Dedications

I thank God for allowing me to write this book and preach this word he wrote in my heart . The Lord inspired me to share this sermon in written form to share with those who will read this book.

I was blessed to receive this word and minister it to the congregation. I pray those who read this will be empowered, impacted, which will cause them to draw closer to the Lord Jesus. I pray they will have the faith to believe in Almighty God and trust in him always.

I thank my Husband Jahi J. Uzzell for his love, support and encouragement to write this book.

I thank God for my beautiful family and friends who have continued to be uplifters, light and faith walkers on their life's journey.

I pray every reader will grow in strength, assurance and draw closer to Heavenly Father after reading this book. May the blessings of the Lord be upon you and may I Shall Not Want be your declaration over your life.

~ About The Author ~

~I Shall Not Want ~

I Shall Not Want 7.

Have you ever experienced walking in a place of unfamiliar territory or seem like you were experiencing a greater level of obstacles because you were in uncharted territory? Or you couldn't understand why the attacks were so great. It seemed like everything around you was being shaken and you couldn't find your way through what appeared to be darkness in your world.

This darkness represents problems that arise in areas of your life that are overwhelming and have left you in disdain.

There were times you felt like things were blurred and you couldn't see your way through or couldn't figure out how you got to the place where you were. This place describes the surroundings you found yourself in after life's storm has left debris and disaster all around you. This place I am describing is a place of unresolved issues which leads to discouragement and a feeling of disarray.

I Shall Not Want 9.

God understands your position and your pain and he empathizes with what you are experiencing at this very moment. He is concerned about you. He loves you with an everlasting love. He wants you to know he has a plan for your life and you are reading this at this present moment to remind you that God is a very present help in your time of trouble and he will never leave you nor forsake you.

I am here to encourage you to allow your faith in God to light up your path around you as you endure trials, setbacks and times of testing. It is time to reposition yourself in faith, a faith that is unshakable, immovable and unstoppable. This faith is belief and trust in someone greater than you. A God that is great and mighty the I AM that I AM. The only wise God who knows all things, he is the creator of everything.

Our Father wants to father us the question is will we allow him to by renewing our trust in him fully and walking in belief.

This is what he wants from his children for us to believe in him even in the midst of uncertainty and what we don't always understand. Whether we encounter pleasant or unpleasant experiences in life we must learn how to depend and put our trust in the Lord Jesus! It is this trust that is our safety net and our assurance while we are traveling on this christian journey here on earth.

We will encounter numerous life experiences that will attempt to shape us but we must not allow what we walk through to determine our very existence, who we are and our outcome. We are greater than the problems we face. As believers we must learn how to cast our cares upon God for he cares for us. We must learn how to believe God and allow our Shepherd to guide us into life's pastures everyday.

God requires this belief from his children.

Your faith in God will anchor you and cause you to navigate through all turmoil, turbulence and opposition. I am sharing this preached word with you in this book to encourage and remind you to remain consistent in your faith walk with the Lord Jesus.

I Shall Not Want 13.

This is a time like never before that we are going to walk by faith and not by sight. God is requiring our total trust in him. We must come to a place where we recognize God is moving us to the next level in him and in ministry.

I Shall Not Want 14.

The next level requires a greater level of Trust and Obedience to his spirit.

Proverbs 3:5-6

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; And lean not unto thine own understanding 6. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

In our lives God is challenging us to move into the next realm of Faith and dependence on him. We must get back to believing God for the impossible in our lives and in the lives of others.

There is nothing too hard for God. He wants to reveal himself and prove himself to us once again but we must humble ourselves and be prepared for the manifestation of the move of God in our lives and in the ministry. We must declare out of our mouths God I need you more than ever before and I am now depending on you. We need to totally submit every area over to God and let him be Mighty God in our lives.

After totally surrendering our will over to God we can now come to a place where we trust God for ourselves and believe he has our best interest at heart.

I Shall Not Want 17.

We must learn how to give up our right, what we think is good for us and submit to what God wants for us.

Heavenly Father wants us to trust him and trust means to believe, have confidence in and rely on and have faith in something. God wants us to rely on him, have faith in him and develop a firm belief in him that will not be shaken when storms come.

If you are living in this world you will experience and encounter light and heavy storms, in some cases what may appear like tornadoes and hurricanes in your life but I want you to know and understand that you can make it through any of these storms if you have faith in God. He will carry you through and bring you through anything you are encountering or enduring.

I want to encourage you today to trust God no matter what you face or will face. Trust in the Lord with all your heart ~ this means everything you have with all your being, God wants you to believe in him by believing his word, sixty six books of the Holy bible, his logos which is the written word and also the Rhema word which is the spoken revelation of God's word. Whatever was spoken over your life through prophecy believe that it shall come to pass.

I Shall Not Want 19.

It is time for us not to lean unto our own understanding, this means stop trying to figure everything out.
