

INTRODUCTION

The majority of Christians who carry the Bible to church every Sunday, somehow, are lost in translation. I'm not just talking about those who visit the church once a week. I'm referring to the most devoted Christian or those who simply keep the Torah. You know, the scriptures made it pretty clear in Jeremiah 5:21 "Hear this, you foolish and senseless people, who have eyes but do not see, who have ears but do not hear." You need to know that you will not be able to understand nor grasp the entirety of this word with the naked eyes, unless, you seek wisdom from the heavenly Father. As you can see pastors are teaching people that the law is done away with because of their ignorance. They are telling people that they are saved by grace. You hear this rhetoric from every Christian that Jesus nailed the commandments on the cross. You find pastors make their sermons mainly based on the New Testament alone, preferably Paul's letters. The only time they go to the Old Testament is for the tithes or to make a quick reference to tickle the people's ears with vain doctrines. The interesting thing is that the same Messiah they claimed they love, and follow is saying, hey, guys, look, I didn't come to do away with the law or the prophets, but to accomplish. You see, whatever the Messiah said about the law went right over their heads. Although Christians are in denial, they don't say it out loud that their true savior is Paul. What is the term used, oh, action speaks louder than words, right? It's in every sermon, and the first thing that comes out of their mouth is Paul. They love Paul so much that they want to imitate him. The minute anyone says anything they are quick to reference Paul. Nonetheless, they have amnesia when it comes to Matthew 5:17,-19 "Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. ¹⁸ For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled. ¹⁹ Whoever, therefore, breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.” Get this, it’s not only Christians in this era, but it happened in the time of Peter as well. So much so, he said this in 2 Peter 3: 16, “He writes the same way in all his letters, speaking in them of these matters. His letters contain some things that are hard to understand, which ignorant and unstable people distort, as they do the other Scriptures, to their destruction.” With all that said, it came to my heart to go through the commandments, hopefully, that those of you who are truly seeking God may understand them and keep them the way we ought to. Look, it is not just Christians who are lost in translation, but some of those who keep the law as well. I found out that many of those who say that they keep the law have yet to understand how to observe the Sabbaths. Everyone is everywhere, and it is understandable because we were not raised in the Torah (a.k.a. the Law of Moses). Our parents and grandparents were raised to worship an idol called Jesus, and they kept on passing it down from generation to generation which, we found ourselves entangled in the curse of Moses spoken of in Deuteronomy chapter twenty-eight. Some of us have a hard time breaking out of the curse because we can’t seem to let go of that idol named Jesus. Until we can remove ourselves from Christianity, or any other religion, repent, and return to our heavenly Father there will be no hope for any of us or our children. My prayer is that whoever picks up this book to read, I pray that our heavenly Father opens that individual’s eyes to see the secret of the Torah. May he, or she receives wisdom and understanding, so they can rightfully discern the word of truth, and spread it out. Look, guys, you must understand this, for you to grasp anything out of this, you have to reset your mind. You must also understand that the commandments are not a burden, but are there to keep you closer to your heavenly Father. The commandments have nothing to do with religion, but it is our culture. That’s why Deuteronomy chapter eleven and chapter 6:4-8 reads,

Understanding The Ten Commandments and Their Entirety

“Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. ⁵ Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. ⁶ These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. ⁷ Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. ⁸ Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. ⁹ Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.” I will say this before I go on if you're comfortable in the Matrix, just take the blue pill and go about your business. Nonetheless, if you're like me, you want to know more, take the red pill, and let's see how deep the rabbit hole goes. So, to better explain the Ten Commandments to you, we will go to Exodus chapter twenty. I will decipher the commandments one after the other. I'm sure most of us heard of the Ten Commandments or the law of Moses at some point of time in our life whether we're Christian or not.
