

Drops of Rosie is a book about a little girl and her dog. Together they are challenged with every day situations. They talk about fears and share their wishes and dreams. Both tag along with their other dog buddies on plenty of adventures. The drops of friendship they have together will fall into your heart forever. Included is a Drop of Notes activity book at the end so a child can make their own adventure with the help of someone close to them. For ages 4 to 100.
