

BORN TO BE BLESSED!

“And So Were You....”

Living it 4 REAL...

By E. Savoy

Born To Be Blessed

Copyright © 2010 by (Ecco Savoy-Debnam)

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means without written permission from the author.

ISBN (ISBN 978-1-4507-2616-0)

The Table of Contents

1-The beginning of a New Year

2-As the Months Followed

3-Ponzi Mania

4-Holding the Mold

5-Heading to Macy's

6-No Excuses

7-Dunbar HS-Washington, DC

8-Diabetes-Sugar and its effects

9-Setting your affairs in Order

10-A Few Helpful Tips

11-Auto Tips for Women

Introduction

This Book is Factual not fiction if you are looking to enjoy fiction this isn't the book for you this is based on all actual events the reason for it's publishing is because some of it will sound to good to be true and other thing will really seem had to believe but whatever the case it's based on a real life story.

For some they need to know that going thru things isn't as far fetched as thought and for some others you can be blessed out of your shoes and yet still for some others they need to believe more than some of the lies in life that they were told.

Such as if you're the wrong color you can't have nice things or amount to anything and yet there are a lot of hurting adults that hurt other people because no one took the time to tell them how important they were so their value of themselves caused them to do things that they knew they shouldn't have done.

What ever it is that you believe caused you to pick up this book is Ok! We're going to take a Journey forward that is going to be forever remembered.

There are things in this book for your Mind, Body & Spirit; we all need to have balance, and it is great to read books that entertain the Mind for a minute but for me I believe that being well rounded in knowledge is just as important.

Chapter 1

In the Beginning of a New Year!

I was the 1st Graduating class of Jackie Robinson JHS, in Brooklyn New York. This allowed me to see leadership for myself even back then. Fast forward, it's now the year of 2009. I thought I would never say this but, I'll be turning 50 years old. I can't believe that I'm actually telling my age, yes I said it 50!

I've made so many changes in a short period of time, since turning 50. Wow, I still can't believe I've just said it again. Moving forward I believe part of the change was also connected to losing my mother Lillian, In October 2009. Looking at the fact she died much younger (71) than her own mom, and my maternal grandmother, Lavana who passed at 88 years of age.

Since, the spirit realm is continual, whether you know or even believe it really doesn't matter. No matter what has happened to you in your life you can change the direction of how you end up.

For some people this may seem impossible but there is absolutely nothing that is impossible with God.....To what ever the circumstances that you were born into with again, I say soooowhhhaatttt! It's not how you start, but how you finish. Everyone needs to be needed. The world is so very unhappy because of this very thing!

This thought should have been my 1st book, but the Lord saw differently. When I think back to May 2006. I was working for Rutgers University, in the Provost Office. I was walking back to my desk, when I heard the voice of the Lord say to me that this would be the last place that I would work for anybody else every again!

I must stress this very important point before continuing. You better be very sure that you heard the Lord's voice, when something of this magnitude is said because the test that is going to follow will really get to the root of this statement.

Now getting back to the word of the Lord, what struck me as odd this time was the fact that, when you hear the voice of the Lord it always sounds like your voice but you know it's not you. This voice was a very strong masculine voice, so I just kept doing what I normally do but I always acknowledge that I heard the Lord speak to me and thank Him for taking the time to speak to me! (Extremely important to remember)....

The point to be made about this is if the Lord promised you something He must keep His word, you might have to go thru something before it comes to pass but it shall come. It's the process that can seem to be a trial more than you could ever imagine. But the word says that He will NEVER forsake you or LEAVE you. Then He compounds it by adding that He knows what you have need of before you ask Him....

Negative thoughts

There are, always has been, and there will always be naysayers, but don't take it personally. It's just the way they were raised and no one told them that anything is possible for them if they could just believe it.

When some people are told negative thoughts, instead of challenging, what is said, they receive these messages and after a while it takes root. This is never good since the only thing that can happen from this, is that whatever you feed will grow stronger. You must resist, and not give up there is always a way out.

As long as you think negatively, it will control your outcome. Your brain is like a giant transmitter always sending and receiving signals. The more you expand your horizons, the more your knowledge will transmit to a stronger positive signal.

While we can't stop thoughts from popping into our head, from time to time, what we can control is how long it stays there.

When, negative thoughts come into my mind, I would replace them with what I new positive ones. Now the flipside to this is, that the Negative things that occur start with a THOUGHT and if, you don't quickly change them right away will then turn into a picture and your Mouth confirms what you are now thinking so that it will begin to feel the negative and stop the positive shape/form that was in motion and it does!