

The NUTCRACKER

The NUTCRACKER

Original story by Rada Higgins, based on "The Nutcracker and The Mouse King" by E.T.A. Hoffman.

Produced by
LADILA MUSIC. 2003

Jephat Shayne Moira had wished for a doll house, but instead, she received an old, model stage set. Jephat was also given two old posters of the first theater production of the Nutcracker Suite and an old book with a photo of Tschaikovsky, that had been left in the house by Degas, the painter.

A Xmas tree made of marzipan and a girl of pink marzipan had also been given to her on Xmas Eve. She named the marzipan girl, "Clara."

Her brother had wanted a taste of her candy, but Jephath didn't want to let the pink girl be destroyed or broken into pieces.

