

THE COLOUR ORANGE

Chapter One

“Darling I need your attention”, Isabelle said to her husband Sydney. Her husband was busy attending to his car. “One minute sweetheart, I am busy with the car engine. Sydney attended to the car engine like all mechanical engineers do to their cars. Afterwards he washed his hands and wiped them as well as take off his mechanical suit that he wore each time he did his work. Isabelle who is 42 years old is still waiting a little bit impatiently. Sydney is 44 years old and is now thinking of their daughter Camille who is only 17 years old.

“Honey could you please help me hook up my dress the upper part?” Sydney quickly helped her with her dress and they were going for an evening party at Hilton hotel which was hosted by Isabelle`s company Bella Vue. Bella Vue is a company started by Isabelle which promotes female beauty. They advertise females` beauty products and do people`s hair and faces as well as help them dress accordingly.

The trip to Hilton Hotel was nice and comfy as Sydney had dressed quickly in a gentlemanly suit and was ready with his A4 Audi 2.0 to start the excursion. They talked about Camille on the way and Isabelle had invited her to come home after their launching evening of a new product called Traforma. Traforma is a product for both male and female clients to help the stay looking young.

They arrived at the party at 17.30 and almost all the invited delegates had arrived. There were some waiters and waitresses to welcome them. There was some Abba music playing as well as some music by Beyoncé. Invited guests were dancing and some talking to one another. A few speeches were given and then it was time for the launching of the product. Isabelle and two other directors launched the product. “Transforma is a product that is made for you and for me. It is a product with Aloe Vera, Camomile and Lavender as well as some ammoniac acids and water. It`s a product that can keep you young and also restore your youthfulness.”

The party ended peacefully and everyone had had the time of their life. A few hours afterwards Camille called to say she was on her way home. When Camille arrived the party continued and there was jubilation. Everybody had some fun and they decided to go to bed. Camille had a lovely dream as she dreamt of her studies at university in music and arts.

The following day Camille was happy to prepare some breakfast for her parents. Moments later they had breakfast just talking about family affairs.

Camille left for her university which is Sheffield Hallam University. She went straight to the library to finish off her report and to print her assignment. After a while she went to attend her music lecture. The lecture was exciting and she participated actively. In the evening her mum called her to find out if she could come for a meal with her boyfriend David. Camille accepted except that she wanted to hear from David if he was available on that day. Camille called David and he also accepted. They both had a lovely date set for that weekend.

When Saturday arrived Camille went to pick up David in her Toyota Camry. Whilst her mother prepared the meal. Camille wore one of her recently bought clothes and the best for a winter day like that one. David wore a decent winter suit and a lovely bow tie only to go to his mother –in – law to be's home for a meal.

Sydney was also present for the meal and Isabelle had prepared the best dinner ever. Camille was really proud of her mum and of her cooking. Isabelle made a prayer and Sydney started asking David some questions as to what he Does in his real life. David said that he is a psychiatrist. He has his own private surgery in Gleadless. Camille seemed impressed by David's responses and so was Isabelle. Sydney was kind of mesmerised.

A week after , after Camille had finished her lectures David proposed to her. Camille agreed to marry David. However David's father –in-law to be did not agree with this early marriage of their daughter's. Isabelle tried to persuade him to agree to the marriage. However the father just needed some time to think about it.

Two months later Sydney finally agreed that Camille and David marry. The wedding went on fabulously. Camille wore a £1200 dress which was white and the brides maids had purple dresses with princess like embroidery. The groom's team had purple shirts and flowery waist coats. The church was well decorated with Mary gold and Jasmine flowers.

After the wedding ceremony people left for the park for wedding photos and at the reception there was much jubilation. They received many gifts they had been expecting to receive. After the reception and the much anticipated rejoicing there was a car accident. The bride and groom were in the vehicle.

They were both rushed to the hospital by an ambulance and David had serious injuries on the hip and leg. He became paralyzed for a month and received special care from both the nursing staff and the family members. After his recovery his family were pleased to have him at home. They hosted a welcome home party. Camille was in a good condition and happy to have David back home with her. There were in their parents' home until they were certain that their condition was good and suitable for them to live on their own.

Isabelle and Sydney accompanied David and Camille to their new home and they helped them pack their goods in their recently bought home. They talked many stories and the conversation seemed to be okay except they tried to avoid talking about the accident. They also had a couple of police officers come and question them. It seems David was at fault but he had had a slight headache. Therefore he had to pay a small fine.

The parents prayed for the house to be blessed ,David's parents could not attend the wedding because his mum is seriously ill on her death bed. Isabelle and Sydney returned to their home leaving David and Camille to plan a short honey moon. They started planning the place to go and they thought of Saint Jean Cap Ferrat in France.

The bookings for Saint Jean Cap Ferrat were not very difficult they just found the adverts at Location Vacances Express. They then made the bookings with another company. They also booked a flight to Saint Jean Cap Ferrat and they set for the journey two weeks time after the bookings. Both David and Camille enjoyed their flight as they talked and kissed all the way to their destination.

Saint Jean Cap Ferrat is a beautiful hilly area which has most of the scenes covered by green lawn. It is excellent for couples on their honeymoon. It has a lovely statue a bit dull in appearance but lovely to look at. David and Camille found a lovely room in one of the chalets. They had great fun their first night together at Saint Jean Cap Ferrat.

Their second night was very good after a day of sight seeing. They spent the rest of the weekend enjoying themselves and thinking about making babies. They returned to Sheffield happy and healthy. They were received at the airport by both Sydney and Isabelle. On their way back home they talked about their time at Saint Jean Cap Ferrat.

David had to return to work the following day and Camille had to go back to the university in a day's time. David had a secretary who admired him and who was pretty, her name was Keira. She bought David some flowers just to wish the best of success as he had come back to work. David accepted the gift but let her know that his newly wedded wife Camille may not understand it.

Camille had a lovely time at university although there was so much work to do that she ended up working with her friends Nicola and Megan. They worked very hard and managed to finish the rough draft of an assignment in a day. They decided to finish the proper assignment individually the following day.

David met Camille at home in the evening and they kissed and he showed her the flowers from Keira. She was not too surprised to see them because she put most of the blame on her. David was more than relieved because he had expected something like that.

They made love and went to bed and woke up the following day feeling a bit tired. They went their separate ways David to his work place and Camille to the university. As soon as David went back to the work place Keira wanted to know what had happened at David's home. David just let her know that the flowers were kind of accepted.

At the university Camille managed to finish her assignment and to hand it in on time and so did her friends Nicola and Megan.

Chapter Two

Sydney was working on some vehicles at work and he sprang his back, so that an ambulance was called for him and he was taken to the hospital. At the hospital he was rushed to a private room and his family came to see him. He lived there for 10 months until they told him that he was now paralyzed for life. This was sad news to the family and they hoped the situation would change with some more therapy.

Camille fell pregnant and bore David a daughter called Lolla. Sydney got back home and was given good care at home. He was happy to see his grand daughter Lolla. Lolla started attending nursery school at Havercroft nursery school in Sheffield. Her mum used to pick her up and she was a very intelligent child at nursery school. She participated actively and her nursery teachers liked her very much.

David liked his daughter Lolla very much and was impressed with the work she did at the nursery. David's secretary was not very pleased that David and Camille now had a child. She was now in love with David and hoped that she may divorce his wife but David would not do that. He loved his wife and child very much and liked to spend as much time as possible with them.

David and Camille had twins and they called them Felisitas and Felicitation. They rejoiced a lot about their children. Unfortunately the grand father slipped and he died of a heart attack. David and Camille helped Isabelle to arrange the funeral. It was a quiet funeral but with many engineers and doctors present. There were also some students present from Sheffield Hallam University but not many.

Lolla turned two years old and there was a birthday party for her. It was held at Globeline Hotel and a number of children from Havercroft nursery attended. Felistas and Felicitation both attended and had a time of their life. However the parents especially Camille still missed and was mourning her dad. He died at the age of 60 and was about to retire from work when he sprang his back.

Felistas and Felicitation also started attending nursery school at Havercroft. They also enjoyed themselves and were brilliant but not as brilliant as Lolla. Their teachers liked them and they did not have any problems with them if any at all. Lolla moved to preschool at Prince Edward primary school.

She was a bright child and was doing well in Maths, Science, Literacy, Music and Gymnastics. Her teachers liked her and her parents they thought that the parents were very supportive. Lolla then started year one she enjoyed it very especially

IT and Science. Camille completed her education she passed her degree with a first. Her whole family attended her graduation ceremony.

They hosted a party for her she liked it very much and there was a lot of delicious food served by Novotel hotel. They were many important guests that came from Havercroft nursery school, Prince Edward primary school, David's surgery, Bella Vue and Sheffield Hallam University.

At the party people had lots of fun and David's secretary was there and was just keeping an eye on David hoping they would fall in love. However she met Frank and they slept together at the hotel. They seemed to get on well however Keira wanted to get back on David. She wanted him to see that she had fallen in love with somebody. However David did not pay much attention on her and she asked Frank if he would like to meet her boss. Frank agreed and Keira led him to David and he was very pleased to meet him.

However Keira put some Kayene in Camille's food which she was allergic to and she started sneezing. She thought she had been served food that was not hers. She complained to the waitresses who told her that the food they had served did not have any Kayene. However Camille did start suspecting Keira because she knew that Keira did not like her very much.

Keira also found out that Frank was involved in a long term relationship with a lady who was also present at the function. They were involved in a fight as the lady found out that they had slept together. She had seen a hotel room number written on a card in Frank's Jacket. She then asked the receptionist who had booked that double bed room. She was told there was a man and a woman who had booked it. Miss Fisher then asked Frank whom she had slept with and was told that it was Keira. She was shocked and nearly broke off the relationship before they had a fight. However after they had a fight Miss Fisher decided to break up the relationship. In any case Frank was angry and they had had a vehement argument.

The children enjoyed themselves at the party and made some friends and played some games. David drove Isabelle home and Camille drove the children to their home. The following day David left for his work place as Camille who had completed her course left to take Lolla, Felistas and Felicitation to their school. They were all studying at the same school, Prince Edward primary school.

David was not happy with Keira at all and decided that he would tell her to take a break. He advertised for a temporary secretary whilst he decided to tell Keira to take a break. Miss Fisher attended the interviews but was not successful, however her friend Cathrine got the job. Keira took the break and Cathrine came to work for David.

Cathrine started her work well and she seemed to be very good friends Camille. Lolla was now in year 5 and enjoying her schooling. She got a gold award for being the best student in her class. She had passed her work with year 6 pass marks and all her teachers were impressed. Her father bought her a mobile phone and she liked it and thanked him with a kiss. Her mother just decided to decorate her room in a Barbie style. Lolla had a small party where she invited her friends to see her room they liked it and congratulated her.

David was now really looking forward to work and hoping that Keira would have changed when she comes back in four months time. Cathrine used to go and buy her manager some lunch and make sure that his patients were satisfied. The patients liked her very much and looked forward to meeting her on their appointments. The four months passed quickly and it was time for Cathrine to bid farewell to the psychiatrist. Before she left Camille proposed a farewell party for her at Hilton hotel.

The party started well and David and Camille were present as well as other people from the community where they work. People had lots of fun and David and Camille also booked a room where they slept and David drank some wine but Camille drank some orange juice. Months after the party Camille found out she was pregnant and then whilst David was at work she fell from the stairs and was found by felicitation. She was then rushed to the hospital and was served by nurses and doctors who were very efficient but was told that they could not serve the baby. Camille had woken up feeling very exhausted and not feeling much pain. However after some days she started having some back aches and stomach pains. She stayed in the hospital for a month and David used to bring her some flowers and sometimes fruits.

Keira was back at work and they had a lot of work to be done. Both of them were under pressure to finish the work and for David to also see his wife get better. They slept together and David regretted it but told Keira that he could not tell it to Camille as yet. He however decided to tell it to Isabelle and she disliked the news. She was very hurt but sympathised with both of them for the gross error that the David had made.

Camille returned home and there was a welcome home party for her everybody seemed to be satisfied with her condition except the husband. They were singing songs and dancing except for Camille. Lolla prepared most of the food and the rest of it was bought already prepared. Their guests had a good time and enjoyed the meal. David gave a speech dedicated to his darling wife and to his children.

David then talked to Isabelle that it was time to break the news of what had happened between him and Keira. Isabelle agreed and David went home to Camille and told her that he wanted her to be his secretary. Camille was surprised and asked him what had happened to Keira then she was told that they had slept together. She was shocked and started to cry. She shouted at him and asked him when this had happened. She asked to phone her mother and was told that she already knew. She could not believe it she mourned and felt betrayed even by her own mum.

She asked for a divorce from David and he requested for a separation first and Camille agreed. Camille found a job as a musician for Warner productions they were pleased to have her work with them because they knew her mum. Isabelle was very happy for her and congratulated her. David sent her a card which she appreciated she was now living in a hotel.

Lolla was now at Oxford university studying medicine and she liked her studies. She had gone to Bilton High school for her high school and had studied English ,Business Studies ,IT, Food Technology ,Chemistry ,Biology and Mathematics. Her two sisters were now at Bilton High school studying Law , English language , English Literature, Mathematics, sociology and Accounts. They were doing very well and were successful in their studies Felistas won a trophy for being the best student in Accounts and Law.

David hosted a party for Felistas and Felicitation was a bit jealous however she had her boyfriend called Peter. Peter attended the party for Felistas and they had fun with Felicitation. David bought Felistas a car and the mother bought her an apple lap top. She was very pleased with both and thanked them very much. She bought both of them thank you cards.

David and Camille talked and Camille said Keira had to be fired that was difficult for David to do. This was the only condition given by Camille so that she goes back to live with David. David agreed after some thought to fire Keira ,she cried a lot after being fired. There was nothing David could do because he wanted his wife back.

David employed someone called Orprah to work for him. She was a loving English lady just like David. However David and Camille were still mending their relationship. They took each other to Paris and to Megève where they did some skiing. They also did some shopping and Camille bought herself a purple coat and two beautiful dresses one white and blue and the other maroon.

David asked her what had happened for her to have a miscarriage . She told her that she had drank some more orange drink at home and felt dizzy and the next thing she was falling on the stairs .David just said he was going to engage some private investigators. David and Camille returned home in peace after they had left Camille country where they had had a beautiful vacation.

Lolla welcomed them back at the airport and hosted for them a welcome back party which she had arranged together with Orprah. The party was well attended and Felicitation gave her father the biggest gift. She gave him a motorbike which she and Peter had bought. At the same time Peter announced his engagement to Felicitation. David was happy for them and they started planning for their wedding. Felicitation was studying Law now at Sheffield Hallam university. Felistas was studying criminal law at Keele University.

Felicitation was planning her wedding with Peter and their family members. Peter's mum decided to make the dresses and attire for the men since she is a designer called Sam. Sam made very beautiful clothes for the bride and bridegroom's wedding crew. Felicitation and Peter liked them very much they bought some thank you cards to thank her and other people that would have helped with the wedding.

Isabelle decided to groom Felicitation for the wedding. She decided to introduce her to transform so that she may be looking as young as ever on the wedding day. She will also do her make up on the wedding day. Felistas was enjoying her criminal law at Keele University. She was getting firsts in her assignments and was in her second year.

Lolla completed her medical degree and was preparing for her graduation day. Meanwhile the day for Felicitation's wedding had almost arrived and Peter and her booked Ibis hotel in Sheffield. They bought the wedding rings and they liked them very much. One of them was 18 carat gold and the other one was a 24 carat gold.

On the wedding day guests came from everywhere in the world because of the famous grandmother. There were people from China, Mexico, Canada, America, Holland, Africa, Germany, France and England. Felicitation's make up was done by her grandmother and it was beautifully done, she also looked very young and beautiful. Her wedding dress was worth £2 500 and it had diamonds at the front and was white with a white veil.

At Ibis hotel there was a lot of feasting and jubilation and Lolla managed to announce her graduation party's date. Some people noted it down and there was great dancing and kissing with some couples. Lolla danced with Daniel some business tycoon and Felistas danced with Chris. The celebration went on well although Felistas slept with Chris Darrell that night. Chris Darrell was Police Officer working in Sheffield. He was successful in his own way and they both loved each other.

The wedding ended well and a few months afterwards Felistas was pregnant and was expecting a child. She was in her final year at University she had exams to prepare for and was reading hard for them. In the mean time Lolla was preparing for her graduation. On the other hand Felistas wanted to have a wedding with Chris Darrell. They started planning for their wedding and they hoped to invite many people.

Felistas wedding was prepared almost like Felicitation's wedding. However she had final year exams to write. Her wedding was well prepared and her wedding dress had diamonds decorations in the hands and with a horse shoe shape at the back decorated with diamonds and pearls. It cost her £2800 and most of the guests liked it. Sam designed it this time and people thought it was suitable for her and was gorgeous.

At Ibis hotel on the wedding day there were many guests who came from different places as before. Felistas liked the turn up at her wedding and so did Chris Darrell. Isabelle gave a speech and there was clapping after the speech. There were some people from Africa as well because some of their friends were missionaries in some parts of Africa.

There was some eating then dancing and people enjoyed themselves. Some kissed and some drank wine and there was great rejoicing. The reverend also gave a speech and both the bride and groom liked it. The wedding took place in a conference room in the Ibis hotel and the room was well decorated.

The wedding had gone well and David and Camille were thinking about finishing the arrangements of Lolla's graduation. Meanwhile Felistas had a baby girl called Zoey. Zoey was beautiful and calm and lovable people just liked to spend time with her. They had a quick baby welcome party and friends and family gathered from different places.

It was now time for Lolla's graduation and she bought her graduation gown from her university. She also bought herself a white blouse and some white shoes as well as a royal blue ladies gear. The graduation was on the 22nd of December 2009. It was enjoyable and she made friends with many people.

She had a graduation party hosted by David and Camille. She invited her newly found boyfriend Thomas and they kissed and danced. David gave a speech and Thomas called for their attention and announced their engagement. David and Camille promised them an engagement party in a month's time.

Meanwhile the investigations for the mother's miscarriage started and a police officer called Darrel was engaged. He began investigating the orange drink where it was bought and who went to buy it? Darrel discovered that Camille and Keira were not very good friends and it was Keira who had gone to buy the drinks. She was his main suspect and the family wanted to know how she had poisoned them or whatever she had done to them. Darrel thought she may have injected something from the top of the orange drink.

David was quite satisfied with the investigation and paid Darrel £10 000. However Camille and David were horrified that Keira could dislike her to that extent. Darrel also asked if there was any other person who had drank the juice but found out there wasn't any.

It was time for Lolla's engagement party David and Camille were well prepared for a party for them. They invited police officers and graduates and the party was enjoyable. Lolla bought a dress designed by C&A which was beautiful and shoes designed by Louis Vuitton.

Her engagement was enjoyable and her engagement ring was worth £5000 .She liked her sapphire ring. Everything went almost as planned and they received many gifts. Zoey was now crawling and Isabelle played with her for a while. There was news that David's mother was now seriously ill and was about to die. David and Camille had to rush to the hospital in Bristol where David's mother was hospitalised.

When they arrived she could still breath and could still talk and they greeted her. They shared some jokes although she had difficulty in talking. David was in tears as he found out his mother was in serious pain. It was the visiting hour so the nurses were out and the family was there with Jessy David's mother . There were all a bit worried about the care she was getting there therefore they decided to transfer her to the Royal Hallamshire Hospital in Sheffield.

She was taken there by train and she did not complain at all about the journey. At the Hallamshire hospital they were received warmly and they were all happy with the reception. David and Camille decided she could stay there and they could visit her every visiting hour.

The grand children also got to see their grand mother and they were just bidding farewell to her though they were hopeful she could survive. Every one of them brought her flowers and fruits. There was a television in Jessy's room when they were tired of stories they watched the television.

Jessy became worse and she died. It was terrible because she had a heart failure. Her family started mourning her as she was in the hospital .There was post mortem done on her and they believed it was a natural death. The family was satisfied and they arranged for her burial she was 70 years old .

The burial took place at Hollinsend cemetery ,there was a reverend from Elim church and other church members. The burial was quiet and everything went on well. People returned to their homes from all over England happy and satisfied. They were all talking about Jessy's former good works.

It was now time to put the stone on Jessy's grave. They all made contributions to Jessy's tomb stone and they wrote a lovely epitaph. There a was also a memorial two months afterwards. It was well attended and people were happy to be seeing each other once again. There was a bit of preaching at the memorial and their missionary friends were also present. People parted after they had had some good time together and the tomb stone was well covered with flowers and David had given a speech crying. The grandchildren were sad that they never really knew their grand mother.

Everyone was settling down after the memorial and David and Camille went back to their work places .David worked well with Oprah until she decided that it was time to get married .She married a man called Alec and they had a happy wedding and marriage. Oprah and Alec moved to Edinburg and she stopped working for David .Camille started working for him part time as there were unprepared for the emergency move.

Camille thought of quitting her Warner productions job temporarily and her managers were very disappointed. However they agreed to let her go for five months. Camille and David had great time working together and the huge work load they had was quickly cleared. The five months quickly passed by and Camille went back to her Warner productions job. David hired another secretary on a two year contract her name was Dawn.

Dawn and David worked well together although Dawn was sexy and only 21 years old. She looked young and seductive. Dawn and Camille were not the best of friends but could tolerate each other. However Lolla and Felicitation liked her and kept their mother reassured that all was well. Felistas shared the same sentiments as her mother and was possessive of her father.

Felistas` daughter, Zoey was now at pre school and enjoying her pre school .She was not as intelligent as her mother but she was good at school she tried her best. When she got to primary school she got a bronze award and her mother bought her a congratulations card and a mobile phone.

Zoey seemed to be doing very well with fashion designing at secondary school. She designed some prom clothes for herself and her friends Rachel and Portia. They were both very pleased with the clothes that had been designed and they tried to pay her some money for the designs and she refused.

Zoey and Rachel were very good friends they were both asked out by two different young men to the prom. Their names were Alan and Michael and the former asked Zoey out and the latter asked Rachel out. Zoey and Alan were ready for the prom night and they left for Novotel hotel in a limousine. It was a beautiful pink limousine and there was some good romantic music playing. They were kissing all the way and taking short breaks.

They got to Novotel Hotel and got some good reception from waiters and waitresses .Young men and young women and girls were at the prom and were helping themselves to drinks . There was a buffet and they chose what they liked and they enjoyed their meals. There was also some dancing and dancing couples enjoyed every step they took. It was now time to go home they were exhausted and it was almost midnight.

They went back in the limousine and they were kissing on the way as well as hugging. When they arrived to Zoey`s home Felistas was still awake she was anxious to hear about the prom. Zoey had lots to say her mother was a bit tired to listen to the whole story that night.

Rachel and Michael had had a good time together however they had slept together at the hotel. Rachel became pregnant and could not continue to university. Her parents were a bit disappointed in her and were hoping she has the baby and proceed to university. Zoey's parents could not believe what happened to Rachel.

David and Dawn started going out and they were doing it in private. They were seeing each other at hotels and restaurants. People who saw them together admired them thinking they were a married couple. Felicitation and Lolla got to know about it and told it to Felistas who quickly passed the message to her mother. Their mother was shocked to hear such news and told her husband that it had to end. She made sure she told her if he did not do anything about it. Her mother asked Felistas if the relationship had been broken. She knew very little about the action her daddy had taken to break the relationship.

Camille decided to talk to David about the relationship. David was very unhappy and told her that he could not break it up. Camille told him that she was packing her bags and leaving. David tried to beg her not to leave but she left. They had a little fight before she left.

David and Dawn decided to marry however Lolla who got to learn about the marriage from Dawn's friend Lois, she then decided to attend. She arrived just in time for the wedding vows and presented her parents' marriage certificate as she objected.

She was told that no child can be allowed to object to her parent's marriage. Then the mother appeared, she looked furious and said Lois had told her of this wedding. Therefore the wedding was called off. However David was ashamed of himself and decided to buy Camille flowers and book her another flight to Paris and to Valmorel for skiing.

Camille agreed and apologised for moving out then David admitted that the major blame was his. In Paris Camille did some shopping she went to Sephora and bought some make up. Afterwards she decided to go back again for some perfume. She bought some Chanel and was done free make up.

They visited Versailles and Notre Dame and the Eiffel tower. They then travelled around Paris in a boat along the river La Seine. Everything seemed to be going on well and the skiing at Valmorel was Fabulous.

David and Camille returned home hoping to have a great time. However their grand daughter Zoey was in hospital because she had however had a car accident. She broke a rib and was recovering in Jessop wing at Sheffield teaching hospitals, at Northern General.

Zoey was recovering well her family bought her flowers and fruits and teddies. Her room looked beautiful. She received some physiotherapy and started walking on crutches. She found a friend in the hospital called Audrey. Alan also visited her and helped her to take some walking therapy. Alan was now a physiotherapist, he enjoyed spending time with Zoey. Zoey had already commenced her studies at university . She was specialising in pharmacy.

Lolla had twin babies with Thomas they were beautiful babies called Sarah and Sophia. Sarah and Sophia grew up to be lovely children they were a few years younger than Felistas and Felicitation`s children. Felistas had two more children called Graem and Getrude. Felicitation had two children called Jacob and Jubilee.

CHAPTER 3

Lolla and Thomas decided to have a wedding. They bought 18 carats rings and Lolla bought a wedding dress designed by C&A and it cost £3,500. It had diamonds at the front and at the back. It was also lacy in the sleeves. There were planning a big wedding . Invites were sent to a thousand or so people that were from all over the world. The brides maids clothes were made buy Sam she made beautiful straight plain clothes. The had to buy themselves some royal blue suits.

The Wedding was going to take place at the London Ritz hotel. Thomas Black was a rich member of parliament who could sponsor the large part of the wedding with a bit of help. The wedding day arrived and People found their way to the London Ritz hotel except for the bridal team and the bride and groom there were in four different limousines. Everybody travelled safely to the wedding and they all were thrilled by their reception at the London Ritz hotel.

The waiters and waitresses were very active serving people and people were selecting their seats. The day`s menu was being served to individual guests at their tables . They had different type of dishes all of them delicious. Most of the guests had a great time, they listened to speeches from David, Camille, Felistas and Felicitation .

They was also some dancing and kissing as people danced. They was time for giving gifts and David gave them a house that Camille and him had bought for them. Their guests gave them small gifts and Zoey was now well and at the party with Alan. They danced and had a great time and Alan announced their engagement and gave Zoey a lovely big diamond ring.

Jacob came with his girlfriend and so did Graem. Sarah and Sophia found their partners at the party. Sarah was asked out by Jean and Sophia by Mathew. They danced all sorts of styles and Sophia and Mathew enjoyed the waltz dance. Some more announcements were made Getrude and Jubilee also found partners at the end of the party. Guests returned to their homes happily and safely but the bridal team except for the bride and groom returned in the limousines. The bride and groom remained in the London Ritz Hotel in preparation for their honey moon.

They booked a double bed and lounge suite for £5000 a night and they had all their meals served in their double bed and lounge suite. They were having a great time kissing and making love and sometimes watching programmes on the satellite TV. Lolla's favourite programme was X factor and Thomas's favourite was friends. They had to cut their honey moon short because Sarah had moved in with Jean. They had found a flat somewhere in Westfield in Sheffield where they were renting.

Lolla and Thomas hired a big vehicle to take them back to Sheffield. When they got there Sophia quickly explained what she knew about what happened for her to move out. She just told them that Jean came to their house and just parked his car in the car park. Afterwards Sarah and him were talking outside and sooner or later there was some packing done by Sarah. Since the parents had already been given the address for the flat where Sarah and Jean had moved into they decided to drive there.

When they got there Sarah and Jean were still in bed so that they had to wait for a long while before the door was opened for them. The door was opened and Thomas started shouting, he asked why they had decided to move in to the flat when they were still on their honey moon. Jean stammered and reassured Thomas that he loved his daughter that's why he decided to move in quickly with her. The mother just asked if Jean's parents knew. Jean said that they did not then Lolla decided to let the parents know.

The Jean parents who were French decided to come quickly since they were still in the country. They were Mr and Mrs Buvez they liked their son Jean very much and they kind of spoiled him. They apparently had given him money to pay for deposit and first months' rent. Thomas and Lolla expressed how disappointed they had become but resolved to settle issues. The communication between them went on well. They all agreed to leave them in peace for a trial period and Jean promised to marry Sarah in the five coming months.

The parents left and Jean and Sarah were left packing their flat. They played some music by the Beatles. They had some fun and were happy that they had seen all their parents. They kissed and celebrated their new home and after a few months Sarah was pregnant and told Jean about the news. Jean brought her an engagement ring then after that they decided to have an engagement party.

Sarah admired her sapphire ring, she thought it was very beautiful, it also two tiny diamonds on the sides. There was great jubilation at the party and Mr and Mrs Buvez who had gone back to France came back for the engagement party. Sarah and Jean announced their wedding dates as invited guests danced along. They ate and drank in one of the dining rooms at Novotel hotel. There was also some kissing as invited guests danced to music by Robbin Williams.

Jacob and Jubilee were there with their partners. Jubilee got to meet her mother-in-law to be and her name was Maureen. Maureen lived in America and had a PHD in religion. She was a gentle lady and very lovable.

CHAPTER 4

Sarah and Jean had Sarah's gown designed and made in France. The cost of the gown was £10 000 and they both liked it. Their wedding rings were 48 carats of gold each. Sarah and Jean were still leaving in the flat where they first moved to and they were paying rent of £1 200 per month. They had also bought a vehicle and it was a Renault Megane. It was a truly beautiful vehicle and a large part of the family could fit in it. They bought the vehicle in England at one of the garages.

The wedding was to take place at the London Ritz hotel on a nice sunny day because it was summer. The day arrived and two pink and blue limousines had been hired for the wedding. The bride and groom were in one and the bridal team was in another. All the other guests used their own transport and there was also a hired bus. The cost of the limousines and the bus for the whole day was £100 000.

It was a lovely day and there were no mishaps or accidents for the press to publish. Everything went on smoothly and as planned and there was dancing and kissing as people were dancing. Sophia and Mathew announced their engagement and there was a toast for them and to the newly married couple. Zoey and Alan announced their wedding and there was another toast for them. The whole wedding cost £500 000 and Thomas thought it was a bit cheaper for them. His and Lolla's had cost £1 000 000.

Graem, Getrude, Jacob and Jubilee had their dancing partners there with them. Getrude was dancing with Michael and Graem was dancing with Beauty. Jacob and Merisa were also dancing partners as well as Jubilee and Albert. They changed partners ever so often. They danced until midnight and there were fireworks outside. Gifts were given and they got a jet as their wedding present from Lolla and Thomas, other people gave them small presents including the Buvez since they are paying rent for them.

It was time for people to return to their homes and the bridal team returned to the airport they were accompanied by Mr and Mrs Buvez in their Citroën xsara. Everybody arrived home safely and happily.

When they arrived at the midlands airport they got into a taxi and headed home. The following day they decided to make some booking for the Paris and to La Rosière. At La Rosière they did helicopter skiing and Sarah and Jean enjoyed it very much. Sarah liked the Eiffel tower and she got into one of the lifts that took her up stairs to the top of the Eiffel tower. She could see the whole of Paris and admired it.

Zoey and Alan started preparing for their wedding and they booked the Hilton Hotel. Zoey's wedding gown was made by Sam, Peter's mother for she now had a big departmental store called Agape. She had it designed and made for £3 200.

Their rings were 18 carats and they invited their friends from all over the United Kingdom and United States of America. The brides maids clothes were bought from Gap and the men were asked to buy their own attire from the same shop.

The wedding day arrived and there was a white limousine hired for the bride and groom and the rest of the bridal team had to use private vehicles. They got to the Hilton at 18:45 and the wedding was starting at 19:15 so that they waited for some minutes. They were talking stories as they waited. When the wedding started there was great jubilation.

There was dancing and kissing guests also drank beer and other soft drinks and some got drunk. Felistas and Chris Darrell gave speeches and people clapped hands. Guests returned to their homes after midnight and the limousine that the bride and groom were in was involved in a car accident. It hit three other vehicles and the driver of the limousine died on the spot. Alan tried giving him some assistance before he died as they waited for more help but he was terribly injured such that he could not be rescued.

He however managed to save Zoey and then came the fire brigade and ambulance then the police. The police took some statements from the survivors. There were all rushed to the hospital and their visitors visited them there. Alan was not seriously injured so that he got out of the hospital just after a day of being there.

Zoey was in a bad state she could not walk, but doctors performed a surgery on her and after four months she could walk. Alan helped her to do some exercises at home. They could not go on their honey moon because of that.

They had many visitors who came from all over the world to see Zoey. She was recovering fast. They bought her flowers and get well soon cards. Zoey was in this state for two years and she used to go to the outpatient department for some check up. Alan continued to help her with some Physiotherapy exercises.

The exercises went on fine and Zoey seemed to have been motivated to get better more quickly. She was getting some antibiotics and the exercise seemed to help relieve her of the pain. Zoey woke up one Monday morning and just felt the pain had gone. However she became an out patient of East glade NHS centre so that her brains may be checked.

Her brains were scanned and there was a slight damage which could be rectified by taking medicine. She had to take medicine everyday and after a year of taking the medicine they decided everything was fine. She was back to her normal self.

CHAPTER 5

David had to bid farewell to Dawn after she had completed her contract. She had become hard working and David still liked her a little unlike before . There just bid farewell to each other. David had to hold interviews for the secretarial post .Different candidates sent their CVs there was Gabriella ,Sean, Maria and Katie.

Gabriella had done her GCSE “A” Levels and had a diploma in secretarial. She had had experience at another surgery. She was well groomed young lady who had done etiquette as an extra curricular activity at school.

Sean had done his GCSE “A” Levels and also had a diploma in secretarial as well as a diploma in psychiatry . He had worked in a surgery before for seven years. David thought he a was the likely candidate.

Maria had done her GCSE “A” Levels and also had a diploma in secretarial. She had done some modelling and grooming at some modelling school. She was also fluent in French and Spanish.

David decided to recruit both Sean and Maria ,Sean as his assistant and Maria as the secretary because Katie only had done her GCSE “A” Level and had obtained eleven points. Maria was a hard working secretary and she worked well with both Sean and David. She later fell in love with Sean and they worked even harder together. David got to know one day when he found them kissing. He was a bit surprised but accepted that it happens since he had been taking some afternoons of work to do some private business.

Sophia and Mathew had their engagement party at Ibis Hotel and their guests who had come from all over the world enjoyed it. They announced the date of their wedding which was the 31 of December 2011. They started preparing for their wedding Sophia had received a diamond ring for her engagement.

For her wedding she had clothes designed by T K Maxx .The bridal team also got their clothes from there and from Kaleidoscope. The ladies had beautiful purple dresses and the gentlemen and lovely long purple jackets and trousers. They liked their trousers and the groom was dressed in a purple shirt and black tunic.

Sophia and Mathew worked together as hotel managers and their hotel was called Cayfrail Hotel. Therefore they had their wedding in Cayfrail Hotel, it was a three star hotel. There was thorough preparation for the wedding, all the employees were busy cleaning up and others preparing the menu. It was a hectic time for all of them. They bought rings for 48 Carats of gold and the Sophia's ring had flowers on it , Mathew's had no design on it.

Mathew and Sophia's wedding day arrived they had booked four limousines for the wedding. Some people came from Bristol , Milton Keynes, London ,Leeds ,New Castle and America as well as France. Cayfrail Hotel looked beautiful on that day and Mathew and Sophia could not believe its beauty.

The bridal team got to the hotel in the limousines just like the bride and groom. The welcome was great and Mathew and Sophia liked it very much. Lolla and Thomas gave speeches and invited guests clapped their hands. There was great joy and people danced and rejoiced.

There was also some kissing as people danced there were fire works outside. Some people booked rooms and made love in the rooms such as Thomas and Lolla and Getrude and Michael. Getrude and Michael had announced their engagement before sleeping together.

The wedding finished well and they got a helicopter for their wedding present from Lolla and Thomas. Mathew's parents gave them a house,they lived in America and the house they gave them was in Mosborough in Sheffield. Other people gave small presents.

Guests left the wedding party before twelve midnight .The bride and groom slept at the hotel in a double bed lounge suite. The bridal team returned to their homes in the limousines and they played music in it. The bride and groom left the following day for their honey moon in America in New York. They did their shopping at Yves Saint Lauren.

They stayed in the Sheraton Hotel and they enjoyed their stay. They kissed and made love and when they left after a month Sophia thought she was pregnant. She went to the doctor's and it was confirmed that she was pregnant and the child's sex was to be kept a secret.

Lolla and Thomas welcomed them back at the airport. They got back home and there was a welcome home party. Friends from all over England were there and there was great jubilation. Invited guests sang and danced and kissed as they danced . This was also combined with the house warming party in the end.

The party ended well and people returned to their homes safely. Everything had gone as planned. Sophia ,after nine months of pregnancy gave birth to a baby boy called Benjamin. People had a baby welcome party and the baby received many presents. Sophia had to take a leave from work even though it was their own hotel.

David , Sean and Maria were working well together and Camille was so much in love with her husband .They spent some evenings together going to the Chinese restaurants to eat. Sometimes they had their evening meals at Cayfrail Hotel for a special offer.

Sean and Maria got engaged and they invited David and Camille to the engagement party. The engagement party was being held at Cayfrail Hotel and the party was great speeches were given and people danced these two were Christians so they played some Hosanna music.

They were served the day`s menu by waiters and waitresses. It was well prepared and guests enjoyed the meal. It was one big meal except for those with allergies .The ones with allergies were allowed to order separate meals.

David and Camille gave them a lounge suit for the new house they had bought. The others also gave reasonably big presents. There was dancing and singing and Peter was found kissing Felistas by Felicitation. Felicitation was furious and she asked Peter why there were kissing intimately. She also said that they must have been gate crushing at the party . They denied it and said they were invited by Sean late and they were not kissing intimately according to them.

Felicitation requested for a divorce , Peter was shocked but did nothing to stop her. Felicitation quickly left the party and went home to pack her bags to move in with Camille and David. The divorce proceedings went on well and as fast as possible. Jacob and Jubilee were very disappointed and they wished their parents could reconcile.

The party had ended terribly Felistas and Chris Darell had a nasty quarrel and they went to their home separately. When they got home Zoey , Graem and Getrude were waiting for them to try and reconcile them. Felistas and Chris Darrell worked out things and they went for a holiday in the London Ritz Hotel.

They booked a double bed room for £2 500 per night and they liked the service they got. They made love and kissed and communicated about things they could not communicate about. They used to receive phone calls from their immediate family members.

They left the hotel after ten days and there was great jubilation at their home as their children were happy to see them back. Zoey, Graem and Getrude bought them welcome home cards. The parents were happy to see their children again after the nasty event at Sean and Maria`s engagement and the reconciliation period. The children all went back to their homes and left the parents alone to relax.

Felistas and Chris Darrell had to go back to work as police officers on duty. They worked at the same Sheffield police station. Chris Darrell was called out on patrol and there was an accident on M1 which he had to attend to. It was hectic nobody had died but the victims had been seriously injured.

Felistas had to go and help and take statements there were two buses that had collided. Everybody was rushed to the Northern general hospital. Apparently they all survived because they were receiving extra care all were in the accident and emergency unit.

When they finished their job Felistas and Chris Darell were exhausted and they just went straight to bed. David had everything back as normal at work but was sorry for what had happened at Sean and Maria's engagement. Sean and Maria settled back well at work.

Sophia and Mathew were now on separation, after Mathew had been found by Sophia sleeping with another woman called Connie. This had not gone well for the two of them so they had always been quarrels and sometimes fights so that Sophia decided to divorce Mathew.

Their divorce took a long time because there was no other witness of the event that had happened. Whenever they met they either quarrelled or fought. Their separation had gone so bad when the divorce went through that it was affecting both of them.

Felicitation and Peter started seeing each other again. Their friendship was really good, they used to go to watch movies together. They went and watched the colour purple together and they both were in tears after watching it. Then they watched Mamma Mia on DVD. After watching these they decided they had to reconcile but not now may be a bit later.

Sean and Maria were getting some help from church about what had happened at their engagement. They had thought of calling off the wedding which they had in mind. The reverend convinced them to go ahead. They then decided to give it some thought.

Thomas started seeing another lady who worked as his secretary. Her name was Leona and she was a famous model. Thomas kept their relationship a secret for a year and nobody believed it when it came out in the open. It had been exposed by Sophia and Sarah had heard a bit about it but did not believe it. Lolla was shocked when it all came out in the open but decided to forgive him.

Thomas and Leona broke up their relationship and Lolla and him decided to take a holiday. This was March 2012 and they thought of going to Théoule sur

mer. There were told that these are suitable for summer holidays. They then decided to go there in June 2012. When June had arrived they packed their bags and flew to Théoule sur mer . Their flight was enjoyable and they thought Théoule sur mer was the best destination for a couple like them.

Felicitations and Peter decided to have a small wedding in church, in the church of England. The wedding went on well and Jacob and Jubilee gave them big presents. The other people gave them small presents. Camille and David received Lolla and Thomas from their holiday. They were enjoying family activities whilst there were on their holiday.

Graem and Beauty had their engagement and engagement party. The party was enjoyable and the whole family was present. Invited guests came from all over the United Kingdom , America and France. Guests danced and there were people of all races.

There was some kissing amongst some couples as people danced. Jubilee and Albert announced their engagement and Albert's mother , Maureen was also present . Graem and Beauty announced the date for their wedding.

Chris Darrell's father was present and he danced with Maureen , Albert's mother. His name was Ronald , Ronald danced well with Maureen. Maureen was a divorcee but Ronald was married to Susan. Susan was a bit anxious and unwell although she was present at the party. Maureen and Ronald kissed and Susan saw them kissing. She was heart broken and she became more unwell and had to be rushed to the hospital by Ronald.

They rushed to the Cardiac unit and Susan was examined by Cardiac specialists in the adults ward. They said she had had a cardiac failure, after their help and support she was a lot better in four days time. She had come all the way from Bromley. She was visited by many visitors from England and they brought her flowers and cards. She decided to forgive her husband.

Maureen was accompanied by Jacob and Jubilee to the airport she got into Air Luftansa .She arrived in America safely and early and got a Taxi to Hawaii. She got home safe and sound but after she had used £5 000 on transport only.

Sean and Maria then decided to have their wedding in September 2012. They bought two 24 carats of gold rings. They liked them very much because they had beautiful designs. Maria's had hearts on it and Sean's had balls on it. The wedding gown was designed by T. K. Maxx.

It cost £3 000 and it was white and had jewellery at the front top. She bought her shoes from Debenhams and they were white pointed high heeled shoes. Sean and Maria were happy about their marriage arrangements and they wanted to book at Hilton hotel for their wedding. They managed to book for £1000 a small room. They invited guests from England only and the guests found their own way to the hotel.

The wedding was well attended. Camille and David's family members also were present. There had a buffet where there had self service. Couples danced together and other people selected their dancing partners. Some speeches were given and David and Camille gave speeches.

Graem and Beauty had had a quarrel that morning before attending the wedding. They did not want to dance with each other but they just danced a little and exchanged partners with Jacob and Merisa. Graem and Merisa danced together and Jacob and Beauty danced together. Jacob and Beauty ended up kissing and Merisa saw it. She was disappointed and shouted at them both and left the party. Before she left Graem tried to follow her, she sent him back saying they had to deal with their own problems by themselves.

Jacob then followed Merisa home. They got home and they shouted at each other and Merisa said that was the end. She packed her clothes into her bags and decided to leave. It was a warm September day and it was not even raining. Merisa drove off to a friend's house in Wakefield his name was Lionel.

Lionel welcomed Merisa to his home and advised her to file for divorce. She agreed and they became closer friends through the tough times that Merisa was going through. Sometimes Jacob used to shout at them at Lionel's doorstep until he was given a restraining order from coming to their house.

Their divorce came through after 6 months and Lionel and Merisa celebrated. It was good news to them that perhaps they could finally go out. Sean and Maria's wedding ended up well they received some good presents that they liked such as a big Dell computer and a wide screen Samsung television.

Lionel and Merisa had a private engagement which they both appreciated. They had a baby girl called Emily. She was a beautiful baby girl and soon or later she had a brother called Tom. They seemed to be happy as they were and were not bothered about having a wedding.

Jacob found another woman her name was Margret and they took each other out to cinemas and dated each other for two years. It was in 2014 that they decided to engage and marry. All along they were waiting for Jacob to come to full terms with what had happened to him.

Jacob and Margret wedded in January 2014 their wedding took place at Cayfrail Hotel. They invited people from all over the world and they enjoyed the menu served by the waiters and waitresses. Margret wore a wedding gown designed by Francesca and she had a diamond ring which she received at her engagement. Her wedding ring also had diamonds on it and was 48 carats of gold.

Her wedding was to place on a rainy day and four limousines were hired for the bridal team and the bride and groom. Felicitation was now a successful solicitor and had a firm called Felic and Fosters. She sponsored part of the wedding together with Margret who worked for Queen Elizabeth.

The wedding was fabulous everything went on well and there were no mishaps. There were no accidents either guests listened to the speeches by different spokespersons and presenters. It was an enjoyable wedding all the guests liked it. They danced and had some fun, Camille and David danced together as well as Lolla and Thomas. Every other couple danced together and there was great entertainment.

Lolla and Thomas returned to their homes happily after the party had ended. The following day Leona phoned Thomas and asked to meet him. He agreed and they met at a bridge somewhere. They talked and reconciled because Leona said she was pregnant with his child. Thomas could not believe it at first but when Leona had reminded him of the date when she fell pregnant that they were still together he then agreed that it was his.

Thomas broke the news to Lolla and she was very disturbed by it. After two days she agreed to look after the baby after it has been born. When Leona had the news she was extremely disturbed she did not want to let go of her daughter after she had been born. She started thinking of plans of how she could spend time with her. She then asked Thomas for permission to visit her daughter at least four times a week. Thomas asked David for advice and he told him to allow her to see her daughter only once a week after she had been born. The baby was born and she was a girl and Lolla went to fetch her from her mother. The mother told her that she was allowed by Thomas to visit her at least once a week. Lolla said she had to start with that then after some time once a month then after a year once a year and after some time she would not be allowed visits.

Leona was very thankful and was happy that her daughter will grow up knowing her. She called her Mary Anne she was a very beautiful girl. Lolla and Thomas were happy to have a baby within the family. Thomas and Leona continued seeing each other only on the days that Leona came to see her daughter. Lolla had to ask Thomas to stop seeing her. Thomas stopped seeing her and Leona had to start seeing her daughter once a year. Jubilee and Albert decided to have their wedding in America . They went to Hawaii to join Albert's mother Maureen.

They booked American airways and flew to Hawaii. When they got to Hawaii airport Maureen was waiting for them to welcome them. They got into her car and she drove them to her home which was twenty minutes away. They talked stories on their way and there were happy to be shown around the area which they travelled past.

They got to Maureen's home it was a beautiful home near a river. The home was a mansion and Jubilee could not believe it .Albert then explained that quite a number of the homes in the United States of America are mansions. Jubilee was impressed and she decided to come and sing some of her songs there and perhaps built her own mansion with the assistance of Albert who was an architect.

The following day Albert and Jubilee were introduced to some of Maureen's friends and there was Karen and Melisa. The friends were overjoyed to meet them and were happy to assist with the wedding. They booked a church where the wedding was to take place. Karen made the wedding gown for Jubilee and it was beautiful and people admired it . It had Jewellery and flowers all over especially on the tail. They bought 48 carats of gold rings. Karen made the dress for a £1000.

The day of the wedding arrived and people came from all over the world especially from the United States of America and from England. Lolla and Thomas attended the wedding as well as Felicitation and Peter and Sophia. There were joined in holy matrimony and no one could speak against their marriage. Camille and David were also present and they brought with them money about £10 000 to give as a gift.

There was dancing and jubilation at the wedding after eating food prepared by Sophia. The food was delicious and tasty really good for such a wedding. It was a good wedding and all the guests were entertained. The guests had come from the Bible school where Maureen taught and from the church.

The wedding finished well and they had to go back to England . Jubilee and Albert flew back by Luftansa airways. When they got home Isabelle was sick and in the Royal Hallamshire hospital. Camille and David had to visit them and there were afraid she was going to die. Lolla tried her best to give some medical care to her grandmother.

CHAPTER 6

All her other grandchildren visited her as well and they brought her flowers and fruits she was now a 100 years old. They were now preparing for her burial , they contributed money for her casket on top of her insurance. She was going to be buried at Hollinsend cemetery . They you to share stories for the six months after she had turned a 100 years that she was alive.

She died early in the morning on Sunday morning when her family was there except for Lolla. When Lolla had the news she was very sad and she regretted having missed seeing her die. She thought perhaps she would have tried to save her. People came from all over the world for Isabel's burial . She was buried peacefully and her will was read out . She gave her Bella Vue company to her daughter Camille and son –in- law David for being there for her when she needed them. The rest of the property was to be divided by Camille to her grandchildren. Lolla got the house and Felistas got her goods and Felicitation got her three or four cars.

There was a memorial held for Isabel a year after she had been buried and people came from all over the world once again. Some people cried at the memorial and others gave them tissues to wipe their tears. People talked and parted after some good communication.

Camille left Warner productions and she had a Farewell party . She was going to manage Bella Vue and to start Uptooy Best singing company. The farewell party was held in London at one of the Warner productions' halls. It was enjoyable and her family members and friends were present as well as people from work. People drank wine and soft drinks and there was great rejoicing .

There was dancing and kissing amongst some dancing couples . People gave her farewell presents and gave speeches. Some couples were reunited like Tracy and Tim from Warner productions. The farewell party ended well and Camille drove to her home happily.

David and Sean worked well and Maria had a baby boy called Lucas. He was a charming baby and people liked him and he smiled a lot. Sean loved his son and he thought he was such a darling and a good looking baby. Sean was now furthering his studies in psychiatry and he now wanted to be a psychiatrist like David. David encouraged him and told him that after he has completed his course he can work with him as his partner. He started taking off days so that he could concentrate on his studies. David still managed without him the days he was not at work.

Sean continued with his studies for a year and passed with a first class where he studied at Royal Hallamshire hospital. He then became David's partner at work and they had a party to celebrate their new partnership. They invited family members and friends from around the world. The party was to take place at Cayfrail Hotel and they combined it with Camille's launching of her Uptoo Best Company. This was a big event and was enjoyable and speeches were given and people were served their menu which was assorted. Those with allergies to different food stuffs were able to choose something better.

People danced and some couples kissed and there was great excitement. Leona was present and had spent most of the time with her daughter Mary Anne. Thomas sometimes took a glimpse of Leona. He then asked her for a dance they danced but what they planned as they danced would not have pleased Lolla if she had heard it.

They planned to let her see Mary Anne twice a week so that they could spend some time together. They asked David to persuade Lolla to agree for them to meet. Since it came from David, Lolla agreed. The party ended well and they received many gifts from their guests.

Jubilee and Albert started saving for a trip and stay in America. They started having concerts which were entertaining and they raised £1000 000. They sang the following original songs: "Babe I am missing you", "Who do you think you are?", "I love you", "Kissing you", "Come dance with me", "Beloved you are mine", "Babe come live with me".

Jubilee and Albert flew by Luftansa Airways they flew to Hawaii for 9 hours and they were sleeping on the way since they had taken the evening flight. They got to Hawaii in the afternoon. Their flight had been relaxing and Maureen was waiting for them at the airport. She had come by taxi so that they also went back by taxi. They slept at Maureen's for a night and they moved to New York where they were to perform on stage launching an album with "I love you", "Kissing you", "Come dance with me", "Beloved you are mine", "Babe come live with me", "Who do you think you are?", "Babe I am missing you."

Their fans liked the music and they became popular and very well known. They managed to buy a house in New York where most of their fans were. The house was big and adorable and most people wished they could afford a house like that. Even though Albert was still an architect he now also sang with Jubilee. Their careers were successful and they were making lots of money. Maureen admired them and she found a lover at one of their concerts his name was Abraham.

Abraham's favourite song was "I love you", they danced to it several times amongst the crowd and when they were only the two of them. Abraham wore tuxedos and drove big cars, he was a business man. He specialised in the motor industry and his business was flourishing. Maureen and Abraham used to meet everyday in the evenings. They used to attend the same church together and they used to go to the cinema and to the music concerts together.

Felicitation was successful as a solicitor she had to defend somebody in court who was accused of murder. Meanwhile Jubilee and Albert had to come back to England to see their mother and mother-in-law defending somebody in court one of the largest murder cases in England. Felicitation was certain that the lady was innocent but they accused her of murdering her own children in a house fire.

Felicitation was successful in defending her after she had gathered some evidence to show that she was innocent and that the fire must have been caused in an accident. The person who had caused the accident had actually flown away to Africa in an attempt to escape his fate.

Felicitation had won the case and the lady was released from prison but she was lonely and had to go through some therapy. David and Sean had to rehabilitate her and they went through a lot of hard work to set things right in her life and her mind.

They managed to have Felicitation also set her free from the accusations that she wanted to burn the house only so that she could get a bigger one. Darrel also helped, the private investigator so that she may be cleared of the accusations. David and some social worker as well as Sean managed to get her a new home. The story was in the news papers almost on a daily basis.

David and Sean were being successful in their business and decided to take a holiday with their partners. Their medical centre was closed for two weeks, and Camille and Maria were happy to accompany them for the two weeks. They decided to go to Nice for their holiday.

In Nice everything was expensive but they had made much profit to cover their expenses. They booked rooms in a hotel in Nice and they had great fun making love to their partners. The excursion was enjoyable and when they returned home they had relaxed enough and were ready for work. They also had a lot of work to do.

Leona came back to see Mary Anne and at the same time she accidentally met Thomas. Their relationship was revived there and then as Leona was a tall blonde lady who was sexy. She was seductive and was just Thomas' kind of lady. They went out for a meal at Ibis hotel and they had great fun talking together. They decided to move in together and it was hasty and unplanned. When Lolla heard about the news she was shocked and appalled at the same time. She was not given an address as to where they had gone to live but she thought of looking for them asking whoever she could about their whereabouts.

She finally was contacted by one of their neighbours who had always followed their love affair in the newspapers. She gave them their full address but asked not to be identified especially to them. Lolla was very thankful and she decided to take a trip there, the address was a Chesterfield address and she knew her way around Chesterfield. When she got to the place she was more than surprised by the greatness of the house. It was huge and outstanding she knew her husband had bought it for her. She knew Leona alone could not afford it and she became very angry before she got into the house.

When she knocked at the door she was answered by Thomas and he got the surprise of his life. Then he asked her what she was doing there and he told her the house was meant to be a surprise for her. She quickly asked him where Leona was and he said she did not stay there. Then Thomas showed her the title deeds there were in her name. Lolla could not believe her eyes and she kissed him and decided to stay there for the night.

Thomas said that he spent the nights there as it would be too late for him to go home as the house was being built. They both apologised to each other for not spending enough time together. Lolla quickly forgave him so she knew that he might have been seeing Leona at that house but waited for him to say it. After some days he said Leona had wanted some money from him so that she could make a living. He said that's when he brought her to the house which had been built to show her where his money was going. Lolla was not disappointed at all because she thought almost everything and been explained.

She then visited the lady who had given her some of the information and thanked her and told her that she was her new neighbour. The lady was very pleased to hear the news and she was very happy for Lolla.

Maureen and Abraham decided to have a wedding, they decided to have it in England. They flew by Luftansa to England and they went to David and Camille's place. They were received warmly at David's place and they booked Ibis hotel.

The wedding plans went on well they bought a diamond ring and 38 Carat of gold for Maureen and 48 carat of gold for the Abraham. The wedding gown was made and designed by C& A. The bridal team clothes were made and designed by Kaleidoscope. The colours were lilac and cream and for the men lilac and black. At David and Camille's place there was great Jubilation as Camille was launching Eucerin for the first time in England after the French pharmacies. There was a party to launch the product in England for the first time. Maureen and Abraham attended and they had great fun together with the rest of the family.

Some speeches were given and there was time to eat the hotel's food which was made by Hilton hotel. The invited guests ate as they pleased and danced as they pleased in couples. They were some couples who kissed and had great fun. Thomas and Lolla were also present and Mary Anne . Leona was at work she had sent a small present.

Sam was also present and she danced with a man called Alfred .They fell in love and Alfred asked Sam to marry him. Sam agreed and they got engaged at Camille's party. Alfred was not as rich as Sam but he still was reasonably rich. There was music in the background as Jubilee played "I love you" and all the other songs from her album.

Camille's party ended well and invited guests returned to their homes in peace and safely. They got home tired and they rested and the following day they had to go back to work . David 's company was flourishing and Sean and Maria were working hard for the success of the business.

They also had a small party just to celebrate the success of the business. People attended from the UK and they had great fun. There was dancing after eating the day's main menu. When they arrived at home it was time to think about the wedding which was the following day. They made sure everything was hired and that there were four limousines hired to take them to the wedding.

The wedding day arrived and there was great joy as Jubilee played her music .It was great music and fans who were present enjoyed it. There was great excitement and everybody was happy for her and her parents. People ate some food and danced and they enjoyed their dance and some couples kissed like Felicitation and Peter as well as David and Camille and Thomas and Lolla.

Everything went as planned there were no accidents or mishaps. They returned to their homes in their private cars and the bridal team and the bride and groom returned in the limousines that had been hired.

People went home talking stories of the wedding so much had happened that they arrived at their homes tired of talking. It had been a fabulous wedding and people were still thinking about it months after it had occurred. Maureen and Abraham had to return to Hawaaii. Their stay in Sheffield had been enjoyable and they hoped to come back soon. They flew by American airlines and arrived home in the afternoon on a sunny day.
