

The year is 1938 B.C. Kira, a bull dancer of Crete, is injured in the bull ring and returns home. To keep a promise she made to her dieing father she must follow another path in life and teams up with her brother Niko to expand their family's merchant business. She and Niko venture to many ancient seaports as well as Egypt and Mesopotamia. Kira finds Abraham camped near the Dead Sea to deliver a mysterious book meant for him. Traveling on to Babylon, Kira and Niko buy a boat and sail to Ubar, a city in southern Arabia that has the purest incense in the known world. It is worth more them gold. If they can establish a trade route from Ubar to the kingdoms of the north they will become rich.

Barbara Korsness served eight years in the Navy, then married and settled down in California, later Texas, where she and her husband raised three children, and Peruvian Paso horses. She now lives in Florida and works part-time at a high school. The remainder of her time is spent writing.*

US$19.95

www.PublishAmerica.com

BULL DANCER

Barbara Korsness

BULL DANCER

Barbara Korsness