

An undead marshal must seek out and destroy his own daughter, who has become the portal to a deadly, invisible world.

Monstrous creatures invade our world in this dark fantasy in which death is but a door to another room of one's life.

Title: Sleepers Awake

Author: Patrick McNulty

978-1-60164-166-3

Pages: 320

Cover: Cloth 5.5" x 8.5"

Distributor: Independent Publishers Group (IPG)
 312-337-0747

Category: Fiction/Supernatural

Price: $22.95

Supernatural bounty hunters pursue an ancient evil

Sleepers Awake pits wraiths against undead "sleepers" in a gruesome tale of a town under siege by dark forces

May
2009

For immediate pre-release review, at your pleasure.

In Sleepers Awake, a mysterious organization called the Ministry of the Wraith relies on undead marshals to hunt and destroy evil. Bishop Kane is one of these supernatural bounty hunters, a citizen of a dark world filled with gliding monsters hiding behind the thin guise of human flesh. Kane's mission is to return to the small Alaska town where he was killed nearly thirty years ago to assassinate a woman who unknowingly holds within her an ancient evil. That woman is his daughter, whom he thought dead. When her husband, the local Sheriff, foils the assassination attempt, her true identity is revealed. A series of cataclysmic events threaten to destroy every living resident in the town and beyond. As darkness falls, a growing army emerges from the shadows led by a woman both men have loved, a woman both men have vowed to kill before the next sunset.

About Patrick McNulty:

Patrick McNulty's dark fantasy Sleepers Awake is based on the screenplay Dark Season which he wrote with The Zanuck Company. A lifelong fan of horror and fantasy fiction, this is his first novel. Patrick McNulty is a Medical Technician in the Canadian Armed Forces. He is working to complete a degree in Neuroscience.

He lives, when not on assignment with the military, in Petawawa, Ontario with his wife and two children.

Kunati Named
 Independent Publisher
 Of The Year
 AT BEA 2008 by ForeWord

Review Inquiries:

James McKinnon (Editor)
 1-866-356-2442
 editor@kunati.com