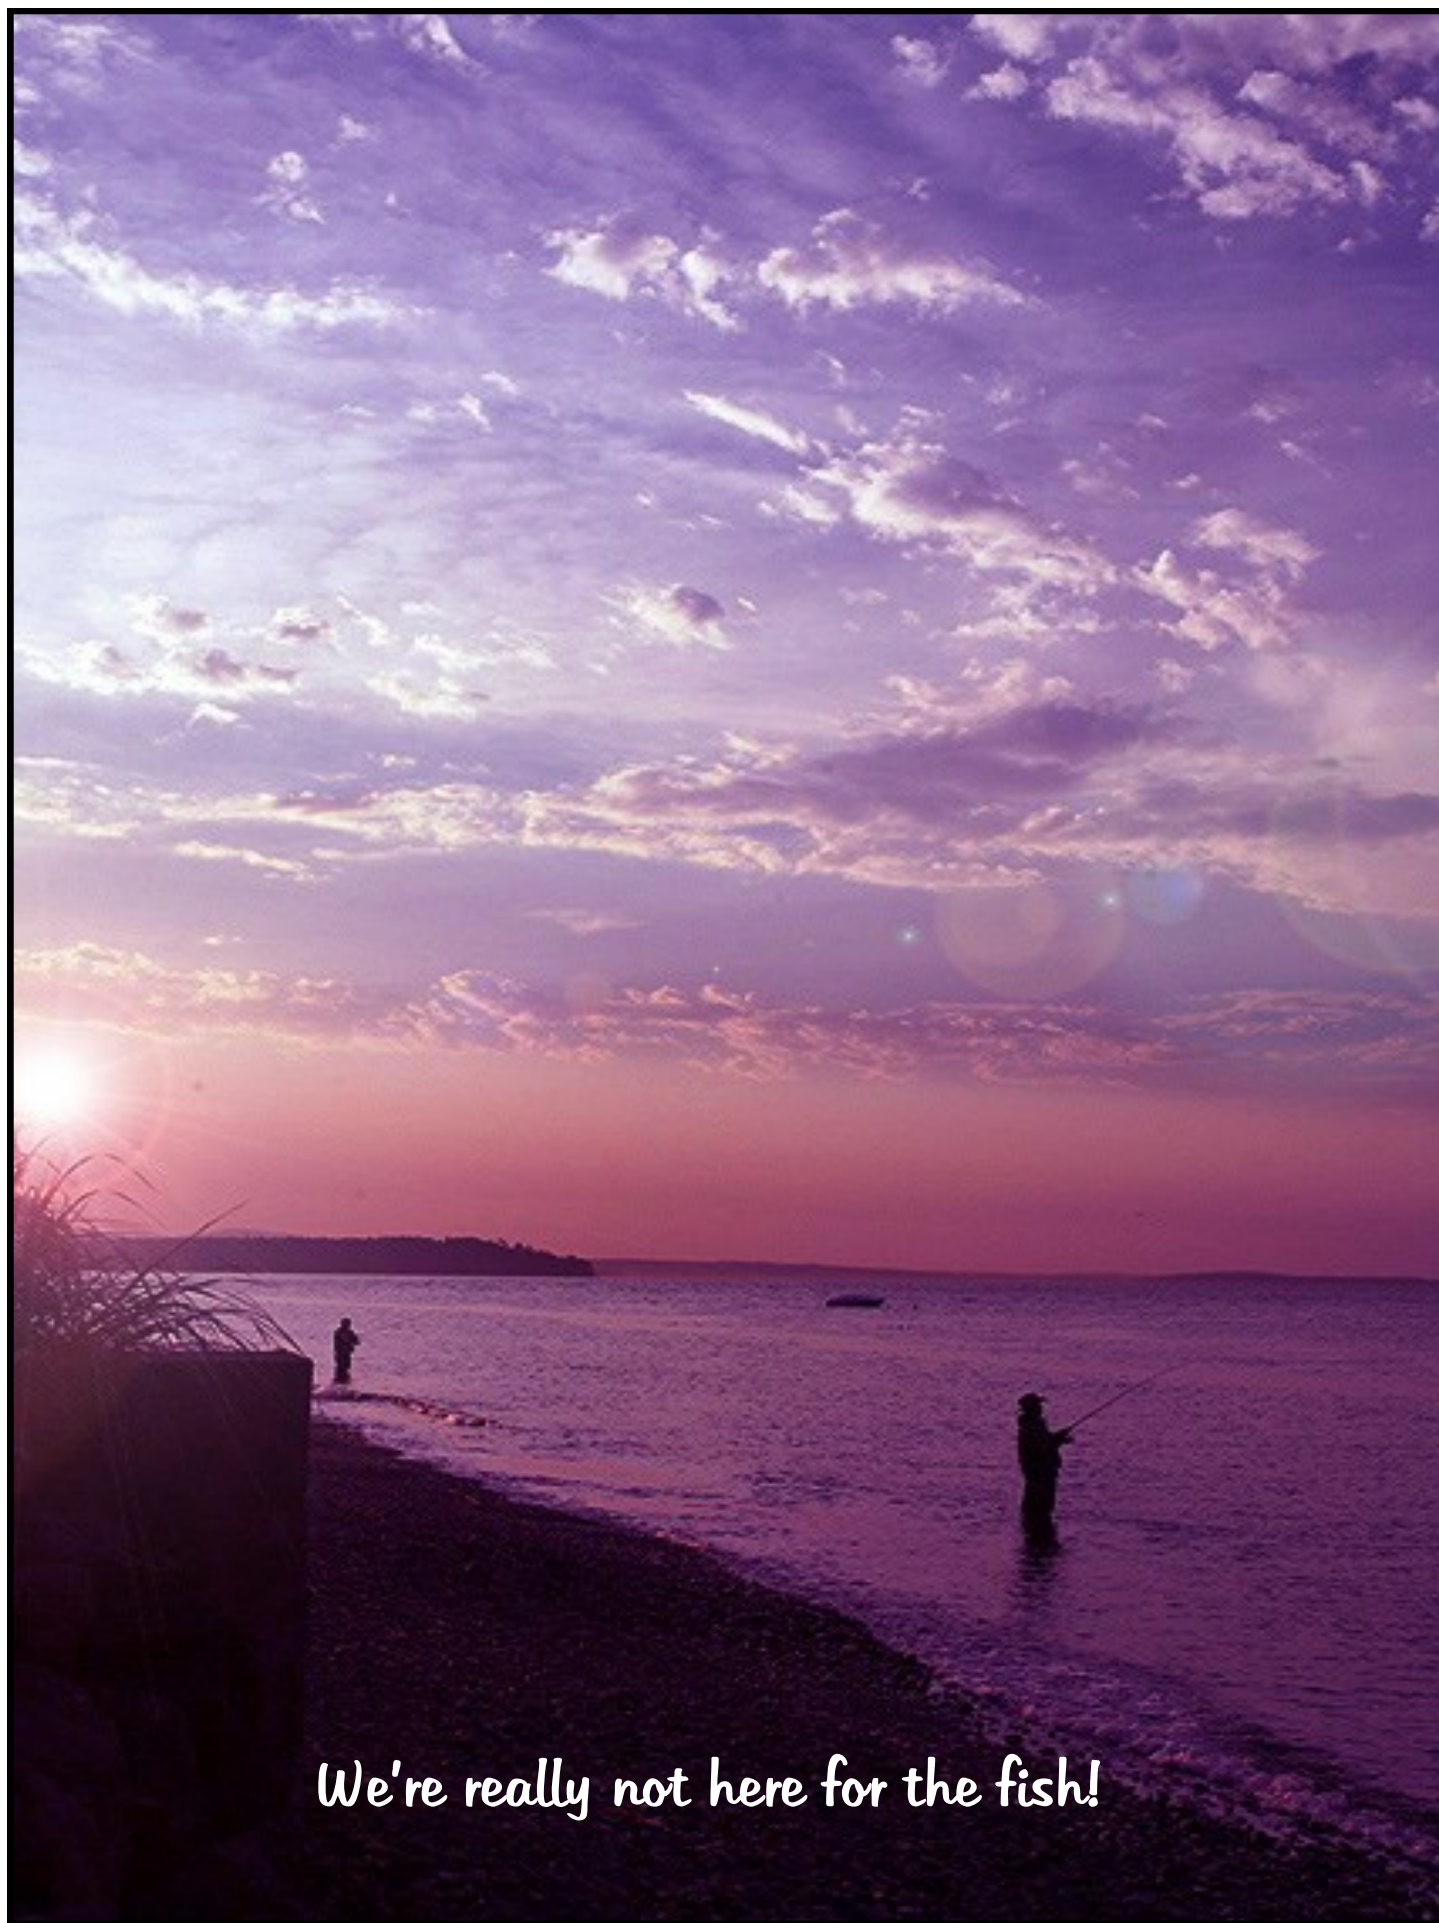

And why is it you suppose I am called a sun flower?

I'm feeling a little irritable right now!

Which profile do you think looks best?

We're really not here for the fish!

I'm not quite ready to give up yet!

It's amazing what a little snow will do for our looks!

Red is my favorite color, what's yours?

I prefer winter white myself!

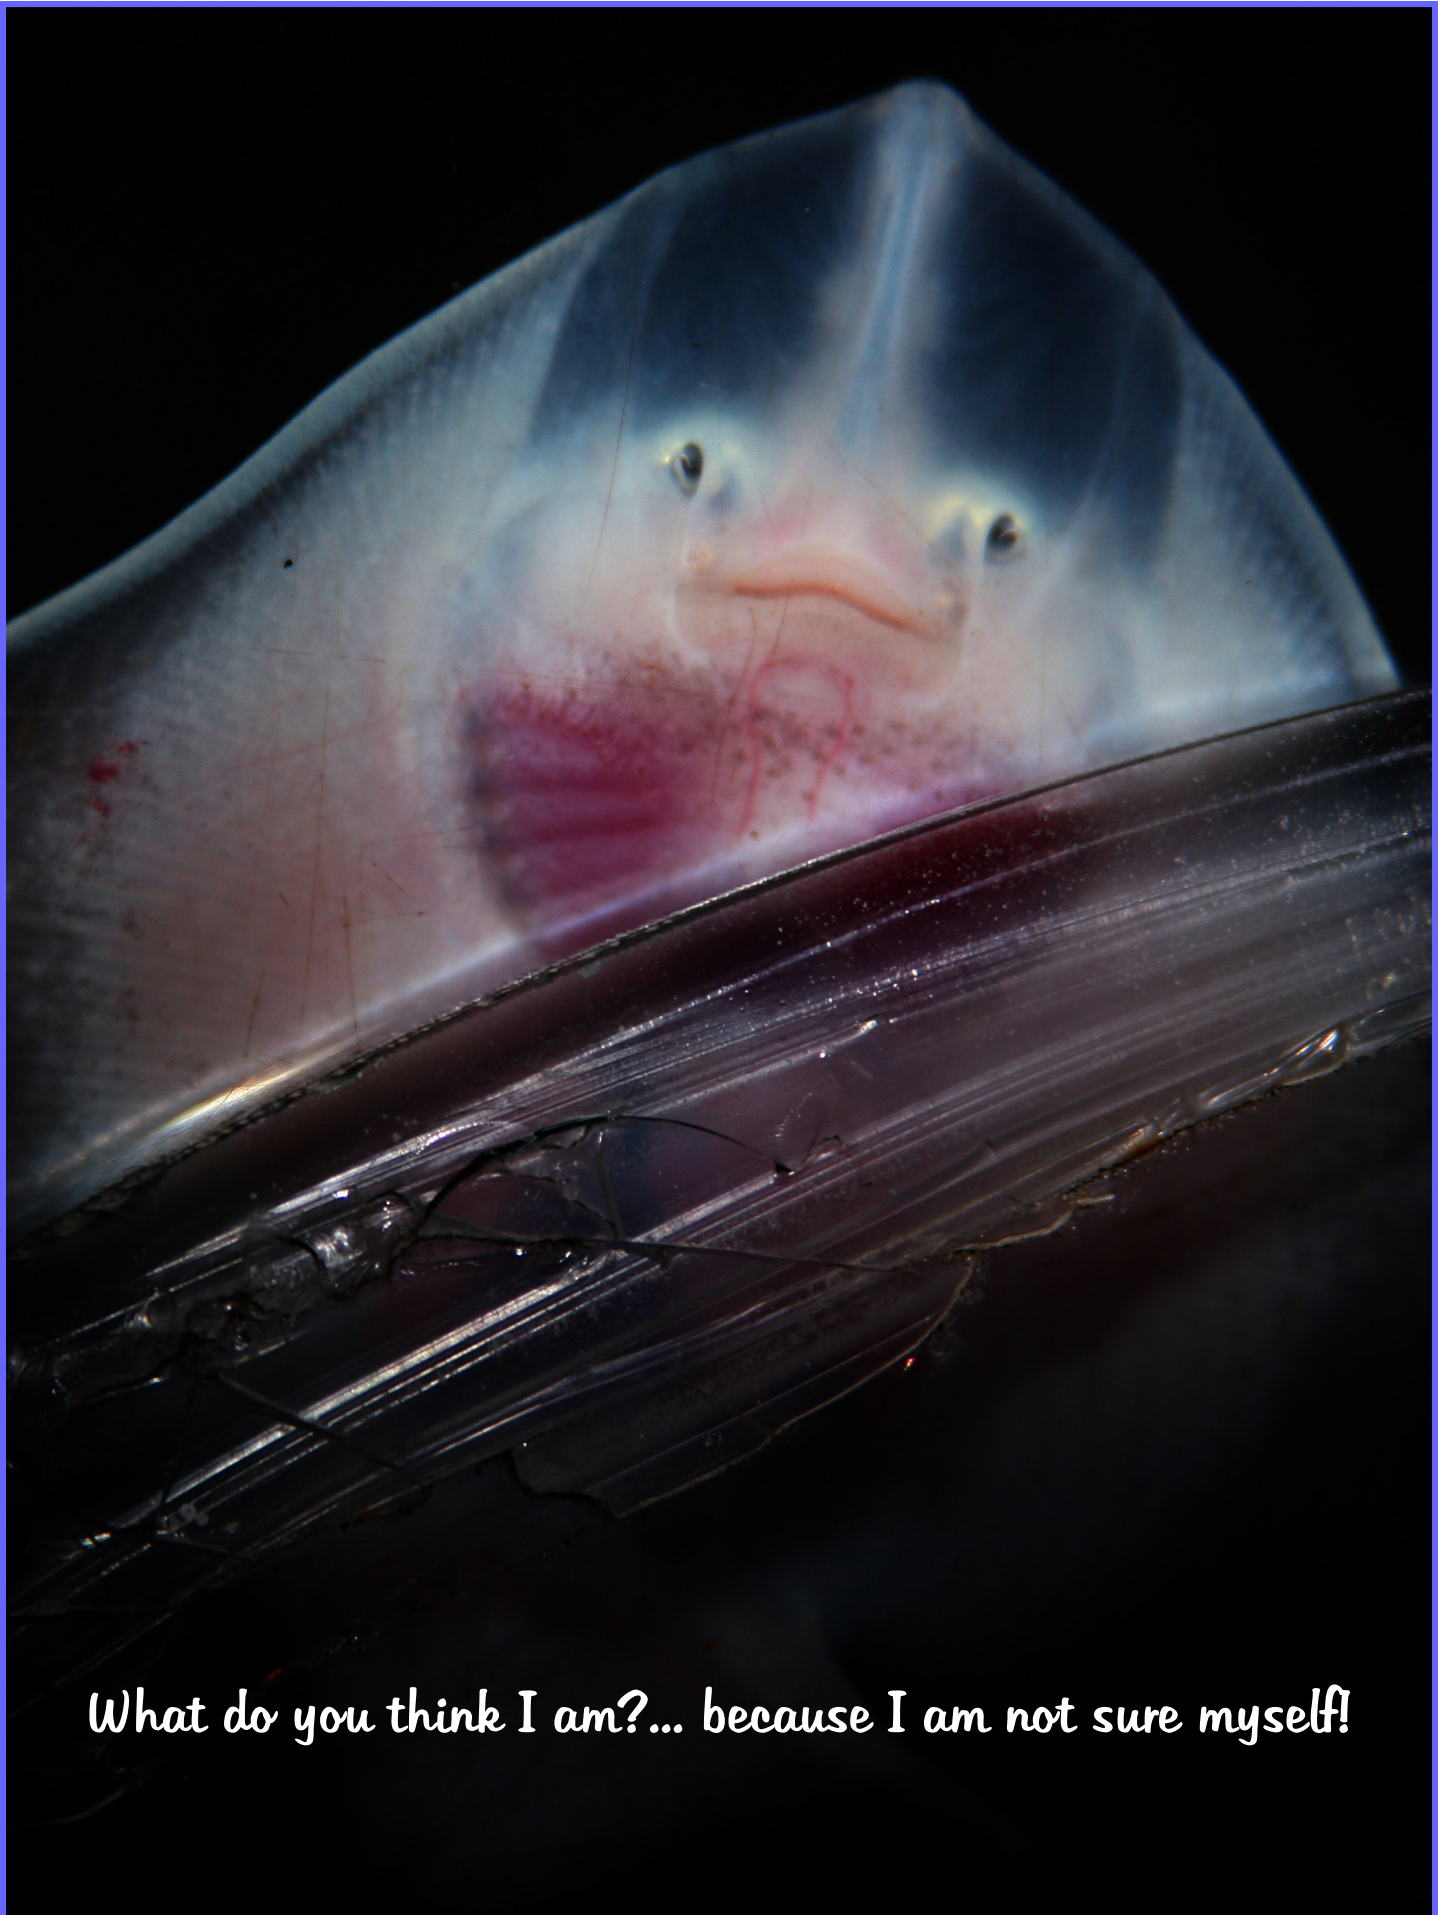

Live and let live isn't part of my philosophy!

Admire but don't pick us please!

So where is the bottle?

What do you think I am?... because I am not sure myself!

I know, I need a major beak-cleaning job!

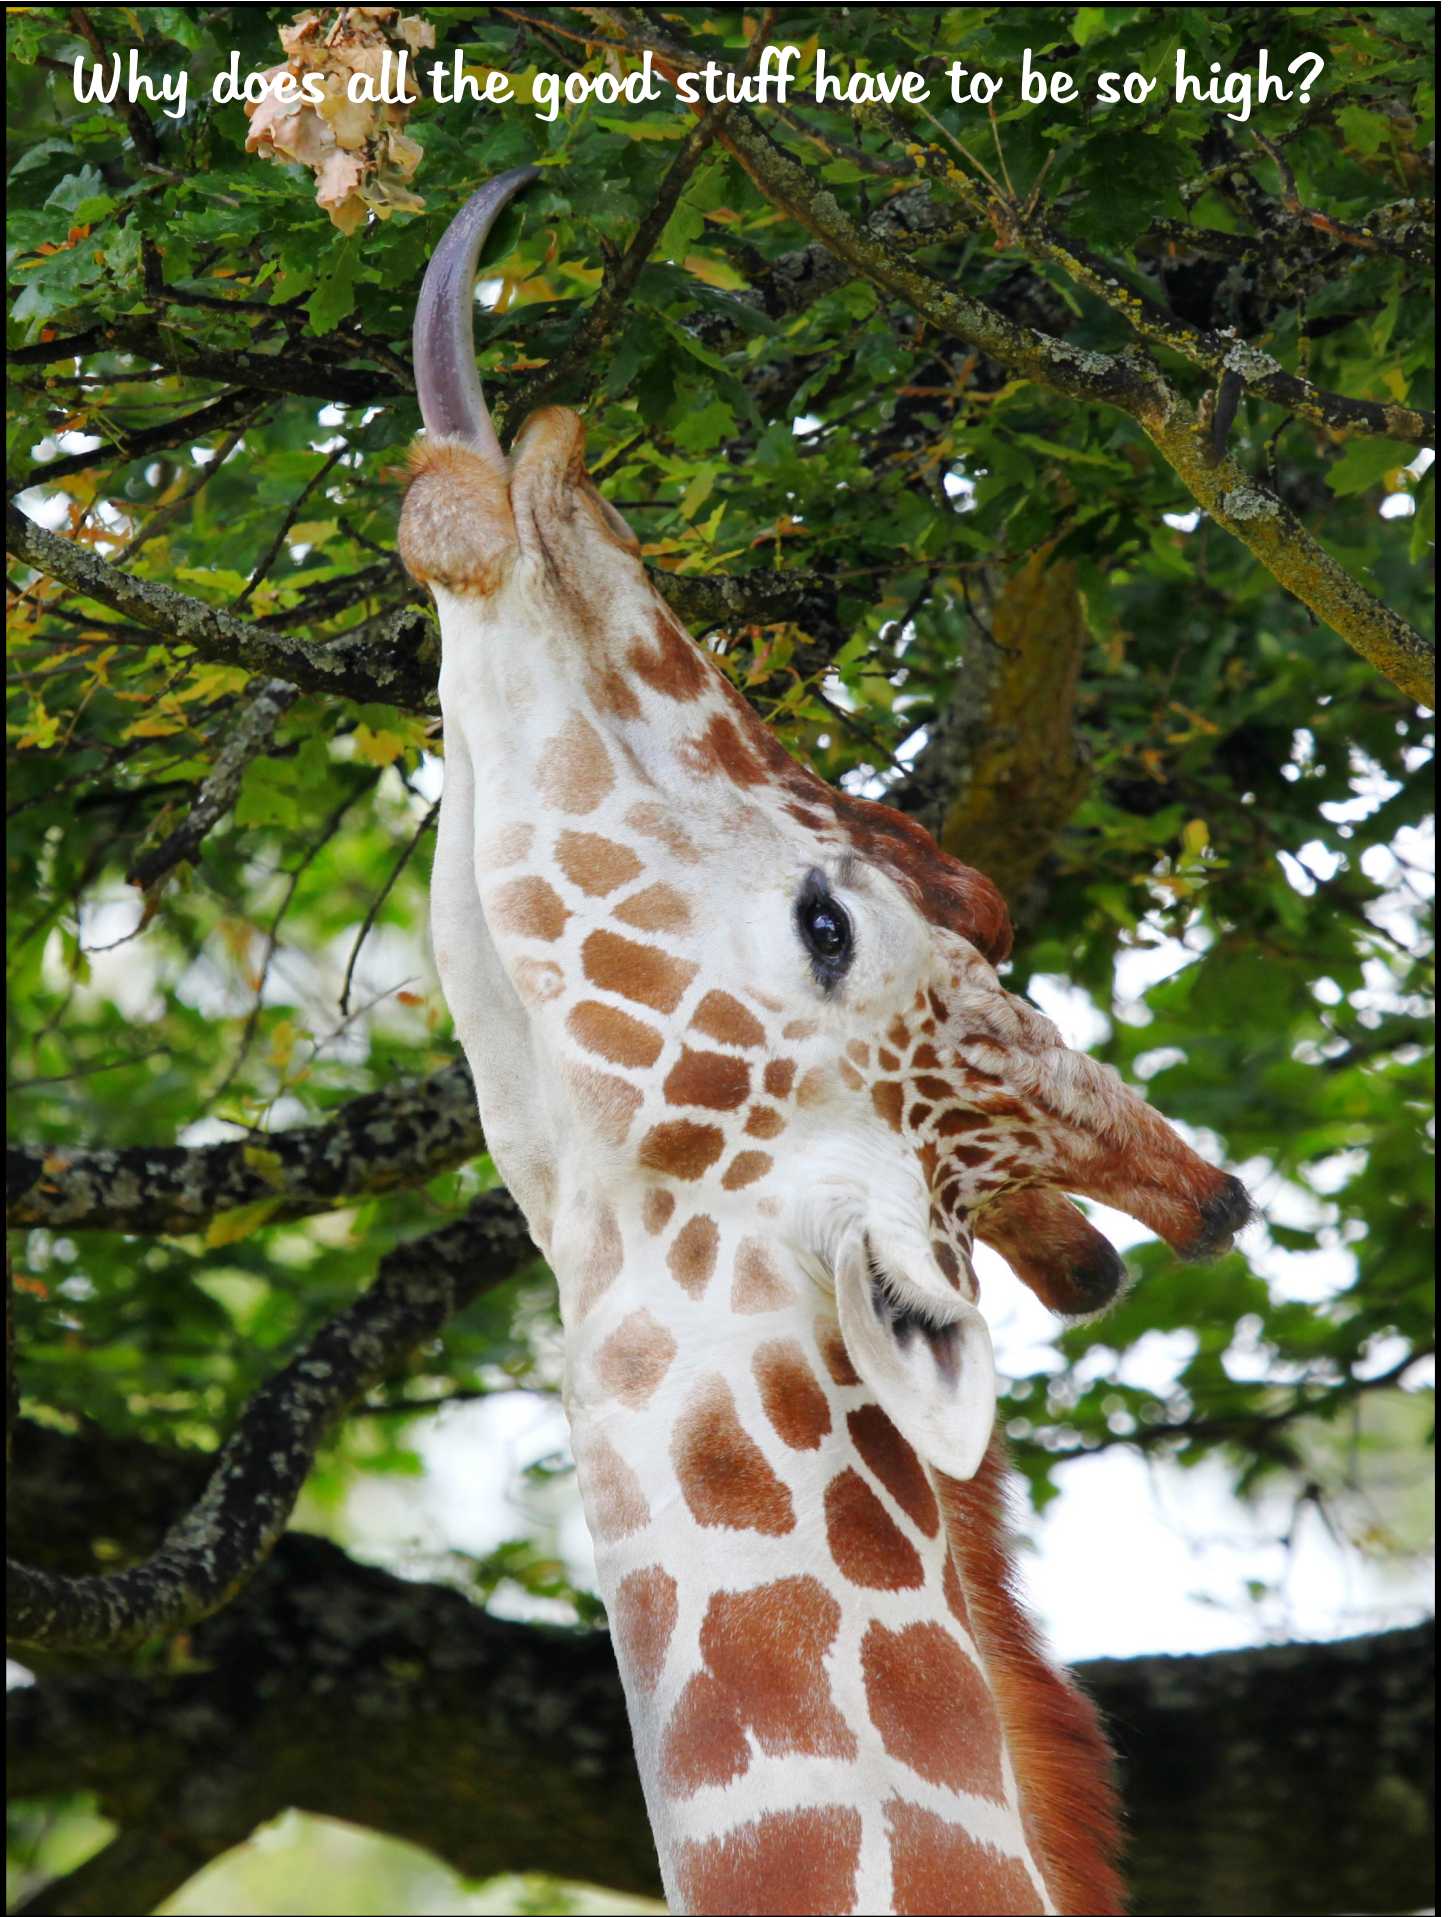

Can't you see, I am contemplating the meaning of life

I am really a flower-child in disguise!

Why does all the good stuff have to be so high?

You don't have to remind me!

Summer homes and some are not!

Thumper's father was right in Bambi, don't eat the pretty blossoms!

The Christmas wreath gives me a nice touch, yes?

I certainly hope Spring works its magic this year!

I've always felt a little different from the rest.

Okay, one pose, but no more!

I just know there's a four-leaf clover in here somewhere!

I'll be glad for the summer when this stuff quits itching!

A jumbo prawn would be nice!

What, no primroses yet??

I think I like my reflection better in this light!

I think I need some skin cream!

Too much wine last night!

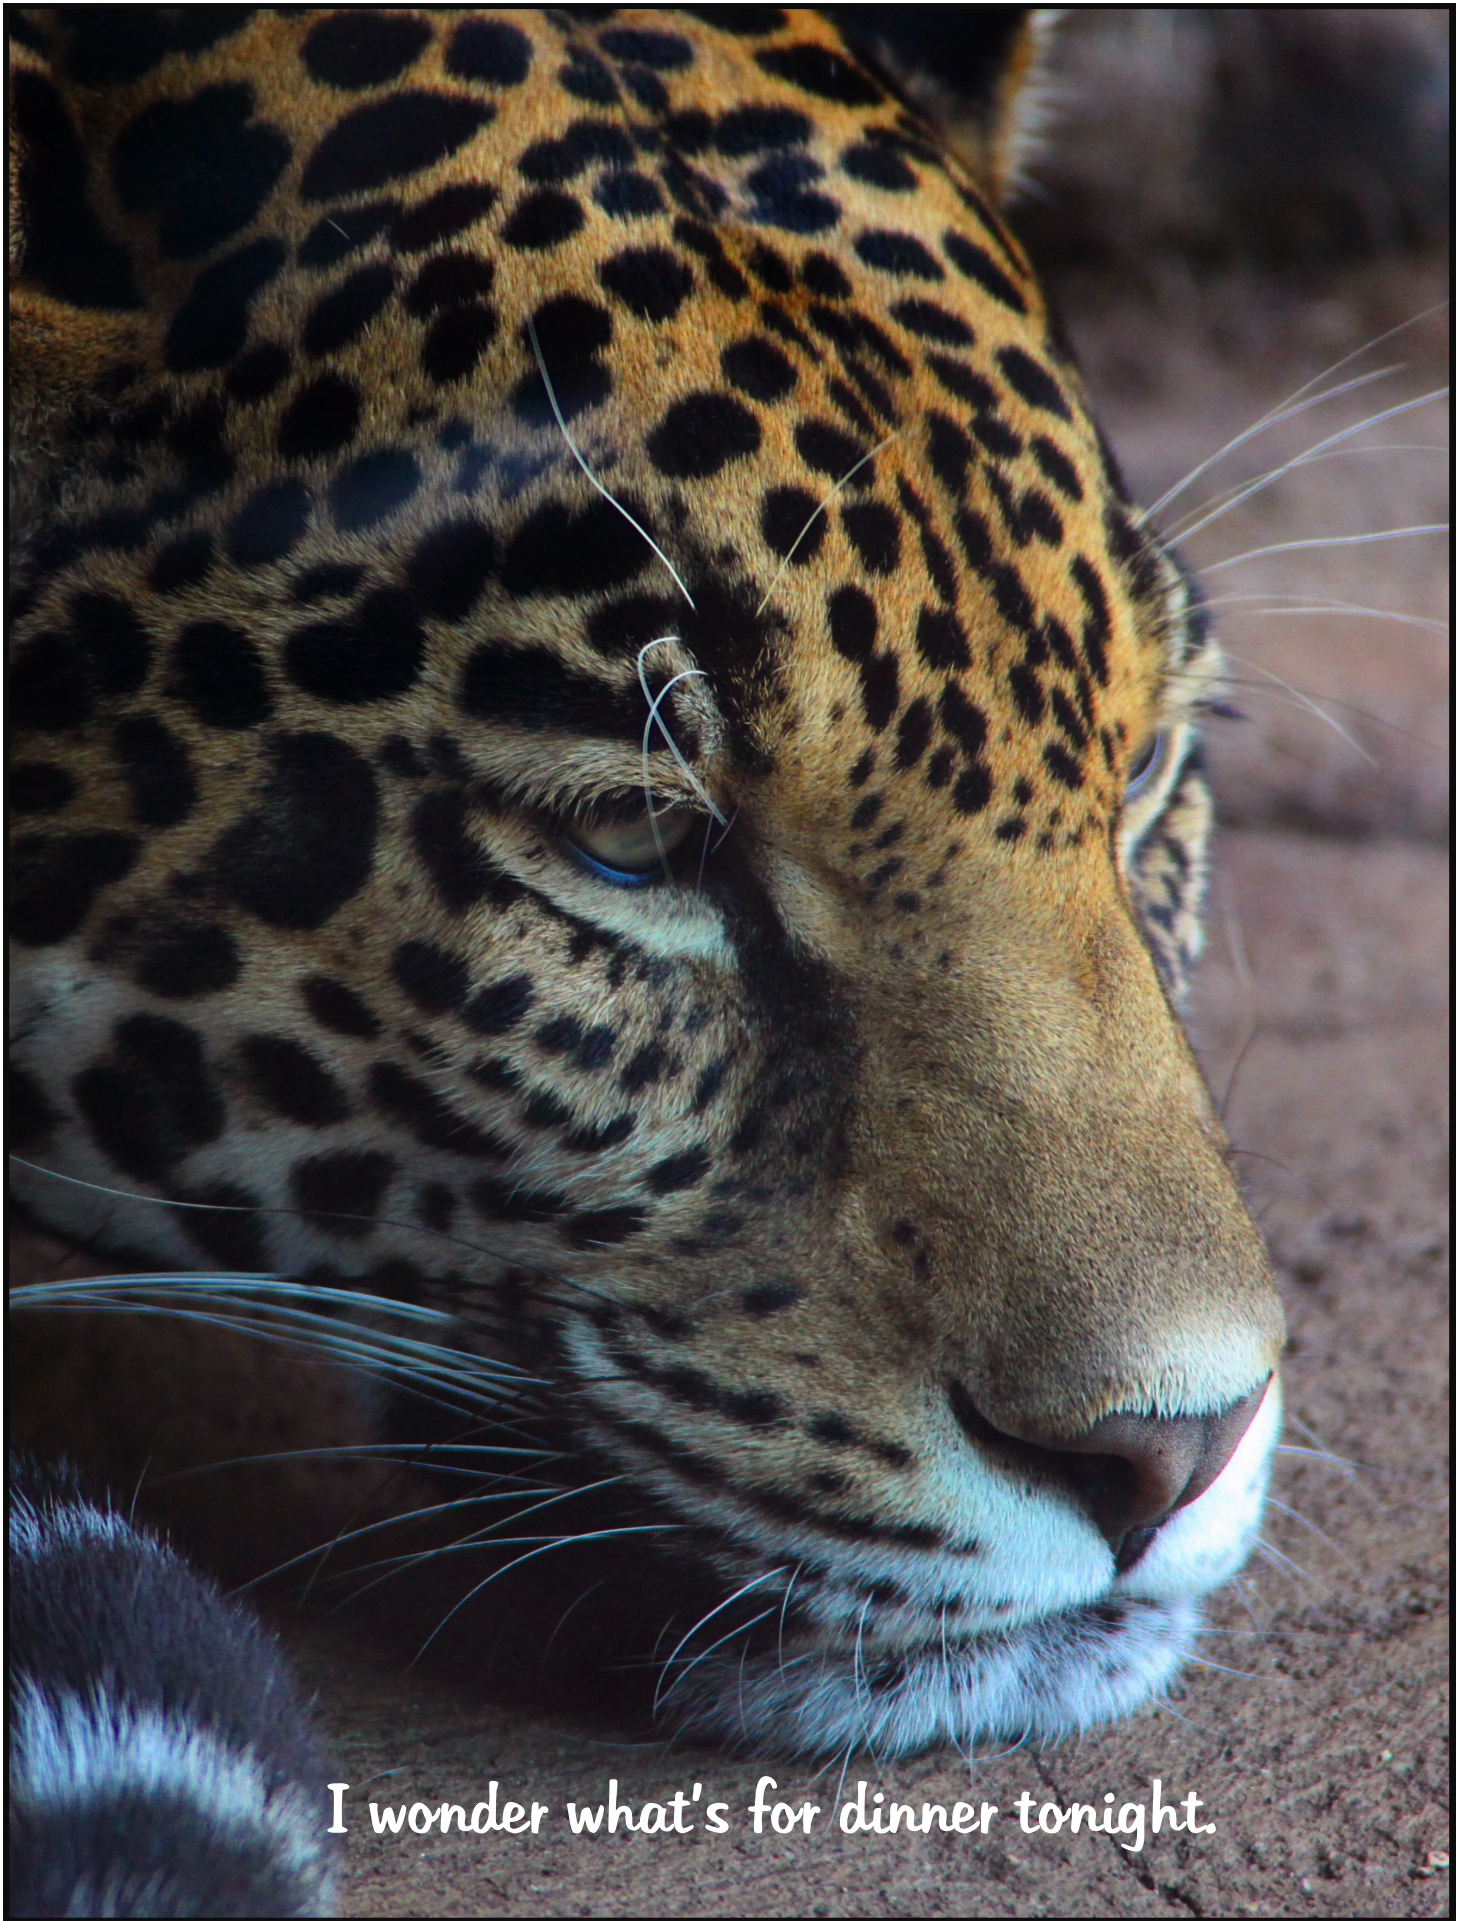

Not your ordinary sunflower

A tiny breadcrumb will do, thanks.

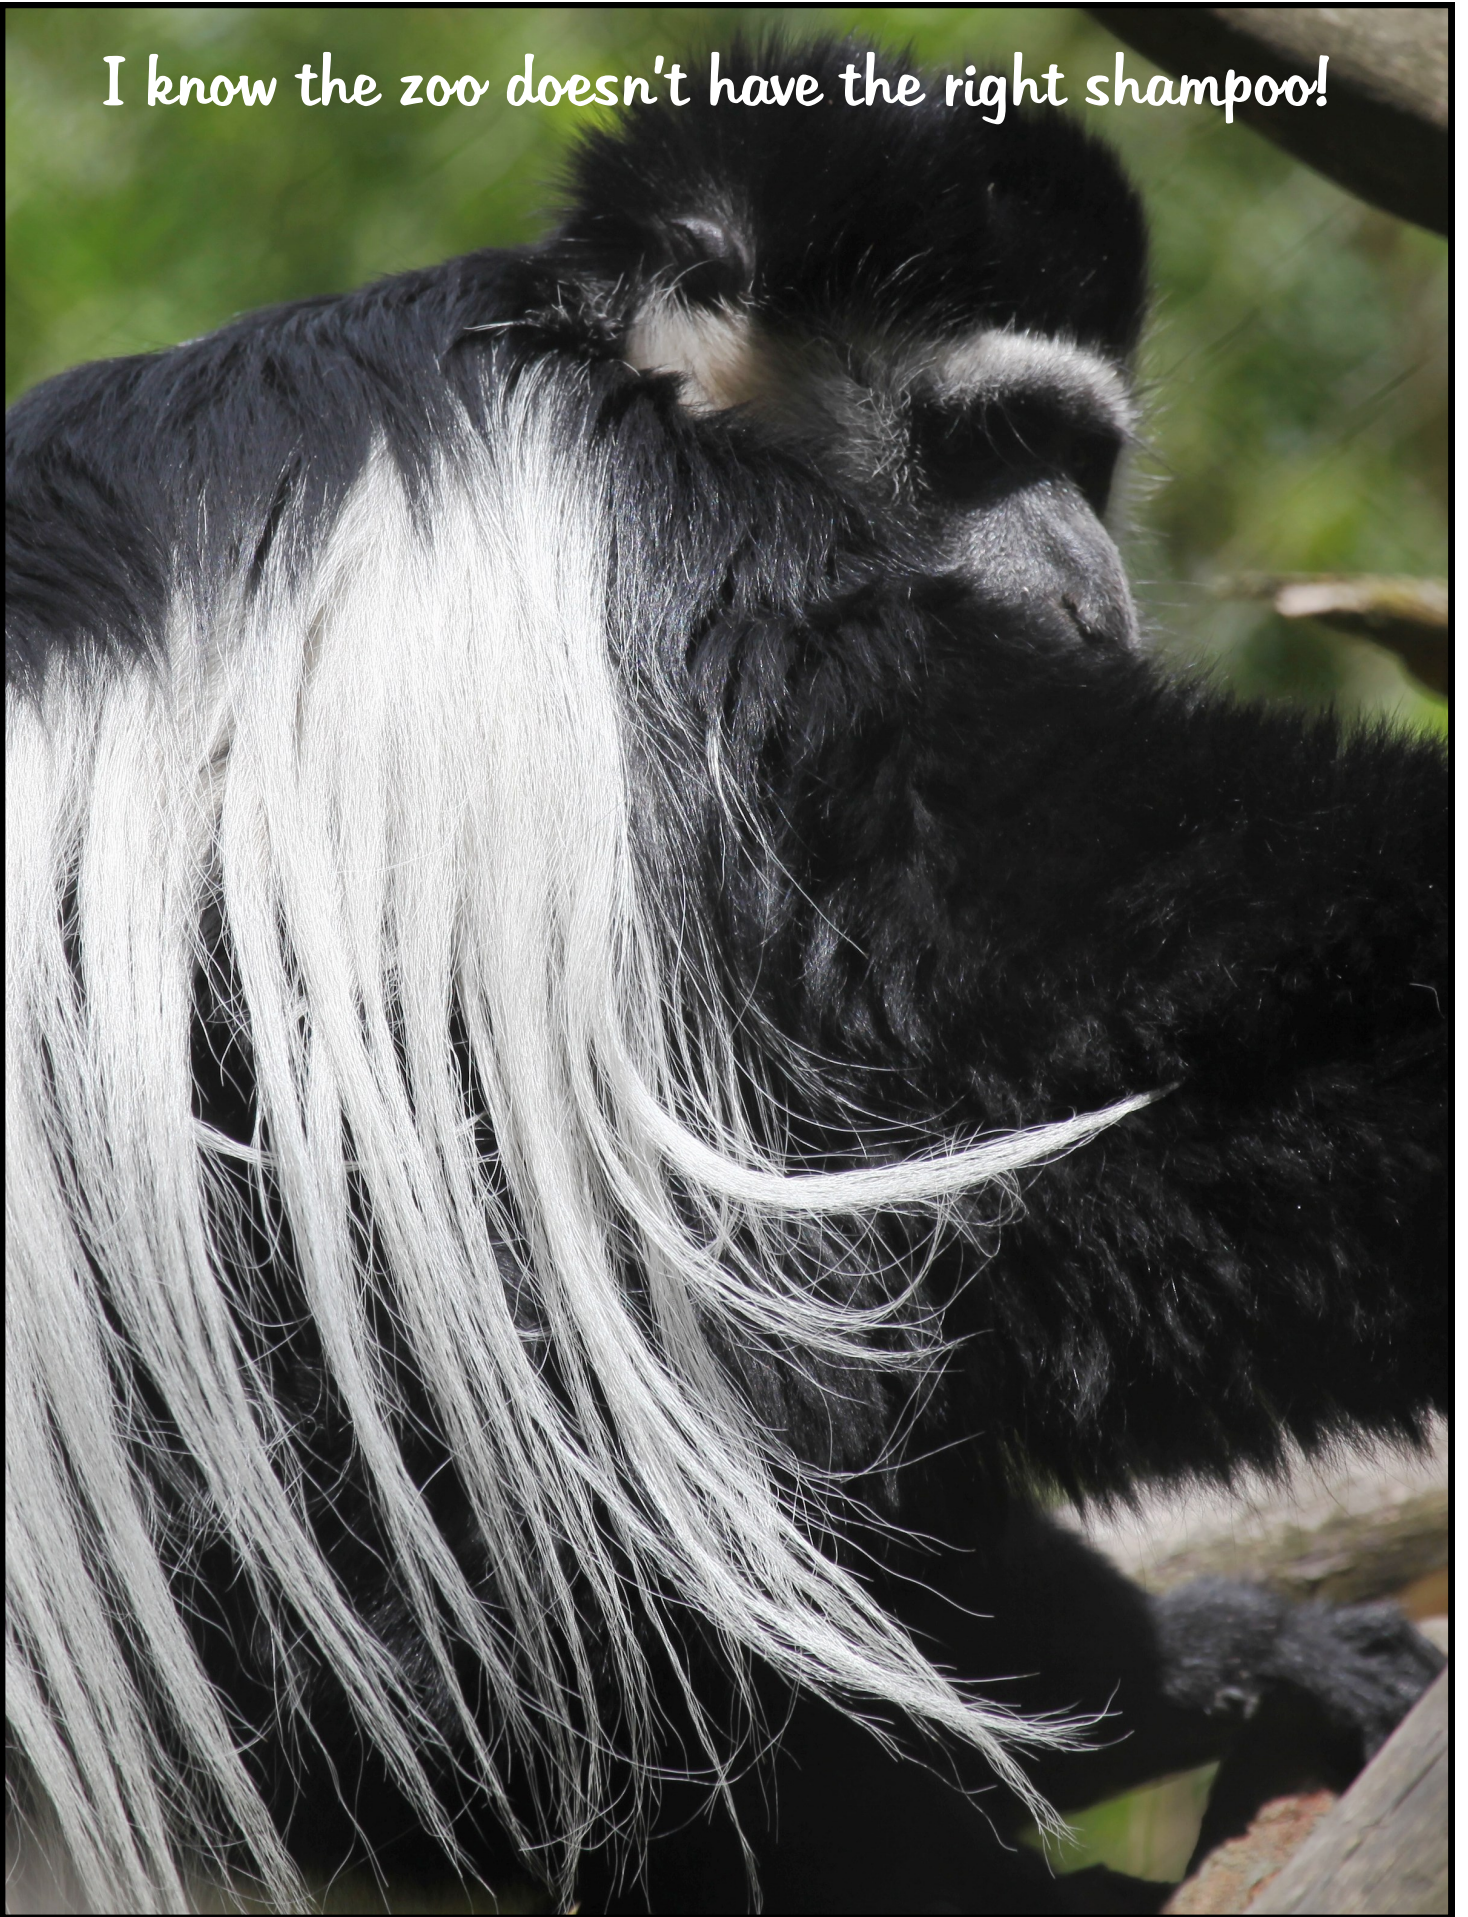

Nice tail eh?

I wonder what's for dinner tonight.

I know the zoo doesn't have the right shampoo!

I bet you knew that Easter is my favorite season.

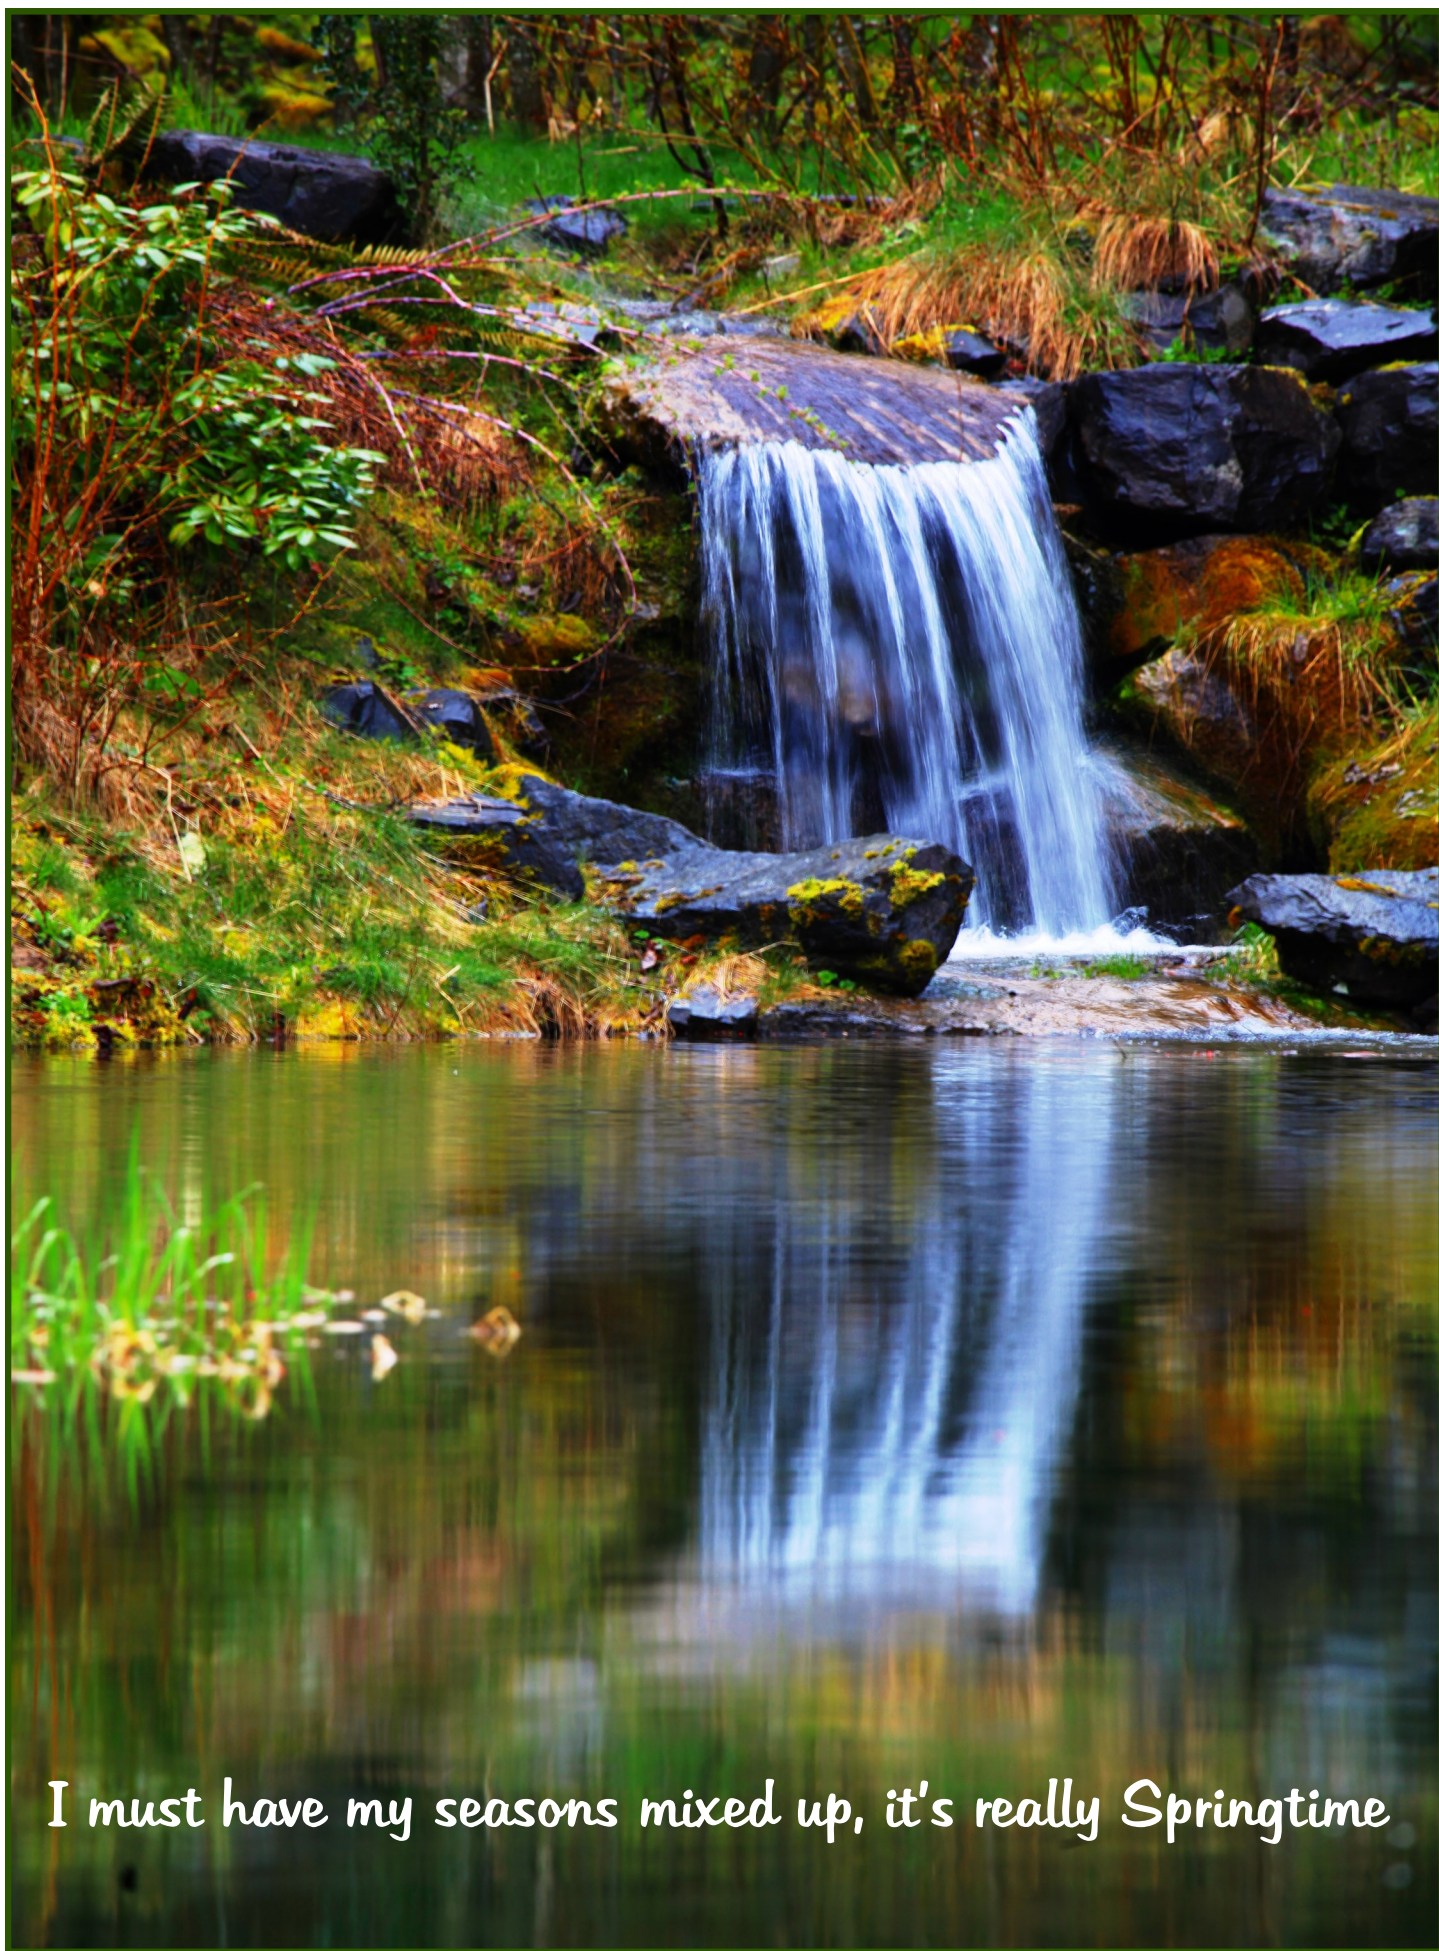

Tequila anyone?

Time for a spring cleaning!

South Fork's best fishing spot!

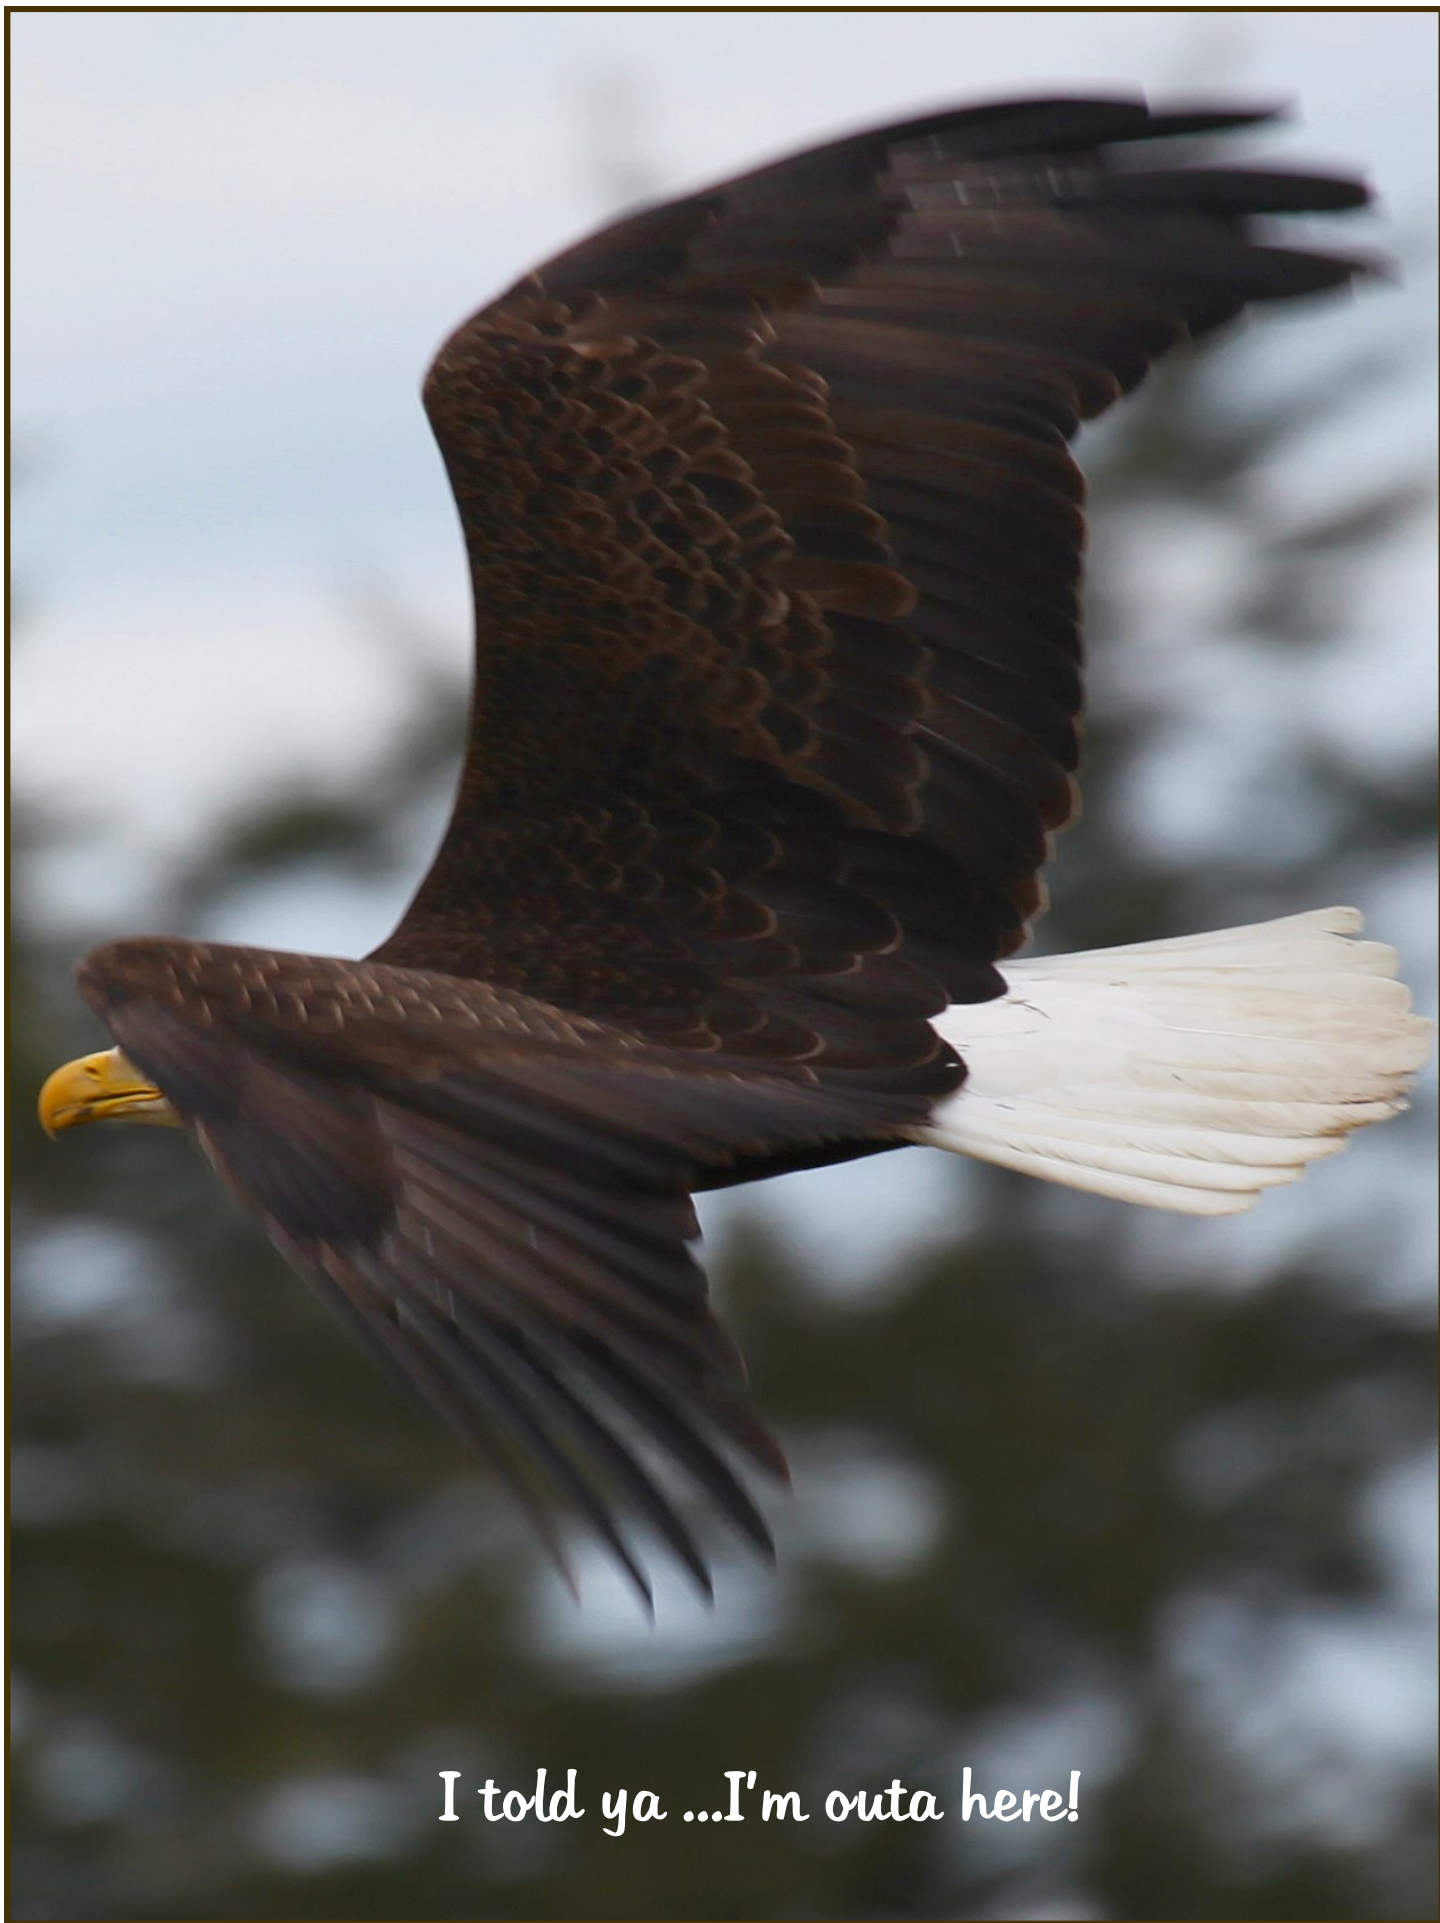

I must have my seasons mixed up, it's really Springtime

Who me?

Okay buster, one more step closer and I'm outa here!

I told ya ...I'm outa here!
