

Will Sayre thought he had found “the one” years ago, but she’d left him, married, and moved on with her life. Since then, he’s searched the world for someone special with whom he could spend the rest of his life. His job brings him to dozens of countries, allowing him to meet and entertain many beautiful and exotic women, but for one reason or another, none of them can live up to his first true love.

And then he meets Renee.

Renee is a single mom, and Will’s friends warn him to flee Renee and all her baggage. But his heart presses him on. Could Renee be the woman he’s been searching for the whole world over? Read Escape from His Past and discover if Will’s special love was right here in his own back yard?

Escape from his past

RICK GANGRAW

RICK GANGRAW

Escape from his past

