

Recall

*Tell me of love
And I shall remind you of murder*

*Tell me secrets revealed
And I shall show you how they are closed*

*Show me the winds of change
And I shall show you how to remain comfortable*

*Show me of the future of bright awakenings
And I shall show you what pain it took to get there*

*Sing unto me new songs
And I shall remind you of the good ole days*

*Take me by the hand
And I shall show you how I do not follow*

*Show me that you have conformed
And I will show you survival*

*Show me of Gods
And I will show you how they were created*

*Tell me how you survive
And I will show you how you conformed*

*Speak to me of law
And I will show you how you broke them*

*Show me the way
And I will show you how to live for*

Today

Know

*Drum sacred knowledge of the earth,
Lends me to higher powers of rebirth.*

*Spiritual quest of innocence,
High lifted prayers of incense.*

Dancing into the Mother's womb, Coming of Age, Sometime soon.

*Night skies of wonder lights,
Every star intensely bright.*

*Hunt indeed what I need,
Withholding from the mother of seed.*

Moonlight pipes of rhythm, Hourglass prism.

*Time is not of concern,
All my lives to learn.*

*Indeed I am free,
As whirling winds,*

*Rhythm in life,
So mote it be.*

My Only

*Verify thy soul,
Black as fire breathing coal.
I see what's behind this line,
Chalk smeared ground, evidence left behind.
I know thy attention,
It is too much to mention.
I remember thy face when I saw you last,
Hiding swiftly behind the finger-painted mask,
Your eyes gleaming and reaching out,
No other has called to me, what's this all about?
You lived a good life true and bliss,
It seems to be the work of a serpent's kiss.
Today I fled to see what you have done,
Truly my arch enemy,
My only begotten son.*

Intro

For Soon shall we accompany the guardians of fate..

gliding among the prism of moon waining nights awaiting loves fair trial.

Glimmering specks of beauty envelope me into grace.. hearing distant echoes of natures callings.

Mortal pain of love so suicide has grasped upon me and shattered my lips of betrayal..

So shall we accompany the chariot upon the ancient Ariel.

Comfort of my Soul

So far and in between I lay my head to comfort my soul...

Laying upon the shores of wisdom...

Listening to knowledge sacred...

Giving my body a time to know...

Itself.

Everything Except

*Everything has been written except your view
Everything has been done except what you do Everything has been said except for what you say Everything has been influenced except for what you have influenced Everything has been opened except your key which opens new doors Everything has been destroyed except for what you shall make anew
Everything has its turning of tides and seasons except for what you will make out of it Everything is turning except what you make still Everything you do do for you.*

Dietary Fulfillment

Dietary catalog of sleek fit, Loosing inch off inch, taking with them there wit.

*Of perception of true life,
Not everyone is truly the same,
Working hard to obtain life without strife.*

*Of being made fun of,
But this world judges always,
Everything is still gonna be rough.
Believe what you must in order to obtain your goals and achievements,
Just remember to keep yourself from harm and be sane.*

*This world does not watch every move you make,
And thats why people judge, these people think that you are a mistake.
But believe me in what I say,
People should be happy the way they are,
And if they half to lose weight for this, it is all stray.*

*Believe in yourself,
You are everything to someone out there, you are the true wealth.*

*Be remembered by what you do,
None will remember what you look like,
Take the hint.. Your on cue...*

*Be one with yourself in all that is true,
World would not be what it is without you...*
