Once upon a time there was a Leprechaun named Lucky who lived in a small town in Ireland. Every time when St. Patrick's Day arrived and a rainbow appeared Lucky would Show up. The kids would say with glee, " there's Lucky the magical leprechaun". Lucky would help the kids with their home work and help them with their reading. He would also help the adults clean their cars ,water and mow their lawns.

Lucky decided to take a break for a while and explore the woods in Ireland later that day. He saw a deer and some rabbits drinking some water from a stream. He walked a little bit further and he saw a house. Lucky decided who lived there. He knocked on the door and when someone opened the door, Lucky was surprised because there was a Wizard named Merlin. He asks the wizard to give him magical powers to help the town and towns people if there was any danger. Merlin said yes and gave Lucky magical powers by giving him a magical ring.

Lucky decided to leave and head back to town to see how the kids and the adults were doing. When he got back to town a huge Dragon came and started to destroy every thing in site. The kids were crying because they were scared of the Dragon. As were their parents. The adults asked Lucky if he could get rid of the Dragon. Lucky said I will definitely get rid of the Dragon. So Lucky knew he had to do something about it before the town was completely destroyed.

With his new magical powers from the wizard he tried to freeze the Dragon but that didn't work. The Dragon just used his fire breath to unfreeze himself. Lucky also tried to wax the Dragon with his powers. The Dragon once again used his fire breath and melted the wax off his body. The Dragon tried to get Lucky with his fire breath. Lucky used his magical powers and created water to put the fire out.

Lucky tried again to get the Dragon. So he caramelized the Dragon with his powers. Lucky thought he finally defeated the Dragon. But he was wrong ! The Dragon just gobbled up the camel off his body. The Dragon tried to get Lucky with his tail. Lucky dodged the tail by Jumping out of the way. Lucky decided to create a magical sword with his powers that would turn the Dragon into stone.

He used the magical sword on the Dragon to turn the Dragon into Stone. However it was not enough power to turn the Dragon into stone. The Dragon grabs Lucky and he is about to throw him. All of a sudden some magical force went towards the dragon's hand and stomach. The Dragon dropped Lucky out of his hand and Lucky fell to the ground. He got up and he saw it was Merlin. Lucky ran to Merlin and he asked him thank you for saving me? I need your help to defeat the dragon.

When Merlin and Lucky are ready to take on the Dragon Merlin asks Lucky for his ring. With the ring he was able to stop the Dragon. Merlin Tells Lucky to use the magical sword by placing the sword on the dragon's stomach. Merlin and Lucky move out of the way. At that point Lucky and Merlin together said, "Lets turn the Dragon in to stone!"

Lucky used his magical sword and Merlin used Lucy's magical ring. They were finally able to turn the Dragon into stone. The kids and the adults jumped for joy that the Dragon was defeated by Lucky and Merlin. They lived happily ever after.

The End

The moral of the story is : If you don't help people in need your heart will turn into stone just like the Dragon's heart.
