

NEVER SAY NEVER

The Survival Journal

La Vonda M. Gollner

CAMPUS EDITION

THE ENTRY

Who will be traveling with you?

Circle One: Friend Date Alone

Name(s) _____

Address(es) _____

Home & Cell _____

Who else knows the person(s) that you will be traveling with?

Name & Phone# _____

Name & Phone# _____

What is the description of the vehicle that you will be traveling in?

Vehicle Make/Model _____

Color _____

License Plate# _____

What other ways will you travel today?

Circle One: Walk Bicycle Bus Subway Other _____

Bus/Subway line and route# _____

When are you leaving for your destination?

Date _____

Time _____

What is your destination(s)?

Circle One: Campus Club Friend's Home Movies Other

Address _____

Phone# _____

And what time do you plan to be back?

Date _____

Time _____

Date rape and assault on campuses does exist. Be aware of your surroundings, and always stay one step ahead of any situation.

Caution: If you are uncomfortable about leaving, DON'T GO!
Your instincts are more powerful than you know.

SURVIVE.

SURVIVE

NEVER SAY NEVER

The Survival Journal

by La Vonda M. Gollner

THIS JOURNAL COULD POSSIBLY SAVE A LIFE,
OR BRING JUSTICE TO ONE THAT TAKES A LIFE.

I dedicate "Never Say Never" The Survival Journal, to the memories of Laci & Conner Peterson, Cherica Adams, Washington Interns Joyce Chiang, Mary Mahoney, Chandra Levy, Polly H. Klaas, and the many others whose lives were taken through violent acts.

"The "Never Say Never" Journal is excellent and will certainly find its audience".
- Gavin de Becker, Best selling Author of The Gift Of Fear,
Protecting The Gift, and Fearless

"Mrs. Gollner, I applaud the marvelous work that you are doing. Your dedication to safety, combined with your intense focus, intelligence and positive attitude have resulted in a well thought out, inspirational and important safety tool". Pollydad
- Marc Klaas, father of the late Polly Hannah Klaas and founder of the Klaaskids Foundation

- Steve Bornfeld, Writer, Las Vegas Life Magazine says: "Never Say Never" is a workbook-style collection of fact sheets where teens can jot down names and vital information. Her drive to protect teenagers was born of teenage experience - hers and others. And to hammer home the point, she includes statistics of rape, abductions, and other violent acts".

- The Late Sandy Thompson Vice President and Associate Editor, Las Vegas Sun Newspaper said: "Never Say Never" is a good idea that's presented simply and directly. It's Gollner's idea of keeping a regular journal with pertinent information that's appealing. It makes sense, especially for teens and adults. The importance of such information was underscored by the disappearance of Chandra Levy, the graduate student from California who disappeared in Washington, D.C. without a trace".

- Reverend Sharlene Humm, President of Sharlene's Angels On Earth inc. says: "I think that ("Never Say Never") is a very unique idea that should be introduced to every family who has children. This will help parents not only keep track of their children, but in cases of unseen emergencies or other unseen happenings, they will have a good record of those people and the places their children may frequent. It is important that this journal gives young people independence and 'is not the demand of the parent'. This is a good idea, and I think the journal ("Never Say Never") should be on the top of the shopping list for any parent".

- La Vonda M. Gollner Author of "Never Say Never", The Survival Journal, says: "It seems that our society thrives on tragedy, but I thrive on preventions of tragedy".

- Tracy Drake, 10 yrs old wrote: "Dear Ruth, thank you for the book, it is really good. I hope your daughter writes more. I like writing in the book, it is very fun. Thank you".

- Angela Drake, 14 yrs old wrote: "Dear Ruth, I thank you for the book your daughter wrote. I like it very much. I hope your daughter succeeds with this book and others to come".
Dear Tracy & Angela,
I am fighting for you, and I will never stop. Love, La Vonda

CAMPUS EDITION

ISBN 0-553-09186-7

52195>

9 780553 091861