

Roommates

By

Belinda Collins.

Eyes the color of the sky. Golden locks and hard tan muscles that make women quiver. He was everything Savannah Marx wanted in a man strong, great smile, sense of humor and sexy as hell. He was right out of a romance novel. She was in love, but she couldn't have him. Instead she had someone out to get her. But how far would they go..... How did the joke go... Men are like parking spaces, The good ones are always taken.

Jackson Orian was in a bad relationship with the wrong woman. Turns out, taking a woman out as a favor is a big mistake, especially when the woman is crazy possessive. But he would risk anything to protect Savannah.....And anything could include his life.

ISBN 978-0-557-43115-1 90000

Roommates.

Belinda Collins.

Belinda Collins. Roommates.

