"Betsy saved our life – and our company! Drowning in paper piles and clutter, we hired her to help us clean, clear and consolidate office space and procedures, with excellent results. Her simple suggestions, as captured in Wouldn't You Really Rather Go Shopping? The entertaining guide to getting yourself organized are invaluable – and we now have time to go shopping! Get this book, and free up time, space and energy!"

Sharon Bowman, Author The Ten-Minute Trainer

"I was able to let go of my pride in about 10 minutes based on the process that Betsy presented. At first you resist throwing away anything. It only took me a short time to realize that Betsy's process is to respect the difficulty of letting go, and work with your habits to make your systems of storage better, and eliminate what you no longer need."

Candice Stoddard, Attorney at Law

Betsy Van Sicklen Cohen has been organizing her things, her friends and their lives, her children and her students most of her life. As a school teacher for over 25 years, she has gotten lots of hands on practice in organizing.

After retirement, she has taken her organizing skills and applied them to her business as a Professional Organizer in Northern California and Nevada.
