1. To Many Thoughts To Many Dreams.

Sitting by the side of the road to nowhere,
Where was I headed anyway?
In the past I've been so lonely,
So one forgets how one should pray,
I don't believe that anybody's done me wrong,
And I can't conceive just how I've managed to carry on.

If I could stop these tears from falling,
I'd try to make things right with you,
And maybe when the morning comes we could pretend life's oh so new,
I don't believe that you could carry a heart of stone,
Have you any thought of what it's like to be alone.

To many thoughts, to many dreams,
To many golden hearts been broken so it seems,
To many years of being starved from life,
Deep down inside you know its right.

I see a new day dawning,
I see the sunlight shining through,
I didn't give no warning,
But this was something that I had to do,
I don't believe that you gave it your all,
I just can't take this kind of life no more.

To many thoughts, to many dreams,
Where there is love that's shining bright I'll let it in,
These dreams of mine are coming true
Oh yes indeed,
To many thoughts, to many dreams.

2. While He Was Waiting.

Did you ever give a damn about the man who spent his life waiting?
It didn't matter who you're with or what you did he kept waiting,
There were times that were good and there were times that he should have stopped waiting,
But through the thick and the thin and all the hard times for him he kept waiting,

Baby we can't let this passion die,
You know we've got to keep the dream alive,
Don't ever let it slip away,
I'm talking 'bout my passion,
My passion deep inside.

And now this gifted young man was doing all that he could while he was waiting,
But he never understood all the things that he should,
He stood waiting,
Well this man nearly died as his passion inside was kept waiting,
Just like the love for a child this young man he grew wild,
and now;
he's no-longer waiting.

5. What Is This Place I've Come To?

All Alone,
All by myself,
Surrounded by a world of uncertainty,

What is this place I've come to?

All the joy, the sadness and the hurt I've ever known,
All rolled into one,
Not being able to separate the truth from the lies,

What is this place I've come to?

Wanting to let go but never knowing quite how to express myself,

Learning to know myself is pain.

Leaving my familiar surroundings to escape the illusion,
I've discovered the illusion is me,

Learning to know myself is pain.

I blocked out the real me for far too long,
And now it hurts to rediscover,

What is this place I've come to?

Finding myself,
Learning to love myself,
these things I must do,
Before I can love another.

7. Take It From Me.

It's cold and dark where I am now,
No-one can touch me,
The silence tearing me apart,
Controls my body,
Release the burden that I have and take it from me.

I can not move so I just lie here,
In my body,
The life is draining from my eyes,
Won't someone Stop me,
A losing battle almost won,
Just take it from me.

The blade that comforts me,
I know,
Is old and rusted,
But it don't matter anymore,
Once I've departed,
I'll leave this place,
I'll hurt no more,
Just take it from me.

8. Save the day.

Didn't quite see the feeling surrounding you,
All those things that you told me are coming true,
Well I don't need a reason for sending you flowers,
All the coffee we drank kept us up for hours,
I can see that you need me there's no doubt about it,
Living unhappy is not for you.

And the times that you fear that your all alone,
I will always be there to keep you safe and warm,
I can see your hearts bleeding,
I just want to hold you,
Give you a life that you've never known.

Now I'm coming out of nowhere to save the day,
Yes I'm coming out of nowhere to save the day,
I'm coming out of nowhere to save the day just to be with you.

13. In Need Of A Friend.

Every time I close my eyes,
I think of you and I realise I'm lonely,
I've been walking down an empty street,
Looking for someone to meet,
But I still see your smile,
I see the look in your eyes.

Oh I'm in need of a friend.

What I'd give for one more chance,
To make a mends I reach out my hands,
I want to be with you,
To live my life without you now,
Seems so wrong and I don't know how I ever did before,
I've got this feeling inside.

Oh I'm in need of a friend.

14. Michael.

Been wishing you a good night sleep, since the day that you were born.
Nothing in this world can change how you make me feel in side,
You are the purest form of love I'll ever know,
Michael,
I love you so.

The first time that I saw your face, tears fell from my eyes.
How I long to hold you in my arms.
One day we will be together,
We'll do things,
You and I.
Michael,
I love you so.
I love you so.

15. Sad Skies Of Grey.

Sad skies of grey,
Blows those blues away.
Ice cold hardened heart,
Will I ever be the same.
No-one left to blame.
Thinking of you,
What am I to do?
What am I to do?

I just wanted to tell you,
That I always loved you baby.
But now your on the road you chose,
All my secrets no-one knows.
Did it even mean a thing?
Or was it just another crazy dream.

Thinking of you,
What am I to do?
What am I to do?

16. Going Home.

Guess I should have realized the consequence involved.
Acting like a hero,
A young man growing old.
I've got to find the answer, but I guess that I've been told.
My life's full of misery and now I'm all alone.

I'm in a place where you can't find me,
And I'm out here by myself.
I've got to find my treasure,
Don't want nobody else.
I feel the rain pouring over me and I hope it goes away.

I've got a cultivated occupation rising through the storm.
And I'm running from the emptiness to the place where I belong.
I feel the sunshine shining over me,
And I hope it's here to stay.

20. My Prison Cell.

An empty soul that can not find,
Any hope or peace of mind,
Empty thoughts are here to stay,
Myself imprisoned what to say,

Haunted dreams of years gone by,
I ask from you the right to die,
This blinding darkness that knows no shame,
It calls to me to end this game.

21. Falling.

Something's telling me that nothing matters anymore.
I spread my wings and try to fly,
but nothings happening,
And now I'm falling.

The mystery, it comes to me.
Colours changing all around,
I'm tripping out, it's the longest day,
But nothings happening,
And now I'm falling.

25. Parcel of lies.

I don't exactly know how I feel inside,
With mixed emotions who's to say?
A new desire but now broken pride,
You took the parcel of lies.

You thought of me as the antichrist,
But say it feels good all the same.
You say you want me yet you doubt me,
I feel the burning flames.

If you want me you can have me,
But don't talk crazy to my mind,
There's no commitment just be happy,
Or you will see my fire die.
With no real effort I seduced you,
I gave you a key to my home,
A part time lover isn't heaven,
But it sure beats being alone.

27. Soul Searching.

Sitting in the corner of his lonely dungeon room,
Waiting for his sentence,
What was this worried soul to do?
Looking deep inside,
Not knowing what he'd find,
Sifting through the ashes of a life he'd left behind.

Soul searching,
I'm gonna get it right this time.
Soul searching,
Time to get my life back on line.
No more hurting,
Cause I know this much is true,
I'm soul searching through and through.

Tried to find a reason, while I was doing time,
Planning my escape, was what I had in mind.
At times I've felt so empty,
But now I know the time is right.
The answer to my problems is buried deep inside.

29. The Faded One.

I looked into the night time sky,
But my body was only dreaming.
I tell myself what I can't deny,
And free my mind when my soul is screaming.
What will I be when the night is done?
What will I be when the morning has come?
As I am me,
I have become,
From young to old,
The faded one.

48. The Real You.

Abandoned and disillusioned,
Afraid of what's to come,
Trapped in a reoccurring dream,
What has one become.

Crying out for love,
Not finding what you crave,
Hurting throughout the sands of time,
Like a gift that's never made.

I know you feel like your all alone,
But one thing I know is true,
I'm here for you forever more ,
Because I see the real you.
