

Do you hear the bells ringing,
A serene sound that fills the air,
Children with laughter and singing,
Everything is blissful and Fair.

Can you feel the love in the air,
Old and new,
Come together to witness this great affair.

Smiles, cheer, joy and giving,
Presents and gifts,
All for the living.

This Christmas,
The time Christ was born,
I hope you find happiness,
That will starve out the scorn.

Merry Christmas.
