

EDUTAINMENT BOOKS OFFER UNIQUE INSIGHTS INTO IMPORTANT ISSUES

Educator/author Melvia F. Miller has researched many religious and spiritual concepts ... as a seeker of truth. She is a graduate of several universities. During her career, she has received numerous scholarships, awards and honors.

A variety of religious and spiritual practices are widely promoted. Using lots of pictures and quotes, satire and humor -- this book examines some of the effects of these ideas ... and how they have been used in good and bad ways. What is the actual origins of them? Are there deeper meanings that exist commonly?

Although there are contradictions within 'Holy Book' scriptures ... there is evidence as to what is valid. Some legends claim that there were advanced sciences, high tech, and sacred teaching long before most traditional teachings reveal. This book offers deep insight into facts about spiritual, mental and physical health... based on the best lessons from history.

PORTION OF INTERVIEW WITH AUTHOR

Q = Is it correct to say that you have been studying and writing about Black History and related topics for years ?

A = Yes, and I have college degrees in "Multi-cultural Education." And I also studied psychology, religions, herbalism & related subjects --- wrote and published materials for many years.

Q = Reviewing the awards and honors you have received and comments from readers ... it appears that you have a lot of fans. What are a few of the common issues that they say the really like ?

A = The way that I make "the complicated" easy to understand with pictures and poems. And they like the stories that contain unique and unusual facts. Many say that they like the "real life" people and experiences in stories. Teachers, parents & folks who work with youth like the edu-exercises that I created.

EDUTAINMENT ANNOUNCEMENTS

Melvia F. Miller

"The Soulful Dr. Seuss"
 Edutainment Specialist;
 Environmentalist Founder and Director of
 The wHolistic Academy
 Multi-Cultural Eco-Educational Consultant
 Las Vegas, NV

Since elementary school, Melvia Miller has been a gifted storyteller and writer. Her talent and drive launched her into a lifelong career as an award winning, celebrated educator and author.

Melvia attended Ball State University where she became a member of Delta Sigma Theta Public Service Society. She used her skills as a writer to pen a popular weekly column in the BSU Newspaper titled: "From the Back of the Bus." She studied languages - Spanish, Black History, and Sciences. She became one of the BSU Women's Judo Champions. And she was named to "Who's Who in American Universities And Colleges." Melvia is a graduate of Ball State University, the University of Michigan and she holds other credentials from several other colleges and institutes.

Later in life, she got married and started a family. In her professional career, Melvia has worked as a teacher, counselor, training manager, and consultant. She tested many of her methods - games and exercises on her students - and their grades improved as a result of her methods.

Her first major book was an epic poem titled "New and Different Friends." She presented it at a major event in Detroit in front of thousands of people and received an award. She is one of the founders of the concept of "EDU-TAINMENT." One year - for a Black History Month event - several students created a postage stamp with Melvia's picture on it - and they dubbed her - "The Soulful Dr. Seuss."

One of her greatest desires in life was to become a mother. She did have two wonderful healthy sons Malik and Mubal. Both young men have their college degrees and good jobs.

She has had a few setbacks in life, having suffered several major health challenges including an auto accident.
