

*W*hen Devra Denira and Mitch Kolb, the man of her dreams, were together no one could misinterpret the mutual desire fueling inside them just waiting to be unleashed and tasted. Pittsburgh born and raised they shared the love of music! (Especially his!) The heated passion is so hot onlookers can feel the sizzling vibrations. He gallantly takes her hands before their first kiss and devastatingly learns they are related. Shocked! Shattered romance that unravels lives!

Desperate, Mitch takes to bedding Mona, an evil, gold digger while despondent, Devra moves away to Connecticut to start a new life. Her recurring dreams begin, later finding they were actual events that happened to Mitch. They're not related after all, but Mona will not let go. Not for anything! Attempting to murder both of them until surrounded at gunpoint! Will Devra ever get the pink roses?

I have traveled to and enjoyed all of the states in this beautiful country except Alaska and Hawaii. I will see them also. Aloha! Celebrate USA. I have had extraordinary experiences. That's why I have to write. It's a Passion For The Written Word!
