“The Unholy Trinity” Takes on the Drug Trade

The Juice of the Poppy is a juicy read. In this action-filled novel about the drug trade, corruption is everywhere and no one can be trusted. But even in the thick of things, love and romance still manage to flourish.

Electronics expert Steve Dalton owns a medical equipment agency in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, which takes him all over the world. Together with Cecil Liu, a shrewd Chinese businessman, and Tim Foster, an ex-SAS officer, the three have joined forces as “The Unholy Trinity.” A year earlier, the three took on Middle Eastern terrorists who wanted to wreck the American economy in the author’s preceding novel, The Strangling of Satan.

Now the three are waging war against illicit drugs, heroin in particular, hoping to stop the supply of The Juice of the Poppy.

THE JUICE OF THE POPPY* (ISBN: 978-1-60976-512-5) will be available on February 25, 2011 for $13.95 and can be ordered through the publisher’s website:
