

You Are Not Alone

little girl, little girl, do you know me? I lived in the same house where you use to be.

*I watched you grow silent;
I watched you grow fear;
I watched all the heartache;
I watched you for years..
I watched you grow up,
and I watched you fall down,
I watched you go crazy, I watched as you drown, in the dark and the silence, and shame that you bore,
I watched while inside, you bled out, from the core.
little girl, little girl do you know me? I'm standing beside you, and you're beside me!*
