Introduction

Hello Friends,

I am Satyendra, for me poetry is a musical expression of thought. Human life is Very unstable. We go through various phases in life and we undergo different kinds of feelings and emotions throughout our lives and these emotions inspire me to write down in a piece of paper. By sharing I feel relieved, in poetry I find sympathy in grief joy in happiness and inspiration for a better life.

I have read various kinds of poets but I like classical poets most. I write in classical rhyming style and in free verse style as well. I don't like to be bound by any particular style or sect so you will find lots of Variations in my poetry.

Though most of my poetry is on the popular theme of love but I have also Written on current social issues like corruption and honor killing because as a Poet and citizen it's my moral responsibility to raise my voice against social injustice.

I have touched almost all the human emotion like joy, sorrow, envy and anger in my poems because these strong emotions fill our lives with different colors. Visit my blog to know more. Enjoy reading heartfelt poems below.

I fought against me hard
To end this evil lust which
Degraded me to low level
And weaken my virtues.
I drew the sword of wisdom
Put on the amour of devotion
With mentor shield.

With strong will though I won
Puffed up with pride
Slacken in efforts
Lost in merriment.
The enemy attacked
Once more made me slave.
Wasting all my power and efforts.
! Alas how I became a prey to Devil leaving the good and the god
Now I find me ill and devoid of life though breathing.
Neither have I had will nor power to come back to past.
One constant regret eats me
Will the lord help me come out?

Satire on Girlfriend

What else make you happy?
I twisted my way of life to Modern and artificial Wore attitude and boasted
Ate fast and unhealthy food
Dressed like an American.

What else make you happy?
I brought a new Honda City
Rented a flat in high society
Gained numbers of credit card
Purchased latest cell phone.

What else make you happy?
How bravely I heard all your Stupid talks and patiently suffered
Stories of daily soaps, praised them all

What else make you happy?
I saw silly romantic movies
Went to pub with you
Met with your close friends,
Danced with them happily
Had cigarettes and wine.

What else make you happy?
I lied to you hundred times
When I said that you are pretty, intelligent
And your fake smile has charming effect

Still you say I do not care
No man knows the secret
I want to know
Shall you guide me to your heart's core?

A Thousand Wishes

Thousands wishes arise
I dream walking each path
Each half crossed and returned.
As first rays of sun tore away
Veil of dim, dispels
Many a visions too.

Beauty Turned Evil

Bang! Bang! On a windy night
Alien in a hapless plight
Drench in water head to toe
Look for refuge a night that grows.

A fairy queen with long hair
Face ablaze wild eyes a pair
Arresting smile gaze too deep.

I let her in my tiny place
Gave her clothes and bread
She looked as she did show
She looked as she did love
Came to me and moan full face.

I hugged and kissed her
She lulled me to sleep
I saw places, gardens,
Waterfall, happy people
With riches and jewels

Trees lashed with fruit of Many tastes, incense of buddies
Freshen heart and mind
Birds chirping in a tone from Different Boughs of trees.

I saw her going to a cave
So I did follow, the beauty
Turned evil and laughed at me
Pale people I saw there, irons in Hand and feet with sunken cheek
And hollow eyes, specter thin
Were they all?

They cried fake beauty has thee in chain
That broke my dream and I found my self
Alone at my tiny place tired and drained.

Beyond This Life

All alone at gloomy night
Moon is covered with a dark cloud
Pin drop silence, berating long
On soft mattress of grass
Full stretched and deeply relaxed
I would travel beyond this world
To a life beyond this life

Blessed Souls

Blessed are the souls
Away from lure or greed
Master of wits ruling them
Lost in godly rapture as though
Not existing in the sore globe
Praises deity for his grandeur, curses not Living easy world's splendor it heeds not Void of worldly pleasure yet kings of all
Unmoved by flattery no censor make him fall
Divine beauty kindles true love's ecstasy
All ever inexorable meet, pain is lost.

Break Up

One more time
Come to me with
Excuse of exit
Once more eyes meet
And that's it.
Waive your hands
With formal smile, Goodbye
No grudges or words of advice

O! For rest of restless life
Memory of what was worth
And would never be,
I shed tears and dreams too
Which i owe to thee.
Blank eyes as rain clear the sky,
Views the real globe with no dream.

Call It A Day

When Life becomes a burden
And you too tried to carry it

When mind is dark and blank
Eyes are often shedding tears
When beauty does not fetch
A smile

Sweetest songs but make you
Cry

When your favorite dish is insipid
And you feel life a worthless
Bliss

When all reasons and logic fails
Its time, you must call it a day.

Cruel Fate

I wrote her name on sea sand
A wiefd came and swabbed it
I was stunned I was sad
How to keep fragile love from nasty fate.
An inspiration struck in my wits
A flash in the heavens amid shady clouds
Time cannot erase memories sweet and my Words may not be forgotten.

Dark Lady

I wish I would have
Delete button in mind to Erase all your being.
Or with time machine
Rode back past to change
Events that caused meeting You

I cursed for what once
I thought to be good and true
Was real evil and false.
The mask is unmasked and truth is revealed
You dark lady with white face.
How long can make up hide
Dark deeds with utmost pride
Hate you dressed like whore
One thing you offer to money and power
That makes you what you are.

Dear Death

When the sun is dim
And gloom prevailing
Red sky is shedding tears
And cool breeze blowing
Come to me O! Dear death

When birds are singing happily in dense forest
I am lost in Sweet incenses
Of blooming flowers
Come to me O! Dear death

Come to me O! Dear death
With no pain but rare joy
That makes my soul laugh

Enlightened

Your skin-bone beauty
Now attracts me not
Deep gaze of eyes,
Gentle smile and silky hair
Does not raise my heart beat

Nor I pine for attention
As I foolishly did, No joy I
Find in your childish talk.
Though charmed by magic
Arrows of lust, I did ruin me.

But all is not lost.
With the first rays of truth
I tore away the fatal illusion
The holy touch healed me deep
Enlightened my self

Not all get happy in Other's happiness
Joy of someone
Becomes pain of
Others and pain
Brings smile.
When smile tickles
On someone's pain
That smile worth not Having.

Man are sad not for
Their miseries but of Joy his neighbor making.
Wicked joy of jealousy
Makes man mean
And he commits endless sin.

Stop this Leg pulling
And grow up, you too
Can get what others got.

Failure & Success

Peace to all my hard work
Failure and frustration
How could I would have done?
Anything differently, my mind
Always ponders how dumb
And scared I was at times
My silence and simplicity took its toll
And made future unsure unsecure, Obscure

My short life flies away very fast
Every day every hour every moment does count
Thousands of dream flashes
And fire in the vision of mind
On the bank of desire, coming waves of peril
Tempt and test my courage.
Invite me to swim and succeed.
Though the risk is there
I may drowned
How can withhold my
Tremendous power
Ocean is deep and high
Roaring waves
Can it hinder my way through?

Fake Beauty

You looked as if you were queen,
I begged you love
With despise deep turned away in elegant gait.
Thinking that I would follow
You turned back to find me busy in work.
You stared and thought hard
Gave in as nothing comes in Hollow mind, had tea twice.
Talked it with every one you know
Made some new friend to brag how people
Want you.

Endows in vanity to show off
Things you didn't have
But you thought fake beauty world would want.
Skin deep beauty would how long last
If not combines with virtue I would hate
Sparkling eyes, Firy lips and cloudy hair.

Heal Me

In the world in the life in the time
Within out in day and dusk
My simplest life is pain struck
Heal me with thy magical wand
I am tried, sick and lost
Heal my endless wounds
With thy unbound love
Grant peace to my soul
Peace to my heart and mind

Hope Never Dies

Hope never dies
Life never fails
Even in midst of Dreariest doom
Darkest cloud
Has silver lining
Sun comes back
After night.

When an ant climbs and
Falls but does not stop
O! Man what are you
Afraid of?
Failure is not a shame
And you must not quit
In spite of being hardest hit.

I Am Lost

You are with me
What else I need
No hope to Gain
No fear to Loose
In everlasting joy
I am lost always
Lost as a drop in ocean
Or a star in the sunshine
What makes me happier?
Or little sad, I realize not.

I Love

I love rising sun
After night
It gives hope
And sight
Sunset is awesome
To see
After day's hard work
When free
It's fun to get drench in Rain drop
Nectar falling how can one
Stop
Smell of heated soil in
First rain
No aroma ever so attractive
To brain

I love summer nights lit with moon
In solitude, with cool scented breeze blowing
Those rich mountains make me spell bound
Top of the world I feel, when Look around

Cascading waterfall and ocean deep,
Love this scenery more than anything else

I'm Sorry

Sorry for liking you so much
Should have known the facts
How feelings does not impact
And you make most use of it.

Sorry I did not say a word
You were wafting and I scared
At last my eyes spoke but

You know not such things sure
Yet who can ever passion ignore?

Sorry if my sight troubles
Could not stay where you were
Look at you and find you staring
Spy me to know what I am doing
The words I utter and move I make.

In Nature's Lap

You and I till doom's day
In this changing world
Would walk together hands in hands
Every path, high and low, comes my way.

Where the sun is makes
Dew on grass blade
Sparkle like diamond rich
Cool breeze drives sweet
Incenses of blooming flowers.

On the top of a mountain
Where the sky is is open large
Water cascading majestically by my side
In midst of a deep wood
Filled with nightingale's music.
I'll make a hut for our self.

Let Not Heal My Wounds

Let not heal my wounds
Nor my woes be vanished
My fate let be cruel
Eyes wet, sobs, sigh sore.
I come to you, smile
Hide tears, but you know
Not be rich to forget you
Reach your place, worship you.
Let not money blind me
Or ruined my goodness
Nor the lack insult me
Or hurt my pride.
Let my wisdom be sharp
And my virtues growing
Be peace with me and
Happiness that all i want
And need.

How life changes its way
At times you get unexpected
Or struggle for granted.
Life with its twists and turns
Make us shocked and stunned.

O! Predict not when what would come
Moment changes face of sun, moon too
Hide in gloom and might's head hung in shame.

Life Is Dead

Life is a long lonely walk
With no aim and destination
Simply accepting what comes
My way.

Tired of efforts and scared of dreams
Because no effort is rewarded
And no dream completed.
No love, no friend, no purpose
Alas! I lived in vain and Still coming up with this burden.

Only duties to done
I breathe in and out
So called life I never lived.
Why anybody hate me?
Am not I a man?
Did not same god create me?
And bid me live.
A pot full of miseries
With little value and hope

Where did i go?
Often found love in hate
Death in life, life is dead.

Little Bird

Little bird! Little bird!
What you sing

In the forest at evening
Full throated with utmost joy
Melodious song of divine note.

Little bird! Little bird! What's
The fountain of thy rapture
I wonder how I would capture
Smooth flow of rhymes nectar.

Little bird! Little bird!
What's thy land?
Which sect you are from
And which caste
You belong.

Little man! Little man!
I am a free bird and whole
World is my motherland
I trust in love and harmony
No caste creed God taught me.

Little man! Little man
I do sing song of peace and freedom
My source of joy in every season.

How can I tell thee?
What are you for me?
Like a cool breeze of air
In May's humid summer
Don't take offend at me
If I look in to thee
When our eyes meet
My heart starts to beat.
My day begins with your thought
I close eyes in your dream.
How do I make you feel?

Love is not a game
And no one ever wins.
Love never demands
Neither did I ever say a word
To favor me or return my love

It's an ever flowing river
Which quenches the thirst of Every passerby.

It does not harm you
Choose it or use it
Laugh at or hate it.
Come or go
Near or far
Distance matter not
No matter how hard
One try cannot skip
Its innocense joy.

Lucky Man

How lucky a person is
Who has guts to die
When his life become hell
When he cannot bear
Sufferings any more.

How relived it feel
When he cries and shed
Tears before world
Without being shy and
Shares his grief when
His heart is heavy and Burdensome.

He who is independent in taking
Decisions and does scarifies his life for other's interest.
Or get affected by praise or Criticism
Such person lives a life or dies a death in true sense.

Memories

These long white trees reminds me
Of my old days spent with my friend

We played several years amidst them
Though the flower fades and tree decay

Not the memories sweet ever go away.
Unseen for ages, never forget the smile
Simple joy, true feelings reside in the heart.

O friend, dear this tree is cause of your Presence in every leaves and boughs
Till the time I see and my senses feel.

Fallen brown dry leaves in sunbeam
Memories would shine in the heart

Gentle wind blows causing dry leaves fall
On the earth in the dust reminds me of the same
Fate as the purple white stems in the clay, leaves dancing

Money

Money! Money! All around
All want money more
Money rules our life now.
Money is the base of all virtues
Money makes friends and enemies
With money you get love of fairy

If it's not, you worth nothing.
It makes you great and people to flatter you.
Love, respect. power all its Fetches you.

Music

Music has heavenly charm
In the winter makes me warm
It quenches thirst in scorching heat
Drenches me with raindrop sweet

Music is the spring of every fall
It is dear to one and all.
Music is the word of love
Comes straight from heart
Dwells in mind on the top.

Our Love

Our love begin to dim
As dark comes after fading sun
As slowly moon changes
Its shape

You left me like tree shedding dry leaves
A thousand waves of emotion roared, callous
Stone yet remained still
Like morning dew on grass
Tears struck in my two eyes

Peace to me

Peace to me O! Lord
From suffering world
From hope and despair
From success and failure

From hope to gain
Till fear to loose
From first success
Till final failure
Be it love or hate
Both I equally treat
No praise no blame
Can make a count
All desires fade as
Beauty of a flower

Prayer

What to expect
When every thing
Is on stake.
You go right
But people on
You left, overtake
You and make fun.
When hard work
And honesty can not
Secure a job and flattery
Bags many rewards.
When stars are dim
And night seems unending
Mind is tired and discouraged
Join both your hands to pray

Rise and fall

One night looking at full moon
One idea struck my mind
And I begin to think.
Why not all time moon is full size

It has spots yet it looks nice
Soon one voice crossed my mind
The law of nature is everywhere
The cycle is always moving
One that grow will perish
And one that perish
Will grow again.

Sadness

How sad he looks
Tears rolling on the cheeks
Yet his grief is unknown
He quietly bears the pain.
Why does not he talk
And prefer solitude

Alone in a crowd
Crowdy when alone.
Busy in mind all the time
Does he has all the gloom
How many sorrows behind a smile, still he says 'every thing all right'.
How long would he run
Weary life of untold burden
Why not his heavy heart just crash,
To end one corrupt version.

Selfless Love

Selfless love does not exist
In any form anywhere
Everyone has a purpose
If they come together.

Purpose ends, love ends
And no more favors
Then comes the most painful part, forgive, forget

And move on.
Wasn't it better to never
Taste it than taste and repent
Then undo and delete.

Short lived is happiness in the ever changing world
And your ignorance is added
Misery in the woes.
For whom you think your own
Would not go long for sure
Last long journey you must travel alone.

Selfless Soul

O! You selfless soul
To take moments from
Hectic life to assist folks
Come out of their misery.

Your unseen presence
Ensures that a name cares
And steers to troubled lives.

O Harbinger of divinity
And pigeon of peace
How can honor thee
Tears of gratitude fill eyes.

Stop It

How many wars are yet to fight?
How many lives to be butchered
On the altar of ego and pride

Mankind has paid very heavy price.
Oozing blood of fatal wounds
Scream of man's deadly end

Stench from mountains of crops
Roaring solitude unending pain
Oh! No more I pray to lord
Let's bring peace to the world
Only way to survive from doom
Let's tread on the path of glory
Hope to see world on my side.

Sweet Home

Touching sky in distance long
Reaching the magnitude length of Sky

Of different colors; attractive they are
Faces furious sun
Or enticing rain or fiercely wind
Remains honest till earthquake comes

Savior of life and comfort giver not
The creation of god; but human companion
Shares the joy and sorrow shelter it gives.

Dream of sleep, hope of life and token of love
Basic of need, memory sweet and peace of mind
Ultimate end and beginning of life hail to thee.

Too Short a Life

Too short a life to ocean deep knowledge
And even less to experience
And learn.

So collect the wisdom of ages in scripture's pages
Find answer of each riddle
How to live and what to do
Aim of life and its route.

What my master does
Always say
Life is changing all the way
So be not attached to any one
Be it love, life or worldly gain.

World Peace

World history is a tale of war
Show of power and massacre
Many rich legacy were destroyed
Talent and wisdom put to death.
But peace brought prosperity

Whenever there was a unity
Peace makes one grow and shine
Peace is progress in every ground
Path of peace is path of god

Peace is virtue of angel
Without peace life is danger
War fetches ruin and destruction
Only peace is mother of invention
Let's make world a planet of peace.

You Light Up

You light up every bit of my heart
Your silent eyes provoke endless thoughts
Now I look for you as you stay in my heart all the time

Though you find it strange and look for revenge
Yet I entreat your anger very sweet with child like Glow every word that flow.

Thank You Note

I would like to say thank you for completing the poetic journey with interest and excitement. I am sure that you would have liked the book and continue to support me in my future ventures. Thanks.
