

Handbook for a Revolutionary

Chapter 1

So, you want to start a revolution
May I suggest a plan of action?

Start at home
With a revolutionary idea
Like wash a dish or clean up your own piss
Stop beating up your kids
And taking that which you refuse to give
What your family needs you dismiss
Try a little tenderness

Chapter 2

So, you want to start a revolution
May I suggest a plan of action?

To achieve plus from minus
Mental and spiritual you'll need to adjust
Pick-up a book, see a film, experience true self
If you have courage and will

Chapter 3

So, you want to start a revolution
May I suggest a plan of action?

To cause and purpose you must commit
No mindless recitations of what you heard are legit
Know the plan and work the field
Then follow only that which you feel is real

Chapter 4

Still want to start a revolution?
Let me suggest a plan of action!

GET UP!
You lay in the king-size bed of your mind
Covered by the blanket of your eyes
And talk

And talk
And talk of dreams and ideas
Others have born & schemed

IN THE END

Revolutions are by definition...Moving
Forever reacting on a previous action...On-going, grooving
Straight-up in the mission & for comrades only you're bending
If none of these exist you are Pending...
