“A Taste of You”

Last night I tasted you, the chocolate mint of your breathe, the caramel cream of your skin, has me searching my soul from within, the taste of your tongue is like flavored bubble gum, the warmth of your chocolate flavored lips has me swaying and moving my hips, the feel of your grip the way you touch I feel the groove in your finger tips, the flavor of our bodies are like strawberry's in Moscoti...As I take a dip, the Moscoti drips from my lip and onto your tongue...your eyes say come get some, I dive in with a thirst for your juice, tongue in and out it's time to get loose let me taste all of you a little whipped cream and then I'm through...

“Gotta Have You”

I ‘m not desperate, I just like what I see, I was checking you, so I know you were watching me, slowing as I walk towards you imagining the many ways I could spill all over you, here’s the invitation, there’s only one answer... “NO” won’t stop my flow, won’t keep me from what I want to explore, your smile, your lips, those eyes turn me on, I wouldn’t advise turning me away, Cause I’m not ashamed to put my want on display, tonight it’s you and “No” won’t matter, cause right now I’m willing to beg to get you on my platter, I’m not ashamed, my pride has been pushed aside, I gotta big “Ego” but not tonight, your body says yes so let’s slip and slide, Don’t care what others are thinking, I ain’t to proud to beg; got pride, so what are you drinking, my aggression has you putting down your guard this one’s on me , here’s my credit card, throwing my thighs all over your lap, can I buy you a drink or maybe perhaps...we could just get a room, I'm not trying to marry or make you my groom, I need what I want for just tonight you don't have to convince cause I won't put a fight!

“Just a Quickie”

The scent of your cologne has turned me on it's got my clit doing the splits making me moan...whispering "you turn me on"...this won't have to take long...on top of the washer spin cycle 10 minutes and were gone...I'm feeling kind of freaky so I might bite ya I want it so bad...so I'm gonna make it tight for ya...I'm not wearing panties so just lift up the skirt...we need to hurry cause I gotta get back to work...I'm fit so lift my thighs up real high been working out...hold it right there open me up real wide...this I love doing it's real fast and quick so don't get mad when I say stop this shit!

Inspired by F.B

"All about Me"

Shh...be real quiet we don't want to start a riot, people we don't know are listening, so open your mind and pay close attention... you're a star and people will know, but for now this is my show... temperatures are up and it's getting higher if you haven't noticed we're about to start a fire...I've got 911 on stand-by so open your mouth and close your eyes...don't ask question just let it be a surprise...something is about to be on the rise...I'm about to feed you something you like to eat let's just call it a sweet treat..."Kottyn Kandy" if you will I seek for you to give me my thrills...close your eyes it's dark in this room, but I see your dick gripping the moon...my breast are wet dripping from our sweat breathing hot and heavy it's like a movie...you're up next so just do it to me...

I'm waiting on the next script...your role is to be my bitch my position is to play with my clit while you watch...this movie is all about me so give me what I want and need...grip my ass pull my hair...look at me giving you those sexual stares...smack it like it's yours to keep...your mission is to put me to sleep!

“His Quiet Love”

Quietly he crept into my soul, I have to take back what he stole, my heart he has constantly on hold, maybe he's just a dream, his swagger so strong like I've never seen.

With eye's so intense they have a story never been told, like a rainbow he holds my pot of gold. He laugh's with such joy that it's music to my ears the sound of his voice I just love to hear. His smile will light up any room; women everywhere want him for their groom.

I've fallen in love with an image I should never have let this happen again. Why couldn't I see this?

Blinded by my needs, searching for my wants he was just putting up a front he didn't ask or care to know says he'd never let me go...

Never displaying his true self, do I need therapy, No just Gods help! Each time I've tried to turn away it was hard so I would kneel and pray...asking God for a man, I should have been more specific wrote down my plan.

Just to remind myself of what I require no abusers, cheaters, or liars raise my standards stand strong in my belief, waited for my prince now I can breathe. Go ahead girl exhale let it all go this is the beginning no one man stop your show.

“A Season of Love”

As the season of fall is near it soon will be over, take time to show your love for her

Search for a moment or two remember something's that she would love to do

Do something extreme but simple make her smile and she'll show you her dimple

Create some happiness in her heart remind her you love that she's smart

Take her hand and place a kiss allow her to feel the love of your soft lips

Slide your arms around her soft body remind her that she's still a hottie

Softly kissing her on her cheek she'll smile and not even speak

You have now brought some cheer, loving her and showing her how much you do care

“Impress Me”

Your best asset, can't be your chest, my greatest treasure isn't my breast.

Your worth has to be more than what dangles between your legs...

Don't need you just jumping in my bed

I want a life partner, a love instead...

So impress me from the start, show me that you're intellectually sharp

Make me believe God gave you a heart, not just special parts...

Romance me, hold me, and show me that you care,

Focus on the start of us becoming the perfect pair.

“Just Be Honest”

How is it that you're so far away and still pretending that I am the woman you want to marry, my mom warned me about men like you...Tom, Dick, and Harry? You turned out to be just like the rest of them, you told the same dry lines to Lisa, Sheila and Kim.

Just be honest what could it hurt, you just lost out on my little desserts...my treats you could have gotten, I'm sweet, like candy; you know, "Kottyn!" If you were just honest to just say you were looking for a one night stand I may have treated you like you were a good "Man" So next time my sweet Prince don't lie, just be honest...truth be told the sex was good, but we have nothing in common!

“Just to say hello”

Can I stop by and say hello you open and I step through the door, you lead me down the hall to your room, you ask "what would I like to do?" we sit watch movies and chat a bit, you move close kiss me I notice movement in my clit, I back away to defuse the passion that just took over my body, this feeling moves to my lips down past my tongue, past my navel awaking kitten and she starts to purr, you pull me closer to you, the control of your hands has intensified my emotions, we kiss once again I notice my eyes closing, I'm praying that this feeling is never ending, but this isn't suppose to be happening, I just stop by to say hello, instead I got heated and couldn't say no, next time I'll just text or call you on the phone.

“Let Me Go”

Stop pretending you want to be with me I'm not the woman you think you see, you call me to say “how's my day” oh and by the way can I stay...with you tonight, I hesitate take a deep breath I say maybe, well I guess...then I think about all the times you've lied, stood me up I think to myself WT*, I would be stupid to fall for one more of your lines, alibi's and constant denies...I'm no longer your puppet, your cook or your girl, it's time for you to leave my world...I need a real man one who doesn't mind holding my hand, a man that will catch me before I fall, make love to me against the wall, stop by my work place with a single rose kisses that tingle my nose, tell me when I'm wrong, don't front or leave me alone to fight the battles of the world, we conquer together and love forever.

"Love Story"

*Awakened by thoughts of you, I can't sleep what do I do?
I've never felt like this I don't have a clue...you're in my head, on my heart, channeling my soul, this love story is about to unfold...shh let me have your ear...listen sit down, relax this I want to share. God lead me to you not by accident, but on purpose...I've waited for a man like you and damn I deserve this. I'll stare into your eyes and quietly say nothing...you stare into mine and desperately want something. Conversations been great we can't make any mistakes...We feel so good I pray these feelings aren't misunderstood. Can't wait for the moment when you touch me, you bring me peace, happiness, and tranquility. The moment will come when you approach me from behind wrapping your arms around me until our bodies enter-twine at some point of this love will you come inside... be a-part of my life for all eternity the kind of love we have should be for the whole world to see*

“Make Love like This”

Can we sit and converse with one another you tell me some more things about you, as I listen to your baritone I am instantly turned on, I notice your hands are caressing my inner thighs stroking my legs it took me by surprise, you look directly into my eyes, your lips are moving and I am captivated by the movement of your lips I notice some movement in my hips, you proceed to move in close to me however you don't kiss, but your lips are moving and I can feel your breath on my face as you continue to excite me I really want to taste, you continue to tell me more about who you are and what you want, still your hands are roaming my inner thighs and around to my back I notice I'm just a little wet...After you have made love to me in the first manner, you gently kiss me on my lips, you then suck on my fingertips, you move your hand to my breast and my nipples are touching the middle of your chest you start to rise and

I feel you reaching for my inner thighs, the flow is smooth we're moving in slow motion, I'm feeling every inch of you making love to me like it's my first time, anticipating the incline, waiting for the moment when you slide inside...

“Making Love to You”

Sit down in this chair I’m gonna make love to you with my stares, with just my glares, and my body flares

Pay attention be silent and listen gaze into my eyes as I draw you into my soul the actions of “Kottyn” are about to get bold

Your hands can’t move ‘cause you’ll mess up my groove, don’t mess up my flow cause there’s a lot more

Of what you see...next you want to be inside of me...

I’ll straddle your lap that’s my first attack roll it all around then sit it down, put it your face all in your space

Rise up the both of us, rub your head still you get no bed, this chair is all I need to get you hooked and Succeed...with my mission edible panties is all I’m missing, whip cream will do

I’ve got other edible food

Paint brush and tongue...all I can ask is that you cum!

“Man of Greatness”

Only a man of greatness can see the woman of God's perfection...like when you looks into her eyes and smile knowing you finally found her...only a man of kindness could know the woman he desires connects without ever touching her body...like when he calls her on the phone and she answers with a smile in her voice and you talk for hours and hours...only a man who cares could know the woman he has longed for desires his touch...like when he comes home from work and whispers in her ear “I love you so much”...only an unselfish man could bring home her favorite kind of flower...like when she's waiting for you counting down the hour...only a man of love could know that he would never let her be alone...like when she's sitting on the sofa waiting for him to come home.

Why would a woman ever leave this kind of man, maybe she's scared maybe she can't stand...the thought of being so happy, maybe she doesn't know that she doesn't have to be so snappy...that this love is a gift from God so stand up and applaud this man give him your hand walk with him, stand beside him, love him „til the day you die.

“My Imagination”

Its morning and we awake to the sun rising, I lay my head on your chest as I listen to the sound of your heart beat...I ‘m thinking I’m so blessed

As my fingertips caress your chest I noticed I’ve become aroused in my silence I imagine you putting it down... I don’t say a word

Just wanna lay with you I can’t speak the truth I refuse to tell you how my sexual tension just went through the roof, then your hand brushes across my thong, the alarm from the radio comes on and it’s playing Will Downing “I Try” that’s my favorite jazz song

You say good morning and I can feel the vibration of your voice tickling my ear, your voice is fading and I start to fear these thoughts are my own so I believe soon you’ll disappear...

“On the Rise”

Call me on the phone, seduce me with your baritone, making love to me over the internet, I'm feeling some neglect, I'm afraid to let...you hold a piece of my heart there's a chance you could tear it apart, you would stop by just to say hi, to say hello you know I'm feenin the sexual tension has started to flow, making love to me with your eyes, happy to be near what a surprise, I like that you continuing to rise, you make love so well you can call me at the drop of a dime...just do this, love me softly, love me loud don't stop just love me and do it now...send me a kiss, email me those lips, send me a picture of some nakedness...

“Pillow Talk”

The day we met I talked and you listened for hours it seemed you really paid attention,

Like a dream one that’s never-ending, we touch, we kiss, such a good blend for me...your smile, my eyes, your kiss, your hands, my lips, my touch...I enjoy us so much.

You love me this way, I want you always, the sound of your voice is music to my ears, your conversation has me captivated, your motivation has me stimulated...this is “pillow talk” or for the beach walk, at dinner time over a glass of wine...you’ve got my mind going, I’ve got your juices flowing you touch my hand and at a glance I realize that...I love you!

“Such a Tease”

You look into my eyes saying all the things that a woman loves to hear...you lean in closer giving a simple kiss on my cold but rosy cheek, I smile and stare at you ever so sweetly, in my mind I wonder could he truly love me, you glance over grab my hand, gently as you caress I'm thinking could he be the right man...you say you'll never leave, if I were your woman I could exhale I could breathe, you would rub my feet just because, say you love me when the day is done...the chemistry is extremely high between us two the sexually tension starts to rise, we're only alone for just a few moments when we start touching, kissing and moaning...the passion is overwhelming as I'm kissing him, he smells...all between my thighs...this is x-rated so hold you might be surprised...we're sucking, and kissing the fluids from our bodies exchange from one to another...damn this is the best loving...clothes on the floor the heat from our naked bodies...I'm thinking thank you Palates' I'm about to use ever bendy trick I know...his on the rise and I'm ready to let the juices flow...I lay him down just a little rough cause I like it that way...I got some toys and I've been wanting to play...we build up a sweat our bodies are over heating...I need you inside I need you to feed me...don't stop now we're just getting started and I'm not done...he turns to me and says sorry but there's no cap for this loaded gun.

“The Rhythm of Us”

Emotions constantly run high, just the mere thought of you touching the inside of my thighs my heart pounds making a rhythm that flows with your lyrics my body reacts to a sound that you'll never forget, your smooth hands, the softness of your fingertips you play my body like a great pianist.

You play so well you deserve a standing ovation; the way you love I'm requesting an Oscar Nomination every part of my body is your instruments to play you have ownership so it can't be stolen nor can it be given away.

You've become that man I so greatly respect you hold and care for me showing no neglect, I'm feeling like a new song you just sat down to write, feeling good, even brand new, like a guitar that's never been used tonight I need you to beat on my drums...you do this so well...question; Did you cum?

I'll be your lyrical inspiration you, can be my chocolate temptation! I 'm the lyrical note that will heighten your sensations

When this song is done we will be as one, tune my bass and tighten my strings...panties no need I have other edible things holding the mic is my part... I'm not trying to hurt you just capture your heart.

“Seduce Me”

Your swag, my ass, your smile my laughs, my class your style

The way you flow makes me want you more Force my body against the door

Lock my hands above my head if I say no your being misled proceed to put your hands between my legs

You seductively remove my skirt, your right hand proceeds to move down my shirt

I can feel you breathe heavily on my chest as you caress and wet my right breast.

Your tongue swirling around my nipple, it feels like your enjoying the taste of me

This seduction has me so aroused; I want to go straight to the room now.

“Simply Amazing”

Your love has been simply amazing, your kiss has me in such a daze and...I can't let go, give me just a little bit more...of all your stuff I can't seem to get enough of lying next to you...five more minutes

Love the kisses, love the touching, love your strengths so very much, it's vital that we take some time to encourage, educate, and nourish our minds with the knowledge of what it takes to keep our love with only few mistakes.

Stick with me and I will stick with you together we can hold it down like super glue.

To love you means so much...you love me with the simplest touch causing my body to burst into flames it explodes over and over again, come closer let me whisper something to you, let me tell you some truth...tell you just what it means, to love a woman of my degree;

“The Definition of you”

The curve of your biceps I can see the strength in your form all I imagine is you holding me in them arms melting me with your charm, The definition of your legs is causing me to beg, lay me down take me to bed, sexually I need to be feed, lie next to me and hold me tight, do your pushups on me all night I'll count as you motion and move to the tune of our groove, move your body up and down on arm or two, that's how we get down,

The curves of your six pack glow from the sweat, my hands are working on you like an experienced mechanic, I can feel the muscular form of your entire body the way you're working it's like thunder and lightning before the storm, The definition of your back is smooth and well oiled like a brand new Cadillac As you move my legs further apart I realize this is just a start, of our body's touching your definition is shown in the way you love me I can smell your Sean John cologne, I open my eyes to see your face when I look up all I see is space I realized that you weren't there, I got all that from my stares and glares.

Inspired by A.M

“The Way I Beg”

I'm kissing your earlobe, down to your neck, in this session I'm making attempts starting to beg, I know your game is on and you're intensely watching it, so when you get through...let me climb on top and click wearing the little black lace thing you bought me from Fredrick's, come take it off cause I need you here next to me

If I glide your way bend over in front of you, it's my way of begging and I'm gonna follow through with this, As I get on my knees breathing heavily I imagine all the nasty things you should do to me, in this scene I'm pleading with you cause I'm aroused, it's ten o'clock and I'm ready, want it and need it now, four play we'll save for another time right now all I need is a quickie this time...I want you real bad so I'll start slow then go fast watching my juices flow, just for the record this is another form of love making, so go ahead do some ass spanking, don't worry about the time this will be over in a few, some of me just wanted to taste a quick some of you...

“The Way You Flow”

You kiss me and I feel the passion flow through my veins like morphine, you look into my eyes igniting the flames as they enter my soul like logs in the fireplace, where we sit you continue to flow all over me ‘til the sun sets and rises and clock strikes three, you whisper in my ear causing my body to quiver so you pull me closer to you until my breast press against your chest...the way you flow through my body I’m addicted to the smiles you bring, the laughs you sing, your eyes that see deep down within, the day we meet is when my life began, you have a flow that runs like the river that’s never ending, not fake, or phony, no pretending, your flow is natural you can’t turn it off it’s not sold in stores so it can’t be bought, you’re a real man to so you control as you talk, it shows as you walk, the flow is in your swag I see it even when your pants sag.

Like your flow it’s very unique, it’s makes for great conversation as we speak, continue your flow and use it well, part of your flow is the way you smell...Sean John, yeah I can tell.

“This Flight”

Tonight's the night let's sit and chat a bit, there's more to life than what you see on the surface, feel my spirit passing through your veins, allow yourself to open up again, this won't hurt or leave you helpless, what it will do is leave you breathless, bring back the love, create some joy this is the moment for you to explore...what it takes to open up the door, this flight travels down your blood stream to your heart, the objective... 'til death do us part...we have the ability to fall in love over and over again...but this time let's start by becoming great friends, before any touching and squeezing we need to know that we're mentally pleasing.

This flight is never ending we'll make a few stops but it's a smooth landing...to captivate each other may seem simple, but holding on may come with certain conditions...the two of us together maintain the right flow that allows the juices to our hearts to just know, that we as us, and just us two would die if you disconnect from me and me from you.

“Thoughts of You”

Give me a minute let me gather my thoughts see what you have can't be bought it can't be stolen or given away...It should be rewarded and put on display, as a matter of fact it's a gift from God wrapped in love Blown my way...

“Today I love you”

Today I realize I love you, how I want to be near you, I awoke with another smile on my face, wishing you were here to embrace me, yesterday I realized that I have fallen in love with you, I want to tell you all my truths, I want to share my life with you, yesterday I noticed you in my dreams, my life's lesson are what they seem, I've been preparing this whole time to be with you, loving you today is what I was born to do...Tomorrow may never come we may not wake to see the morning sun, so I tell you I love you today 'cause tomorrows a different day, I may not feel this way, I'm in this moment right now it's what my heart has opened and allowed...tomorrow I may find that today wasn't what it seems, I may wake up and it was all just a dream.

“Touching Me”

Come close press your chest against my breast, feed my heart beat to the rhythm of yours don't move this hasn't happened before

Touching my lips lightly with yours feel the vibration it's what we live for put your arms around me feel the curves of my body

We mesh real well like orange juice and Moscoti

“Waiting On You”

As I sit here waiting wondering where you are, what time and how far will it be before you will be here with me...you're on your way so I believe, I don't mind cause your worth the wait I'm in CA and you're in the "Show Me State", I'm sitting here staring into space thinking of the moments when we were at your place...you sliding your hands around my waist, holding me so close that I can almost taste the mint that dissolved in your mouth can I slide my tongue in and out...my body's so close that my breast are resting on your arms your breathing heavy and I'm loving your charm...

Your dick just isn't enough to satisfy my shit...I heard my clit screaming please quit I desire some mouth action just to cum...my lips are saying give me some Grab your spoon and maybe a napkin I've been waiting on this kinda action Treat this here like your dessert “Kottyn Kandi” or caramel mixed with a taste of chocolate if you will...If you need I can be real still Bury your head between my thighs if I have to reach for the sky I'm willing do what has to be done I can't wait this is gonna be fun...
Gripping the pillows and grabbing your face I tell you like the way I taste
This won't be over 'til around four and tomorrow I'll want more...

“Who Is She”

*If you could be “She” happiness would be never ending, With her I can take control, my heart “She” has stole “She” allows me to breath over the years, “She” dries my tears and erases my fears “She” has allowed my heart to be free, and sometimes it’s hard to believe
When I sit down beside her I put my hands around her gently touching each musical part as my fingertips glide across, beautifully creating a pounding in my heart. “She” has kept me grounded as I lay my hands down on her, the sounds that echoes through my heart could never keep us apart “She” is inter-twined in me, knowing this she is the love that I need “She” would never walk away, never fail, nor leave... “She’s” there for me makes love to me, me making love to her...we’ve become one Together the love we share causes no despair; it dares to create peace in our world Bold in love, there’s no weight on our shoulder For those who have the pleasure of watching how we please, they applaud as we tease, The silence of our voices speak while we play each piece “She’s” continued to be strong trusting only me at her keys.*

“You Got Me”

How can you say you love me, but you’re looking at her with lust on your face?

You can say you love me and have her all in my space

Why would your lips interact with another woman’s don’t lie her lipstick is on your collar I know you had her in my car because my woman’s radar leads me to the bar where you would meet.

So many nights I couldn’t eat or sleep.

Maybe you didn’t realize that you would be hurting me, even though I don’t see I feel you’re weak!

I understand that you got caught up in a moment; you should’ve remembered that you already have a Woman!

“You Make Me feel...”

You love me when I’m not seen, you show respect in the simplest things

Sending me flowers for no special reason

Tasting my love like I was freshly seasoned...with a spice of your special blend

Making me smile with all the gifts you send

In whatever you do your goal is to make me happy,

You calm me when I seem a little snappy

Without neglect we discuss our subjects,

You never scream or raise your voice, never taken away my choice...my right to choose

In this love neither of us will lose

You manage to throw in that I make you hot, me softly saying “baby don’t stop”

Reminding me of how I turn you on Luther was right “A house is not a home” without your love

You add to and make life more interesting, I hold the lock and you the key

I'm holding onto your love never letting go, continuously you give me all that and much more.

I knew God loved me the moment you walked through my door.

“You’re Team”

Bet you wish you could start over again maybe next time you won't give in-to the temptations of the sensation that flow through what you call your best man, think with your heart get a fresh start have a plan, so you won't have to part with the attribute that you think gives you your best moves, use all three, your mind, your heart and your jewel is like a theme, they should work together treat it like a football team.

“He makes a difference”

He walks in and he makes a difference to a woman who's unsure of her circumstances, his swag so dominating, voice so strong, he gives her the impression that he would never do her wrong; he's what she needs, she's what he wants, he makes her complete, she takes time to feed...his ego, his heart, his soul, he relaxes her from head to toe.
She opens her soul realizing he's in control, he has no idea of what he stole, see his intellect supersedes all others before, she's now ready for him to explore parts of her never yet seen, never even touched she's willing to give this man her trust, but only to this one man, that she's willing to take a stand and fight, he's who she wants, no reason to put on a front, he speaks in a baritone he's very blunt, fills her heart with positive junk, life's lesson, spiritual blessings, a beautiful man with so much...that he will keep you guessing.

“Juices”

Love your flavor you mix well with me, your juices drip wet always as they do it's hard to believe or conceive how often you over flow filling me up and I'm ready to achieve

The ultimate climax the explosion I need

I watch as your juices pour all over my body I'm bathing and splashing this is getting kinda sloppy, we're making a mess no worries no stress but let me unzip and remove my dress maybe get naked

Your juices shower my breast this is so intense even a little steamy opened my eyes and thought I might be dreaming...until I noticed my hands gripping the covers on the bed thought I had two lovers, couldn't figure out where I wanted to put my right leg...so I lift it real high and started to beg

Slid it around your waist my kitty and the juice are all in your face

My thick juicy thighs grip your body as I grab your hands and sit on top of ya...Now the juices you injected are pouring down as I ride and ride and ride and ride and ride...this is where I take over and drive!

“Snapper”

It's hot but fresh the best you ever could have...the aroma of it will make you mad it'll enhance...the quality of your game...it'll be so good you might forget your name...

It's not to be fried but dipped in the seasonings of your choice...mouth wide open,

But you're not to use your voice...

Your long thick dick is at the mercy of my clit...touching every wall like a construction project when you touch her the juice just oozes out...wait you got a little something on the side of your mouth

Come back for seconds anytime you like...note is not red but a creamy chocolate white...

So if anyone asks what you had for breakfast, lunch, or dinner just say “Snapper” It's keeping you fit making you surrender...it gives you the burst of energy you need to take on the World Conquer and Succeed!

“Touch It”

Let me sit on your lap facing you from front then back to back

slide your hands between my thighs...listen to my moans and my quiet sighs...notice the curves in my form thickness is what I'm promoting...reach around, hands glide down my back feel that it's round shakes like jelly so go ahead give it a smack

It's ok 'cause I like it like that...my ass grinds as your tool grows bigger...just the slightest touch gets it hot in here...I'm no fool every woman and man in my sight wish they could take me home tonight...

Instead I sit here with you an hour we've been sitting on this bar stool...

Don't care if anyone can tell...that we just spilled the KY gel...

Slide my panties to one side the smiles and groans I can't hide...You got my tongue doing tricks just let me get a lick...of your chocolate dick right quick!

“Passion”

He takes me in his arms lays me down on the bed proceeds...to make love and give me head...

As he reaches for my sweet tender breast I scream daddy you're the best “It's yours” “I want more”

He rises from her smooth tender clit and proceeds to kiss her golden colored lips, his tongue all in her mouth moving and flowing all about swirling around...the exchange of fluids has her so wet take your time so there will be no regrets...he grabs her breast oh so tight sucking them as if this is their last night...a little rough and it turns her on...this is an original love song...we're writing it as they go along

Next she'll get down on the floor...no one's home so we're alone lock the door...he grips her with such passion she realizes that she needs and she has to have him...she's holding his dick in her mouth tongue moving in then all round the tip of his dick she's taking her time so you don't cum too quick...lick you like a lollipop hit the back of her throat and she can't stop we're in the moment she planned this out so it's a part of her program...

You've had her ripping sheets and banging headboards there's still a spot over on the floor...somehow what started off as a sex game has turned her emotionally insane...you have captured her heart this has to end so let's stop and part...you go your way she'll go hers...let's say this was fun you came and now she's not the same...

remind you of the times we kissed by the docks...all the times we made love in public holding my hand and whispering sweet nothings, I made plans by the river I'll give you my coat if you quiver...the sound of the waves combined with the midnight breeze the way we dance it's like love here to do just what you do...*

out of this chair*

Close my door so no one can see...I'm imagining you kissing and touching me

My hands are caressing my body now gripping my breast...I'm comfortably sitting on top of my desk

Skirt is high upon my thighs...moving up to my wet surprise

Laying back eyes closed I'm using my bullet and some other toys...pleasuring myself and bringing me joy

Be on your way I have an hour for lunch...I've gotten started but I need you to Fuck!

“Touching Myself”

I awake this morning and I'm touching myself...the mere thought of you couldn't be helped

My hands were roaming as though they were yours...eventually I pulled out my girlie toys

I had to close the bedroom door...need the privacy so I can explore

And continue touching all the many places so I can make the many faces

It's that early morning touch, the kissing, and the way you suck

I like the way you feel inside me...the way you do it, it's always pleasing

As I open up my lips to feel my clit I think of you...asking “how does he do that shit!”

To create the sensation that arouses my creation making me want you

Having me do the nastiest sexual things that we could do...like from my clit to my lips lying in bed doing the splits...touching my breast I need you to caress...loving myself enjoying it, are you on your way home yet...

“So you think I’m Sexy”

...because she puts on a lace thong and roll it around in your face, you say she’s sexy cause she opens her legs slowly backing it up in your favorite place, you say she’s sexy cause with the black lace thong she takes off her black lace bra and proceed to touch herself as you watch gripping and holding as she asks for your help!

Your idea of sexy maybe she in these four inch heels, giving off a certain kind of sex appeal giving you the illusion that her legs are sensual and long, her pelvic thrusts as you watch her dance naked to this song

Is it when she slides down the pole with her back arched and body wrapped hugging it as if it were you, your imagination has you focused but confused, your mind says she wants you right now...you need to get your head out of the clouds

The truth is you’re never going to see her after tonight, so say good night and go home to your wife.

Sexy is none of what she described sexy is; her putting on my clothes, jumping into her ride, you watching her and her legs go as she says good-bye.
